July 2024

Dear Post Commander,

Congratulations on your election as Commander! This is an important position, one that requires hard work, dedication, and trustworthiness. Your Post is counting on you to fulfill your duties to the benefit of the organization, members and communities. We want to help you be successful.

Whether you are new to the job or have done it before, there is always something you can learn. This guide was created to assist you – no matter what your current level of knowledge and experience may be. This guide is a training tool to educate and assist you in your role.

The enclosed manual is periodically updated. You can find the latest version, as well as other valuable resources, at www.vfw.org by logging in as a member (Login – top bar, right side), and going to “Member/Post Resources – Bylaws: Training, Forms & Templates.”

Other important resources include the Bylaws, Manual of Procedure, and Ritual. In particular, the Manual of Procedure, Sec 218 (a) (1) outlines the responsibilities of the Post Commander. Learn these well. Each Post is required to maintain a current copy of the Bylaws, Manual of Procedure, and Ritual; current copies are available for purchase from the VFW Store at www.vfwstore.org.

We are here to support you. If you have questions and are unable to find answers with your District or Department, call us at 833.VFW.VETS. Explain to the operator what you need, and they will transfer you to the correct person to answer your questions.

Thank you for taking on this responsibility. It may be challenging at times, but it can also be very rewarding. We wish you well!

Dan West
Adjutant General

Marc L. Garduno
Quartermaster General

P.S. Have a suggestion to how we can improve the Commander’s Guide? We want to hear from you! Send an email to info@vfw.org, subject line “Feedback on Commander’s Guide,” with your comments. We are always looking to improve on what we do.

Introduction

The purpose of this document is to help educate all elected and appointed officers of the organization about programs in the organization, from youth programs & scholarships, community service, volunteer recognition, “Buddy” ® Poppy, to all programs under the Veterans & Military Support umbrella. Additionally, it will have information concerning U.S. Flag issues and a variety of special projects. Our sole priority is helping your Post, District and Department serve your community and veterans in a meaningful way. For that reason, the VFW National Organization is committed to doing everything possible to serve you and make every opportunity count for you and for the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The purpose of this section is twofold. First, we want to familiarize you as leaders of your Post, District or Department, with the fundamentals of our VFW programs and activities. As we do that, it is our goal then to encourage you and your existing leaders to participate to build that much needed relationship with your local community. We are convinced that good programs, properly executed, will do more for your Post than anything else you do.

Your programs are often the first impression that the public has of the VFW. Therefore it’s extremely important to be prepared and more importantly appoint the right persons as the program chairman. Your VFW programs are defined under two categories: Community Service, Youth Scholarships and Activities and Veterans & Military Support. Within the Community Service, Youth Scholarships and Activities category, we often refer to several program elements as our core programs. These are programs that are executed by the largest number of Posts and have the greatest impact on our organization, our communities and our veterans.

Typically, these core programs are mandated for every Post as part of your Department All State Program and are heavily encouraged and supported by the VFW National organization. These core programs within the Community Service, Youth Scholarships and Activities include our scholarship programs, Voice of Democracy and Patriot’s Pen, the Smart/Maher VFW National Citizenship Education Teacher of the Year program, Scouting and “Buddy” ® Poppy.

The second group of programs under the Community Service, Youth Scholarships and Activities umbrella, is called Special Projects and Activities, which cover Americanism, volunteering recognition, community service, awards and recognition and other miscellaneous youth activities. This will include the “new” Employer of the Year, VFW Member of the Year and JROTC Cadet of the Year programs. These programs are highly encouraged for all Posts and Departments and will be supported by the National organization upon request.

Before you can effectively execute our VFW programs, you first must know the programs. I recommend to all Post, District or Department officers and chairman, to carefully read the program chairman’s guides to familiarize yourself with the programs that best fit your Post and your available resources. As a VFW leader, you should be able to speak intelligently and authoritatively about all aspects of our great organization.

The best available resource that we have available is our VFW website (vfw.org). I would strongly encourage you as officers and program chairmen to establish a login. Doing so, will provide you access to all the information and materials concerning VFW Programs, but will also allow you to access additional information needed to help you execute your duties and responsibilities as an officer of the organization. Here you will gain access to important items such as National Bylaws, Manual of Procedure & Ritual amendments and National Resolutions to be presented at the National Convention, our monthly National Headquarters Bulletin and General Orders, and several online fillable forms.

However, the most important benefit of having a login is being able to access MY VFW, where you'll have access to all materials and information within our VFW Training & Support section. This section contains videos, promotional materials, chairman manuals and resources, and much more in all available areas of the organization.

VFW Programs Overview Community Service, Youth Scholarships and Activities

Patriot's Pen

Originally created as the Youth Essay Contest, Patriot's Pen asks junior high and middle school students to write a 300 to 400-word essay on a new patriotic theme each year. Winners receive scholarships and begin by competing at the Post level. Winners proceed to District, Department and finally to the National level where they compete for the $5,000 first place scholarship. The themes and additional information concerning program execution can be found at vfw.org, behind the login within the VFW Training & Support hub, under Community Service and Youth Programs.

Voice of Democracy

Like Patriot's Pen, is the Voice of Democracy Audio/Essay Contest. Since 1947, the VFW has asked high school students to write and record a 3 to 5-minute essay, again on a patriotic theme selected by the VFW each year. Students may record on an audio CD or flash drive. Like Patriot's Pen, Voice of Democracy winners receive scholarships and other incentives at the Post, District, and Department and finally to the National level where they will compete for the $35,000 first place scholarship. The Voice of Democracy theme and additional information concerning the execution of the program can be found at vfw.org, behind the login within the VFW Training & Support hub, under Community Service and Youth Programs.

These two great youth scholarship programs provide almost $3 million in scholarships and incentives every year.

Smart/Maher VFW National Citizenship Education Teacher Award

While you're visiting a school, don't miss the opportunity to mention the Smart/Maher VFW National Citizenship Education Teacher Award. The VFW wants to identify and recognize America's best educators in three (3) categories, (K-5, 6-8, 9-12), who instill a sense of national pride in students. Teachers who promote civic responsibility, flag etiquette and patriotism are prime candidates. It offers commemorative citations for those worthy teachers and their schools. Posts are encouraged to submit a candidate, in each category, and forward these awards to their District by November 15. If your Department does not have District judging, then forward it on to your Department Headquarters and /or Department Chairman by January 1. The Department may then select a single candidate, in each category, for the award and submits their entries to National Headquarters by February 1. That honor can establish a great relationship that opens the door for all VFW and Auxiliary programs. Additional information concerning the execution of the program can be found at vfw.org, behind the login within the VFW Training & Support hub, under Community Service.

VFW Scouting

The VFW has a long relationship with Scouting. VFW Posts need to consider providing leaders, sponsoring units, offering their facility for meetings and encouraging their involvement in service projects. Posts can benefit from Scouting by having a unit do a flag retirement ceremony, help distribute Buddy Poppies, or help with clean up after events. These are just a few that would provide a benefit and generally can serve your Post. Additional information concerning the execution of the program can be found at vfw.org, behind the login within the VFW Training and Support hub, under Community Service.

VFW "Buddy" ® Poppy Program

Our oldest and perhaps most historically significant program is the VFW "Buddy" ® Poppy program. It is important that you realize that although Memorial and Veterans Days are particularly important Buddy Poppy events; you should have poppies at every event that involves your Post and the public. Poppies can and should be distributed year-round. I'm sure you know that we never "sell" poppies. We give them away and receive donations. If someone cannot donate, don't deny them a poppy. Seeing the red poppy on a lapel or dress brings honor to those we have lost and recognition to the VFW.

Additionally, Section 219 of the National Bylaws and Manual of Procedure, mandates that the net proceeds from the distribution of Buddy Poppies must be credited to the Post Relief Fund. Also listed in section 219 are the purposes which funds can be disbursed from the Post Relief Fund. I would encourage officers at all levels of the organization to familiarize themselves with this section. Additional information concerning the execution of the program can be found at vfw.org, behind the login within the VFW Training and Support hub, under Community Service.

VFW Recognition Programs

The purpose of the VFW Recognition Program is twofold. First and foremost, as an organization of wartime veterans and their spouses, the VFW and its Auxiliary understand the need to recognize and honor those individuals who have performed above and beyond their peers. Of particular significance are those who, like our members and veterans, have placed the safety and welfare of others above and beyond their own. Secondly, the VFW and its Auxiliary realize the value of these awards to the Post, District, Department and National organization.

It's important that VFW and its Auxiliary leaders, at every level, take advantage of every opportunity to honor worthy individuals and sometimes organizations.

With that in mind, the VFW has established several suggested awards. The following are suggested awards:

National Citation of Recognition

These citations are available to recognize Posts or individual Post chairpersons who have demonstrated an exceptionally high level of service to their community. The Department Chairperson is given sole responsibility for identifying those Posts and individuals.

Public Servant National Awards (Law Enforcement, Firefighter, Emergency Medical Technicians/Service, 911 Dispatchers, and Explosive Ordnance Disposal Technicians)

Each year, the Veterans of Foreign Wars selects law enforcement, firefighter, emergency medical technicians, 911 dispatchers, and explosive ordnance disposal technicians to receive the VFW's Public Servant Awards. Posts are encouraged to submit a candidate for these awards to their Department Headquarters by January 1. The Department may then select a single candidate for each of the four awards and submit those to the VFW National Headquarters by February 1.

Life Saving Awards

The Safety Chairperson at Posts, Districts and Departments are encouraged to regularly identify and honor individuals throughout the year in their geographic area who have saved a life. The VFW Programs department provides the three different Life Saving citations (Regular, Line of Duty and Valor) and appropriate medal, free of charge, for local presentation.

VFW Special Projects & Youth Activities

Our next level of programs is our special projects. These include Americanism, volunteer recognition, community service, awards and recognition and other youth activities. Equally important among our special projects is community service. Any activity done by a Post or Auxiliary that benefits the community falls under this broad banner and is supported by the VFW National Organization and encouraged for all Posts, Districts and Departments. Recognizing these exceptional efforts is provided in three ways – our Volunteer Recognition Programs, Outstanding Community Service Posts Awards, and the Outstanding Post Special Project Award.

The Outstanding Community Service Post Awards are given to Posts identified by their Departments for their exceptional response to VFW Community Service Programs. Each Department determines the actual criteria for their Posts. Posts selected for this honor are invited to send a representative to the VFW National Convention for a reception with the VFW Commander-in-Chief. There they will receive a national plaque and a recognition street sign for their community. Deadline for entries in the Outstanding Community Service Post Award is April 30, each year.

Outstanding Post Special Project Awards are given each year to Posts that do a special project outside their normal VFW activities. Posts should submit their entries to their Department for review and endorsement before going to VFW National Headquarters. All submissions receive a certificate, Award of Merit plaque or an Award of Excellence plaque. Those receiving the Award of Excellence will be entered into the Fred C. Hall Memorial Outstanding Post Special Project competition. The Post receiving the Fred C. Hall award receives a plaque at the VFW National Convention and a $1,000 service scholarship for community projects. The Post Commander (or designated representative) and a guest will receive round-trip airfare, a cash stipend and accommodations to receive the award at the VFW National Convention.

Another special project is the VFW's Veterans in the Classroom. In recent years, many teachers have contacted VFW Posts seeking veterans to come into the classroom and share their military experiences. VFW members may also choose to contact local youth groups and schools and express their willingness to share their experiences. VFW National Headquarters has materials available to support this activity. Many veterans have found this to be enjoyable and therapeutic.

Few youth programs provide a greater benefit to a Post than involvement with Scouting, Civil Air Patrol, Naval Sea Cadet or JROTC units. These programs annually produce individuals with an appreciation of patriotism, civic responsibility and the likelihood of future military service. VFW Posts need to consider providing leaders, sponsoring units, offering their facility for meetings and encouraging their involvement in service projects. Posts can benefit from Scouting by having a unit do a flag retirement ceremony, helping distribute Buddy Poppies or helping with clean up after events. In the case of JROTC, the same applies. Your place may serve as a location for the JROTC Drill team to practice and, just like Scouting, they are an excellent resource for volunteers for Post-sponsored activities.

Posts are encouraged to seek out ways in which they can benefit their community. The VFW encourages any activity that benefits the community, brings recognition to the Post and honors America's veterans and those in uniform. Every program, done by your Post, results in relationships that produce goodwill. This goodwill increases public interest in your events, often enhances your fundraising efforts and can produce new members. A Post that has been identified as a community asset through its programs will seldom have a shortage of members or lack of community support. Use your VFW Programs to establish your Post as a respected community asset. The VFW will then become the organization of choice for all veterans and will reap the rewards of public favor that cannot be purchased.

Helpful Hints for Program Execution

Each time you visit a school, conduct a patriotic event, honor a local hero, serve your community's youth or perform any kind of community service, you are creating an impression of the VFW. Hopefully, that impression is the beginning of a relationship that benefits the community and your Post. The goal of any Post should be to become known as a valuable community resource and not the local "watering hole" in the community. Posts that achieve this status rarely have problems with recruiting or fundraising.

So, how do we get young people involved? First let me say that your scholarship programs, like the "Buddy" ® Poppy program, should be a part of everything you do in the community. Buddy Poppies and student entry forms for the scholarships should be present at every event where the public is involved.

We will discuss schools first, but later we will explore a variety of other opportunities to present our scholarship programs.

Contact schools, home school associations and other youth organizations early, preferably in April. This is the time of year when they begin planning for the coming fall. When you visit a school, don't go unannounced, call first to find out with whom you should meet and make an appointment.

Schools are busy places and often a secure environment. Showing up without an appointment almost ensures failure. Call, make an appointment and be on time. Conduct yourself professionally and you will be treated professionally.

Make sure you have the necessary materials to leave with the teacher, counselor, principal or administrator on everything you will discuss. Show them copies of the various brochures and identify the entry form included. If the opportunity is available, go into the classroom and present the students with the programs that directly impact them. One of the primary purpose of your visit is to leave the impression that your Post is a resource, not only for scholarships, but for veteran's history, patriotic information, and U.S. Flag etiquette. Don't forget to mention that Voice of Democracy and Patriot's Pen are on the National Advisory List of Student Contests and Activities of the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

Your chances for success are increased when you work closely with your Auxiliary counterpart. Make sure that they understand and have materials for all the VFW programs. The most successful Posts are always the ones that work together with their Auxiliary. Like our scholarship programs, the Teacher Awards begin at the Post level. Information and entry forms are on the VFW website at vfw.org.

A key factor in the success of your scholarship and teacher programs is your judging process. The judging sheets are included on the training website. When selecting your judges, make every attempt to find judges from outside the VFW and its Auxiliary. Local military recruiters, educators, media personalities, police officers, firefighters, church pastors and local civic leaders are excellent choices. If possible, make your life easier by using the same judges for all your scholarships and teacher's awards. Cultivate a good relationship with your judges by expressing your gratitude and inviting them when you honor your winners.

As mentioned earlier, when seeking students to participate, don't hesitate to look beyond your schools. These same programs should be presented to the leaders and sponsors of any group that deals with young people. Look around your neighborhood for community centers, athletic teams and leagues, Scout units, churches with large youth groups, home school associations, YMCA's and YWCA's - anywhere there are large groups of young people who may wish to participate.

In recent years, home school programs have produced several winning participants. Home school parents and their associations are generally patriotic, have broader latitude for selecting curricula and are always looking for projects that have value beyond the immediate lesson.

Veterans & Military Support (VMS) Programs

To continue to detail the core programs, as mentioned earlier, Veterans & Military Support is part of the VFW's never-ending obligation to assist members of the active duty military, National Guard and Reserves, as well as their families. These programs were established to keep the Veterans of Foreign Wars in the forefront of patriotism as the organization and its members find innovative ways to show support for America and her armed forces.

The programs under the Veterans & Military Support umbrella consist of: Military Assistance Program (MAP)/Adopt-A-Unit Program, VFW #StillServing Grant, Post Assistance Grant, Uniting to Combat Hunger Grant, and the VFW's "Sport Clips Help a Hero Scholarship" program. Through these programs, the Veterans of Foreign Wars provides assistance and guidance to our subordinate units in their efforts to support our military and their families. From hosting morale boosting events, providing financial assistance, to providing scholarships to veterans returning to school.

VFW Military Assistance Program (MAP)/Adopt-A-Unit (AAU) Program

The Military Assistance Program is designed to encourage the link between the VFW and the military community.

This program promotes VFW member interaction with the local military and opens avenues for National Sponsorships and local level involvement with all branches of service. Within this program are two unique services to help foster the relationship between the Post and the local military community, the Military Assistance Program Grant process and the Adopt-A-Unit program.

The Military Assistance Grant process is intended as financial assistance for Posts, Districts, and Departments to sponsor events for active-duty military units, National Guard, and Reserves. These events are most successful when local Posts interact directly with the military unit, involving the National Certified Recruiters, Veterans Service Officers, and your local and Department chain of command.

A Military Assistance Grant application must be submitted to VFW National Headquarters a minimum of two weeks prior to the event. The application must be filled out completely, including a breakdown of the event budget and the VFW involvement with the event. Additional information concerning the execution of the program and the grant application can be found at vfw.org, behind the login within the VFW Training and Support hub, under Veterans & Military Support.

Another opportunity for Posts to interact with their local military community available within the Military Assistance program is the Adopt-A-Unit program. This program was developed to pledge support of the Post to the service members and families of a unit from the local military community. When a Post “adopts” a unit, you make a commitment to the service members and their families to provide moral and emotional support before, during and after deployment.

Sponsoring a military unit is a great opportunity to get other community activity projects started, such as coordinating with teachers or schools to co-sponsor the unit. Additional information concerning the execution of the Adopt-A-Unit program and the application can be found at vfw.org, behind the login within the VFW Training and Support hub, under Veterans & Military Support. Please remember that the objective of all Military Assistance Program initiatives is increasing the awareness of the VFW, and it does not end when the troops re-deploy home. They and their families continue to need our support and assistance.

VFW #StillServing Grant

The #StillServing Grant is offered exclusively to VFW Posts, Districts and their Auxiliaries to offset expenses incurred while doing community service projects. Projects require direct involvement by the applying organization’s members with members of their community to qualify.

Both a VFW Post and its Auxiliary, and a District and its Auxiliary, can receive funding of up to $1,500, but each applicant organization must have its own unique project. Applicants are limited to receiving a total of $1,500 during the cycle.

Applications for the VFW #StillServing Grant will be accepted from September through June 1, of the following year, or until all grant funding is exhausted.

Post Assistance Grant

The Post Assistance Grant is offered exclusively to VFW Posts to offset expenses incurred for building repairs and equipment that enhances or restores the applicant organization’s ability to serve veterans and their community. Auxiliaries, Districts, Departments and other VFW subordinate organizations, etc., may not apply.

VFW Posts may receive up to $2,500 in reimbursement for qualifying projects. Applicants are limited to receiving this grant once every three years.

Applications for the VFW Foundation Post Assistance Grant will be accepted from September through June 1, of the following year, or until all grant funding is exhausted.

Uniting to Combat Hunger Grant (UTCH)

The UTCH Grant is a matching grant of up to $1,500 available to VFW Posts and Auxiliaries for monetary and food donations to local food banks and pantries in their communities. The VFW will provide a $1 match for every pound of food or dollar donated to food insecurity organizations. A Post or its Auxiliary may receive this grant but not both.

The UTCH Grant opens in September through June 1, of the following year, or until all grant funding is exhausted.

VFW Combat Tested Gaming (CTG)

The VFW's Inaugural Gaming League Exclusively for Veterans was established in 2023. CTG has quickly succeeded in reaching its early objectives. Now, as we look to the future, we set our sights on becoming THE leader in the veteran gaming space by continuing to promote the program and through partnering with a veteran-owned company which specializes in building the gaming infrastructure needed to support our growth and long-term success.

In just half a year, CTG has become the fastest growing veterans gaming community in America. We are approaching 2,000 veteran gamers on our Discord server and streaming gameplay on our Combat Tested Gaming Twitch channel. Join our Discord community to connect with other veterans and active-duty service members who play your game of choice? Subscribe to our Twitch and YouTube channels to watch our gameplay and experience the thrill and camaraderie of our gamers.

There is a dedicated VFW Service Officer available to answer VA benefits questions daily. Four VFW Posts have leveraged CTG to start gaming nights and one VFW Post has already built a gaming room to support student veterans. Five Veterans' lives have been saved during these crises by using connections made through CTG.

VFW's "Sport Clips Help A Hero Scholarship" Program

The last program and the newest program under the Veterans & Military Support umbrella is VFW's Help a Hero Scholarship program. The VFW's Sport Clips Help a Hero Scholarship helps service members get the education and training needed to begin the next chapter of their life. Each scholarship will provide recipients with up to $5,000 for tuition and fees to apply toward their education at an accredited postsecondary institution, including universities, colleges, trade schools and apprenticeships, and certification programs.

An important note about this program is the scholarship application is only available on-line at vfw.org and must also be submitted online using the form on our website.

Applications submitted by U.S. mail, email and fax will not be accepted. For the application and more information, visit: vfw.org/assistance/student-veterans-support.

VFW Student Veteran Initiatives

- Scholarships of up to $5000
- Separated with or currently hold a military rank of E-5 or below
- Demonstrate a need for financial assistance
- Must be accepted or enrolled in a VA-approved program or school at an accredited postsecondary institution
- Limited to one per family per semester
- Applications for the fall semester will be accepted Jan.1 through Apr. 30
- Applications for the spring semester will be accepted Aug. 1 through Nov. 15
- Fall semester scholarships will be awarded in August, and spring semester scholarships will be awarded in January
- Scholarships must be used by the end of the school semester for which the veteran is applying or they will become null and void
- Be a citizen of the United States

The VFW and one of its major supporters, Sport Clips Haircuts, have again partnered to help our veterans and their families. The VFW's "Sport Clips Help A Hero Scholarship" will provide service members and veterans with the financial assistance they need to complete their educational goals without incurring excessive student loan debt. It's just another way to say "Thank you" to those who deserve it the most. vfw.org/Scholarship/

VFW Leadership and Development

Being a member of the VFW means being an agent of change.

But...

To be a leader within the VFW means connecting with those around you; inspiring them with a shared sense of mission; and through education and engagement, mobilizing them in order to accomplish a common goal.

As Gen Stanley McChrystal put it,

“I was most reinforced by the understanding that where we were, the status quo was failing, and because it was failing I knew we had to change. But instead of trying to provide an exact path ahead, what I did was I tried to inform and engage the command by saying we have to move in this general direction- help me figure it out. As people did that, we refined the direction we were going, constantly shifting, and it made more people the agents of change.”

Mission Statement: The Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States believes America is defined by how it treats those who sacrificed to protect it; we believe in protecting and fighting for those who were brave enough to fight for us. Whether on Capitol Hill or in our communities, the VFW fights and defends the rights of America’s veterans by lobbying for veteran’s rights, helping veterans get the benefits they deserve, and assisting veterans further their education with scholarships and living assistance for them and their families. To do less, would be an unconscionable betrayal of our responsibilities as Americans and veterans.

Leadership in the 21st Century in 3 Questions

[Roselinde Torres: “What it takes to be a great leader”]

1. Where are you looking to anticipate change? Proactive leaders practice identifying and sharing trends that impact your team in order to course correct a strategy or to anticipate new moves. Shape your future instead of just reacting to it.
 - a. Who are you spending time with and on what topics? Where are you traveling? What are you reading? How are you distilling all of this information into understanding potential pitfalls so you can do something right now in order to prepare?
 - i. The following questions aim to identify local focal points of change. If you answer “No” to a question, think about expanding your awareness to identify potential trends. If you answer “Yes” to a question, discuss with your team how current trends in that area may impact you or your mission- this may offer an opportunity to raise awareness within your community and engage your local leaders in a call for action or collaborative campaign for change.
 1. Local Government
 - a. Do you pay attention to local government?
 - b. Do you know who your local government officials are and their priority goals?
 - c. Are you aware of current or upcoming ballot initiatives?
 2. Educational Institutions
 - a. Do you know all of the schools in your area?
 - b. Do you have relationships with the educators and administrators of those schools?
 - c. If an institution of higher education (community college/university/vocational school), do you know the percentage of veterans in attendance? And/or if said institution is veteran friendly?
 3. Local Business
 - a. Are you aware of local business trends?
 - b. Do you know/have a relationship with the local business leaders in your area?
 - c. Have you thought about areas of mutual interest?

2. What is the diversity measure or your network? Great leaders understand that having a more diverse network is a source of pattern identification as well as solutions because you have surrounded yourself with people who are thinking differently than you are.
- a. Expand your capacity to develop relationships with people and organizations that are very different than you; find shared goals; and work together.
 - i. Name 3 other non-profit organizations in your area. (i.e. local Homeless Shelter or Food Pantry)
 - 1. _____
 - 2. _____
 - 3. _____
 - ii. Now, in 5 words or less, write 3 common goals you have with each organization above. (i.e. preventing Veteran Homelessness/ feeding veterans and their families/ providing family assistance)
 - 1. _____

 - 2. _____

 - 3. _____

 - iii. Have you already established a working partnership in a community project? Think how you might incorporate other organizations to expand the impact of that effort.

3. Are you courageous enough to abandon the past? Brave leaders dare to be different: they just don't talk about taking risks they actually take them. The most impactful development comes when you have built the emotional stamina to withstand others who tell you that your new ideas are naïve or stupid. Courageous leaps are joined and supported often by people who think differently than you.
- a. When challenging the status quo, it's easy to say "we can't change that because it's tradition!" or "why change when we've always done it this way?", but in order to succeed and to grow we must not only be willing to change we must embrace it.
 - i. Think of 3 practices within your organization that have made you successful in the past. Now, re-examine these practices by asking the following questions of all three.
 1. Does this practice still work? (Does it still serve its original function?)
 2. Does this practice impede my efforts? (Is it holding me back or preventing me from trying something new?)
 3. Is this practice marginalizing and excluding those who I'm trying to reach? (Am I unable to work with certain groups simply out of tradition- am I limiting my network and sphere of influence because of the past?)

It is undoubtedly hard to let go of practices that have made you successful in the past. As long as circumstances do not change, there is no reason to; however, changing times call for changing practices, and in our dynamic society this inevitably means the failure to change is the failure to thrive.

How Great Leaders Inspire Action: Who? Why? How? What?

[Simon Sinek: "Start with why"]

1. People don't buy what you do, they buy why you do it, and great leaders are able to communicate why they do what they do in order to inspire action in others. The goal is not to do business with people who need what you have; the goal is to do business with people who believe what you believe.

2. Who, Why, How, What, and why should anyone care? No one is going to want to be a part of what you do if you can't tell them why you do it or give them a reason to care. The first step in successfully communicating what you believe is by working from the outside in and communicating from the inside out.

a. What does your Post do?

Great Leaders Are Prepared, Informed, and Polite but Firm

1. Great leaders are prepared with great questions. [Good Leaders Ask Great Questions: John C. Maxwell]
 - a. Too often as leaders, we get fixated on our own point of view and spend our time trying to convince others of our opinions instead of trying to find out theirs. As English novelist and politician Edward Bulwer-Lytton asserted, “The true spirit of conversation consists in building on another man’s observation, not overturning it.” That’s where questions come into play. By asking questions and listening carefully to answers, we can discover valuable perspectives other than our own. This is valuable because we often make faulty assumptions about other people:
 - i. We believe people are good at the same things we are good at— they aren’t. Do you know your members? What are their backgrounds, skills, and hobbies? How can you utilize their strengths to accomplish the mission?
 - ii. We believe people are energized by the same things that energize us— they aren’t. Are you dismissing your member’s ideas because they are not in line with your own? Instead of dissuading your members, focus their energy in activities they’re interested in.
 - iii. We believe people see the big picture in the same way we do— they don’t. After presenting your mission statement to your members, ask them to tell you what it means in their own words. How does their big picture differ from yours? This may give you invaluable perspective into how your members perceive the mission.
2. Great leaders are informed and utilize the resources available to them.
 - a. VFW tools and training.
 - i. Commander-in-Chief General Orders, National Headquarters Bulletin
 - ii. Department, District, and Post Bylaws
 - iii. VFW Podium Edition (Congressional Charter, Bylaws, Manual of Procedure, and Ritual)
 - iv. VFW Training and Support (vfw.org)
 - v. Department Training Programs (Schools of Instruction)
 - vi. VFW magazine and National Publications (Checkpoint, Action Corps Weekly)

3. Great leaders are polite but firm: how to deal with difficult people. Part of being a leader is having a thick skin, patience, and understanding when dealing with difficult people. [John F. Gwizdak, Past Commander-in-Chief]
 - a. The 4 members of every Post.
 - i. Comrade Helen Hammer – Sits in the back of the meeting and complains about every piece of business.
 - ii. Comrade Billy Bylaws – Favorite question, “Is that in the Bylaws?” Wants to disrupt your meeting by challenging parliamentary procedure.
 - iii. Comrade N.O. Change – Favorite phrase, “We’ve always done it like that.” Adverse to any and every change proposed – refuses to abandon the past.
 - iv. Comrade Henry Give ‘em Hell – He wasn’t at the meeting, but won’t hesitate to voice his disapproval of the business conducted. Wants to subvert any progress made with gossip and misinformation.
 - b. How do you handle these people? Be professional, be polite, have character, but be speak up and be firm.

Conclusion and Review

The answers to the following questions can be found in reading above.

1. What are the 3 major focal points of change?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
2. How do you handle difficult and disruptive people? (circle one)
 - a. Yelling and screaming at them until they're quiet?
 - b. Ordering them not to speak unless spoken to?
 - c. Cursing them behind their backs with other members?
 - d. Politely and professionally speaking to them in a firm manner?
3. Working with people who think differently than you do... (circle one)
 - a. Can cause problems within your organization.
 - b. Expands the partnership capacity within your community.
 - c. Limits your ability to accomplish your goals.
 - d. Doesn't work because they don't share your values.
4. What does a mission statement convey? (circle one)
 - a. Who you serve.
 - b. Why you do what you do.
 - c. How you do what you do.
 - d. What you do.
 - e. All of the above.

The difference between successful and unsuccessful leaders is intent: successful leaders understand they are part of a team and make it their mission to lead their team through inspiration and education in order to help them accomplish a shared goal. Once the goal is accomplished, successful leaders recognize their team – they say “thank you.” This organization is only able to accomplish its mission with your help and your leadership. Thank you for serving our country and thank you for continuing to serve through the VFW.

Introduction

When the Veterans of Foreign Wars was first organized, it was primarily an association of individual groups all working toward common goals of veterans legislation, veterans benefits, veterans rehabilitation and patriotism. Administration was comparatively simple since the only problems were those of getting information to the members and getting them to agree as to what was to be done.

These still are our major goals but the interests of the Veterans of Foreign Wars have broadened and activities on the local Post level have grown far beyond the original purpose.

Youth activities, civic betterment, humanitarian projects, and community service all take a tremendous amount of individual volunteer effort and a lot of money. In the raising of that money and in providing recreation and social activities for our own members our Posts have branched into activities which have multiplied the organization's administrative challenges far beyond what our founders could possibly have dreamed.

These challenges are compounded by the fact that a VFW Post is almost a pure democracy and nearly all of its programs depend upon volunteers. Decisions are made by vote of people who are informed on the subject and are carried out by volunteers. As a result, if there is not a set of hard and fast rules to follow and a clear understanding of fields of responsibility and limits of authority there are going to be misunderstandings and irritations which create dissension and detract from the purpose of the organization.

This problem has been recognized and very sincere efforts have been made (and continue to be made) by the National and Department Organizations to provide rules and guidance for Post Officers and Committee Chairmen in carrying out the duties of their particular field of responsibility.

The master set of rules for the guidance of all Post activities is the VFW National Bylaws and Manual of Procedure. The Bylaws are the basic rules and the Manual of Procedure goes into further detail. These govern all activities of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and are inflexible. They are worded very clearly, and they mean just what they say. The Bylaws and Manual of Procedure, along with the VFW Ritual are combined into one document referred to as the Podium Editions which is available to download for free behind the login at vfw.org or a hard copy can be purchased from the VFW Store (Item #4108) at vfwstore.org or 833.VFW.VETS (833.839.8387)

Because of the fact that state laws differ and there is a wide variance between Departments in their organizational make-up, most Departments have adopted Department Bylaws which apply only to Posts within that Department's jurisdiction. These must not conflict with the National Bylaws nor can they permit anything which is prohibited by the National Bylaws.

In most cases, Department Bylaws deal with policies to be followed at the Department or District level and do not attempt to go into detail in the operation of the Post. They can impose more restrictions on Posts but never less than are provided in the National Bylaws.

Naturally, a basic set of rules cannot contain much detail nor can it specifically provide for every possible contingency in every Post -- from the little 25 member Post which holds a meeting once a month and lives off its dues -- to the thousand member Post which owns its own home and conducts dozens of activities in as many different fields.

For that reason, specialized rules must be formulated and adopted to cover specific activities. The more complicated the activity, the more specific the rules must be.

These rules seek to prevent Posts from falling into the common pitfalls of poor planning, deficit financing, loss of control, and illegal operations.

Since the Bylaws are designed to cover a wide range of operations, they cannot and do not attempt to specifically detail every move of the Post. They are something like a building code. They establish certain minimum requirements but they permit you to build a lot of different kinds of houses.

As a Post grows in size and activity, there are certain steps it either should take or must take to protect itself and its officers and avoid future arguments and misunderstandings which can create problems and dissension.

Incorporation

The first steps that any Post must take before it branches into any type of community project, social activity or financial undertaking is incorporation. Most Posts are already incorporated -- the rest should be.

There are two general sets of rules which cover incorporation of a VFW Post: the laws of the individual state, and the National Bylaws of the Veterans of Foreign Wars (Section 708). To be recognized, your corporation must comply with both and must be submitted to the Commander-in-Chief for review.

In just about every Department, incorporation of a Post is a comparatively simple matter since forms which meet the requirements of state law and the National VFW are available upon request from Department Headquarters. If they are not available, this Headquarters would strongly urge that such forms be prepared, approved by the appropriate state official and the National VFW and reproduced for use by the Posts.

Incorporation is necessary for several purposes. To begin with, in many States, the Post must be incorporated before it can hold property in its own name and before any type of liquor license may be issued to it.

Secondly -- and perhaps just as important to the officers of the Post -- the act of incorporation takes individual responsibility away from the Post Officers and places it upon the Post itself. The individual officers of an incorporated Post cannot be sued for financial obligations of the Post.

It is the general policy of this Headquarters that approval will not be given to separate Holding Corporations or Club Corporations. Some of these have been approved in the past and conceivably will be permitted to exist under that approval, but there will be no more in the future. (Unless changes in laws or regulations make a change in policy necessary.)

There is no particular advantage in the pyramiding of corporations. The Post incorporation is sufficient to protect all its operations -- if those operations are kept under control of the Post. The general purpose of a separate Club Corporation or Holding Corporation is to take control away from the members of the Post. Usually it has not been done for any dishonest purpose but in the belief that more efficient operation will result from tighter control by a smaller group of people. It is the contention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars that sufficient control may be exercised -- without sacrifice of democratic processes -- by the adoption of Post Bylaws and rules.

An exception to the “no separate corporation” rule may be made in the case of sponsorship of large-scale “one- shot” activities such as an air show, a community celebration, a Department Convention, etc. It is sometimes better in these cases to incorporate the individual activity for ease in obtaining insurance, settling financial obligations, etc. These corporations have a limited existence and are dissolved after their purpose is served.

A standard Articles of Incorporation template is available through the Adjutant General’s Office or can be printed or downloaded from the training and support section of the National Headquarters website.

Post Bylaws

Every Post operating any type of activity -- particularly a Club or Post Home -- should adopt Post Bylaws. Section 202 of the National Manual of Procedure requires that such Bylaws be submitted to the Department Commander and Commander-in-Chief for review and approval.

The Post Bylaws can cover the gaps left in the National Bylaws and Department Bylaws and Rules. Where the former are the building code, the Post Bylaws are the house plan. They show just what you are trying to accomplish.

The National or the Department Organizations can furnish you with a Post Bylaw template. However, they are the responsibility of the Post and may be set up in the way best suited to the type of operation contemplated by the Post. They cannot permit anything prohibited by National or Department rules, nor can they take away any of the responsibilities or authority of Post Officers. They can set up general procedures and policies within the Post.

Post Bylaws may provide for the establishment of certain standing committees within the Post, state how they are to be selected and the limits of their powers and duties; they may give authority for the sponsorship of recurring activities; limit the expenditures of funds; establish the procedure for carrying out certain objectives; and provide for their own amendment.

Generally speaking, they set up the policies of the Post and provide for carrying them out. They protect the member against ill-conceived or hasty actions since they generally provide for prior notice and a 2/3 vote for amendment, and they promote a clearer understanding of operating procedures.

Matters of policy are covered in the Bylaws; details of management of a Post Home or Club are left to the Post Club or Home regulations.

A standard Bylaws template is available through the Adjutant General's Office or can be printed or downloaded from the training and support section of the National Headquarters website.

Officer Responsibility & Limits of Authority

If every Post Officer were familiar with their duties and responsibilities and their limitations -- and carried out their duties to the best of their ability -- there would be very few squabbles within a Post and none which would require outside intervention. The National Manual of Procedure specifically lists certain duties for each officer and, in the normal course of events, this would be sufficient. However, the complex nature of the operation of many Posts makes it necessary that we look beyond a mere listing of duties and fully understand the reasons for the division of authority. In this way we can apply them to the unusual situations which are bound to crop up from time to time.

The Post meeting is the center of all Post activities. Every member has a right to attend all meetings and has a voice in their proceedings. It is at the Post meeting that the Post adopts its Bylaws, its Club Regulations, decides its policies, and distributes responsibilities. Within practical limitations, the Post meeting is supreme to the Post Officers, committees and employees. The membership present may overrule decisions of the Post Commander or House Committee; they may approve expenditures, set policies, and delegate authority. The Post meeting cannot take any action contrary to the National or Department Bylaws or rules or in conflict with its own Bylaws.

It is important to understand that there are limitations on the authority of the Post. A member has the right to appeal any Post action to the Department Commander (Section 109 of the Manual of Procedure), who will determine whether that action was proper. In extreme cases, a member can go to the courts if he/she feels that their rights have been abused by an action of the Post. The Post cannot take unreasonable actions at a meeting. For instance, it could not refuse payment of a legitimate bill for an item authorized for purchase at a previous meeting. It cannot direct an officer or member to do anything contrary to VFW regulations or public law. It cannot take away any of the authority given to individual officers through the National Bylaws.

Ideally, the Post meeting makes the rules and sets the policy for the Post; other levels of authority carry them out.

The Post Commander is the key officer of the Post. They, alone, represent the judicial branch of the organization and also have some of the responsibilities of the executive branch. They preside at all meetings, enforce the rules, appoint committees not otherwise provided for, and make certain that the other officers and committeemen perform their duties.

Their authority extends to the Post Home or Club to the extent of enforcing the rules of the Post and the National and Department VFW and public laws. They represent the authority of the Post between meetings, and their voice is that of the Post membership. They see that the Post Trustees conduct their audits, that the Post Quartermaster is bonded, and that the House Committee properly supervises the activities of the Post Home.

Their authority also is limited according to the rules of the organization and the bounds of common sense. They are in no sense a dictator. They cannot order nor permit the breaking of laws nor can they supersede the recognized authority of other officers or committees. They cannot, for instance, order the Club Manager to keep the clubrooms open after hours, nor can they direct the Post Quartermaster to pay an unauthorized bill.

The Commander should be familiar with all activities of the Post. They should sit in with the Trustees at their audits or, at least, have a sufficient knowledge of their procedure to know whether they are doing their job. They should attend the meetings of the House Committee, calling to their attention any discrepancies he/she may have observed or complaints they may have received. They must know that when they sign a check, it is in payment of a legitimate expenditure.

The Commander is the arbitrator of arguments and the judge in disputes. As a general rule, their decisions are considered correct until over-ruled by the Post meeting, the District, Department Commander or Commander-in-Chief.

The Post Quartermaster has certain definite responsibilities and duties. They are the responsible officer for all Post funds and property and his/her signature validates all checks. They keep the fiscal records for the Post and have the duty of overseeing all financial transactions. They must be bonded to the Post for all funds under their control.

In the case of a large-scale Club operation, it often becomes impractical or impossible for the Post Quartermaster to physically handle all the funds or to personally keep the detailed records of operation. It is not uncommon in these cases to require that the Club Manager or a hired bookkeeper keep a separate set of club books, subject to the control of the Quartermaster and reported to the Quartermaster at regular intervals.

The Quartermaster is the responsible Post Officer in financial matters -- not necessarily the Post bookkeeper. In a large corporation the treasurer does not physically handle the bookkeeping obligations but he/she is responsible that they are done properly, efficiently and accurately. This may also be true of the Post Quartermaster, depending upon the Post Bylaws and Club regulations. In any case, they must be familiar with all books of record and are responsible for all required Federal and State reports and payments.

Remember that the Post cannot take away any of the authority of the Post Quartermaster although they may be relieved of some of the work.

The Quartermaster only pays bills which are authorized by Post action or under Post rules. They cannot refuse to pay a legitimate and properly authorized bill except for a lack of funds. Neither can they be forced to pay one which is not properly authorized.

Quite often a controversy arises between the Quartermaster and Club Manager as to responsibility for Club funds. Sometimes a fine point arises which must be arbitrated. As a rule of thumb, the Quartermaster keeps their nose out of the cash register except for checking purposes, and the Manager hides no transactions from the Quartermaster. The Quartermaster does have the right, and the duty, to determine that all reports are correct and that all funds are handled properly. They do not have the right to assume managerial responsibilities.

The Post Trustees duties are probably the most misunderstood of any of the Post Officers. They are primarily the watchdogs of the Post funds. They make certain that no one has their fingers in the till. They audit the Post funds regularly -- at least once each quarter.

While the National Bylaws are silent on this point, it would seem logical that the Trustees also have authority and responsibility concerning the proper handling of funds. It is only reasonable that their authority should not be limited to catching a dishonest person. Equally important should be the prevention of dishonesty. Where funds are guarded carelessly or records are kept inefficiently, the Trustees should call attention to this and make every effort to correct it.

The Trustees duties extend to every operation of the Post. Their audits must cover all activities, including the clubrooms, the bar, bingo, or any other source of income or financial transactions. Again, it is not always entirely necessary that the Trustees do their own investigating and conduct their own audits. In most cases, the Trustees are not qualified accountants, particularly where large amounts of cash are involved and the operations are especially complex. Many Posts employ a private firm of accountants for the purpose of an audit. This is to be encouraged rather than discouraged. In these cases, the auditors report to the Trustees and the Trustees make certain that the audit is conducted correctly.

A quarterly audit of all funds and accounts is an absolute necessity. If the Trustees do not function in a proper manner, the Commander may deem it an emergency situation and appoint an auditing committee on his/her own initiative.

Regardless of the size of the Post, a quarterly audit is mandatory. Failure to conduct one may result in the cancellation of the Post Quartermaster bond and will take away all voting privileges at District and Department Conventions.

The Trustees do not have any authority over the management of the Post Home, nor is property held in their name in an incorporated Post. They cannot serve on any committee having to do with the handling of Post funds, and cannot therefore serve as members of the House Committee, Bingo Committee, etc. There is nothing to keep a Trustee from serving as a volunteer worker or in an appointive capacity where Post funds are not handled.

The House Committee functions only in a Post which operates a Post Home or Club. This committee may be selected in anyway the Post determines but it is generally considered advisable that it be elected by the Post membership, with the members serving staggered terms, on the order of Post Trustees. This lessens the possibility of one certain group gaining and retaining control of the Club.

The duties of the House Committee should be laid out in the Post Bylaws and/or Club regulations so there is no misunderstanding of their powers and responsibilities. The purpose of the committee is to act on behalf of the Post in making certain that the club is run in an efficient, reputable and legal manner and that the rules of the Veterans of Foreign Wars are adhered to.

It is the general procedure for the House Committee to hire all employees, set their salaries, and issue necessary instructions and orders to the Club Manager. The committee usually meets at least once a month for the purpose of discussing facility problems, taking inventory, studying financial reports, and in general, acting as an advisory, supervisory and disciplinary board. No member of the House Committee should ever be permitted to act as Club Manager or as a paid employee of the Club due to the obvious conflict of interest.

The House Committee is generally given authority to suspend the Club privileges of any member and to establish and enforce, through the Club Manager, rules of decorum and behavior. They usually, also, have the authority to suspend or discharge the Club Manager or any employee for good and sufficient cause. In any disciplinary action, discharge or suspension, there should be provision for an appeal to the Post meeting.

The committee cannot make or enforce any rules contrary to the rules of the Department, public law, or the lawful instructions of the Post. If it is elected from the Post floor, the committee is directly responsible to the Post floor and makes its reports to the Post at meetings. Refusal to comply with the rules and instructions of the Post is grounds for removal of any or all members of the House Committee.

The Club Manager is directly responsible to the House Committee for the management of the Post Clubrooms. They have the direct responsibility for supervising employees, enforcing rules, and accounting for receipts and expenditures. They must have enough authority to permit him/her to do so with a reasonable degree of freedom from interference. They must keep the accounts in such a manner as to justify all expenditures and verify all receipts. The Club Manager must make reports to the Post Quartermaster and to the House Committee. They enforce the rules but they do not make them.

The Club Manager keeps all payroll records, recording amount of pay to each individual and withholding the proper amount of Federal and State Income Taxes and FICA Taxes. Either the Club Manager or the Post Quartermaster must make the necessary Federal and State reports and payments for withholding taxes, Social Security and Unemployment Compensation.

The Club Manager has the right to appeal any decision of the House Committee to the Post floor for arbitration. Post members should, however, be cautious in overruling the actions of its own representatives on the House Committee, particularly in the case of frequent appeals. A dishonest Club Manager generally has no problem in bringing in enough friendly votes at a meeting to uphold his appeal.

In summary, it must be remembered that the Veterans of Foreign Wars itself is supreme in any dispute. The Department rules and the Post Bylaws and rules outline the way the Post and the Club must be run. The Post, in all cases, is above the Club. The Club is merely an activity of the Post and must be treated as such. In no case is it a separate entity.

When a Post is chartered it is granted a license or franchise for the use of the name of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in the carrying out of programs which are assumed to be of value to the entire organization. At any time that a Club or other activity is managed in such a manner as to harm the good name and reputation of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the right to use the name can be revoked.

As a general rule, the operations of VFW Posts and their Clubrooms in the Departments are a credit to the organization and a source of pride to its membership. Through proper adherence to the rules of the VFW and the duties and responsibilities of our officers, we can avoid the many misunderstandings and bitter arguments which can break the finest Post.

Club Regulations

These, again, are left to the Post for adoption although they must not conflict with the National Bylaws, Department Post Home Rules or Post Bylaws. Suggested forms are available although they are not designed for adoption in their entirety. The variance between Posts makes it impossible to adopt a standard form for all Posts. Some operate entire buildings with activities scheduled every day of the week; others may own or rent very modest quarters and only be open occasionally. Some have a full-time paid staff of employees while others may operate entirely on volunteer help.

The Club regulations cover the details of operation. They outline the responsibilities and limits of authority of the Post membership, the House Committee, the Club Manager, and the guests. They cover opening and closing hours, decorum, enforcement of rules, hiring of paid help, financial authority and keeping of records.

For any Post operating a Club or Post Home, local regulations are a must. They will save many hours of argument, and remove most causes for misunderstanding and dissension.

ADMINISTRATIVE POLICY & PROCEDURE

Operation, Management & Control of Clubs and/or Canteens

The purposes of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States are stated within our Congressional Charter. The operation, management and control of clubs and/or canteens were not envisioned in the purposes of our organization. The operation, management and control of clubs and/or canteens are not provided for in our National Bylaws, Manual of Procedure and Ritual.

The first and foremost consideration of Posts shall be to the objects of the VFW which are fraternal, patriotic, historical, charitable, and educational. We must maintain our focus to preserve and strengthen comradeship among its members; to assist worthy comrades; to perpetuate the memory and history of our dead, and to assist their widows and orphans; to maintain true allegiance to the Government of the United States, and fidelity to its Constitution and laws; to foster true patriotism; to maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom; and to preserve and defend the United States from all enemies. VFW clubs and/or canteens shall be of secondary interest and concern and compatible with this stated purpose.

Rules and Regulations and Management Guides for the operation of Post sponsored clubs and/or canteens have been adopted by some Departments in compliance with state and local regulations and the applicable mandates of Section 708 and 709 of our National Bylaws which address incorporation and control of units. Also, many Posts have incorporated the above in their Bylaws or adopted Rules and Regulations for the operation, management and control of their canteens and/or clubs in accordance with the above.

Although differing laws at the local and state levels preclude the promulgation of universally acceptable rules and regulations, certain principles are essential for good management and proper control of Post sponsored clubs and/or canteens and certain policies are mandatory to insure total compliance with the National Bylaws of the Veterans of Foreign Wars both as to incorporation and control of units and to be in keeping with the objectives of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. In adopting rules and regulations for the operation, management and control of clubs and/or canteens, the following provisions of the National Bylaws must be adhered to:

Any Post owning and/or operating, directly or by reason of a holding company or other entity substantially controlled by the Post or its members, a canteen, clubroom or other facility available to members or guests must maintain general liability insurance, including, if necessary or appropriate, liquor liability insurance. Such insurance must be of a type and amount sufficient to protect the Post and must name, as additional insureds, the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States and the Department in which such Post is located.

All money, property or assets of any kind or nature, as well as all books and records owned, held or used by any activity, clubroom, holding company or unit sponsored, conducted or operated by, for or in behalf of a Post, shall be the property of the Post and must be placed in the care and custody of the Post Quartermaster.

No Post and no activity, clubroom or holding company or unit sponsored, conducted or operated by, for or on behalf of any Post may own any property jointly or in common with any individual, firm, partnership, association, corporation or other business or charitable entity, except that property may be held jointly or in common a post or unit of a congressionally chartered veterans organization, provided the arrangement allows for the prominent display of the names, trademarks, or service marks of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States and is not contrary to any provision of law or the National Bylaws.

No Post or activity, clubroom, holding company or unit sponsored, conducted or operated by, for or in its behalf, may participate in any arrangement whereby its funds are expended on property held by another entity for the joint use of such Post and other individuals, firms, partnerships, associations, corporations or other business or charitable entities, including veterans organizations, except that such arrangement may be made with a post or unit of a congressional chartered veterans organization, provided the arrangement allows for the prominent display of the names, trademarks, or service marks of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States nor is contrary to any provision of law or the National Bylaws.

Rulings & Appeals

Section 518 of the National Bylaws places, on the Department (State) Commander, the responsibility for deciding all questions of law and usage within their Department, subject to an appeal to the Commander-in-Chief. Where such questions are submitted directly to National Headquarters, it is our policy to refer them back to the Department.

Generally speaking, an appeal cannot be made nor will a ruling be given until after an action has actually taken place. For instance, a member cannot appeal a proposal that has not as yet been acted upon. The decision of a Post Commander can be appealed to the Department Commander. If the Department Commander upholds the Post/District action, an appeal may then be made, through channels, to the Commander-in-Chief. The right of appeal is covered in section 109 of the National Bylaws and Manual of Procedure.

A Department Commander or Department Adjutant may request information or guidance from the National Headquarters prior to entering into a contemplated action. Such requests will be honored and information provided to the best of our ability.

The Post Judge Advocate, Department Judge Advocate, or Judge Advocate General do not rule - they offer advice when asked to do so by the appropriate Commander. However, if an opinion written by the Judge Advocate in his/her advisory capacity is adopted and promulgated by the Commander, it then becomes the decision of the Commander.

Membership Eligibility

Where copies of separation documents are submitted, they are checked and information given as to whether eligibility is indicated. Where general information is asked, it is provided. We will give any and all assistance to a Post, or to the Department, in determining whether it should accept an applicant as a member.

National Headquarters has no facility for determining the eligibility of an applicant except by a check of the separation documents. We have no access to military records nor do we maintain any type of list of persons who are eligible for membership. Neither can we certify that an applicant is eligible merely because they were previously a member of another Post. All we can provide is general or routine information.

Once the applicant has been accepted as a member, however, the questions no longer are routine.

The procedure in removing ineligibles is covered very specifically in Section 108 of the National Manual of Procedure. There is no short-cut to the procedure.

Members-at-Large

Section 101 of the National Bylaws makes provision for members-at-large for any eligible person by reason of location, current active military service or personal preference who does not wish to affiliate with a local Post. The eligible person may become a Department member-at-large as a matter of personal choice.

Continuity of Membership

National Headquarters cannot provide a Post with a list of its members showing the years in which their dues were recorded. Neither can we check the continuity of membership of an individual. Records are not maintained in a manner which makes it feasible to provide such information.

Complimentary lapel pins recognizing 25 or more years of continuous membership were discontinued several years ago. Where Posts wish to continue to recognize such members, the appropriate pins must be purchased online at vfwstore.org or 833.VFW.VETS (833.839.8387). These pins may be ordered by the Post Quartermaster in the same manner as other merchandise. It is not necessary to provide a list of the recipients or a sworn statement that they have earned the pin if the order is submitted by the Quartermaster or other responsible Post Officer.

National Headquarters Mailing Lists Officer List vs. Member List

National Headquarters maintains an officer mailing list of certain Department Officers and Committee Chairmen, District Officers and Committee Chairmen, and Post Officers and Committee Chairmen.

Every effort is made to keep this list current and correct. Changes and corrections are made daily as information is received. Some Department Adjutants routinely forward such changes. This service is appreciated and encouraged.

A mailing list of all members is also maintained and is constantly being updated. This computerized list is entirely separate from the officer mailing list.

A major source of confusion results from a change of address being submitted without identification of any office the member may hold. In such cases, the address may be changed on the computerized membership list but not on the officer list.

A typical letter may state "I've sent my change of address to you twice and I get my magazine correctly addressed but you keep sending my Post Commander mail to my old address." This will ALWAYS happen if the member does not indicate any office held so that it will be corrected also.

Post Officer mailing list addresses can easily be changed by the Quartermaster using the Online Membership System (OMS) Election Report feature.

Post Election Report

With the increased need for early, accurate information on new Post Officers and the amount of Post dues, a "Post Election Report" form is now being distributed to Post Quartermasters prior to Post elections. These forms are to be completed on-line through the Online Membership System (OMS) immediately following the Post election or a copy can be mailed prior to June 1st to National Headquarters, a copy to the Department, and a copy to the District or County Council. The installing officer is still required to ensure the submission of the Election Report and eligibility of each member, elected or appointed.

Of most importance to National Headquarters are the names and addresses of Post Commanders and Quartermasters and the amount of Post dues. Information regarding Post information such as location, meeting day and time, contact information, and services offered are tracked and used as part of the "Find a Post" feature on the National headquarters website.

Change of Post Name or Location

A Post cannot change its name or location without carrying out the provisions of Sections 205 or 208 of the National Manual of Procedure. We will NOT make such changes on the strength of a phone call, a letter or an email. Bitter experience has taught us that an enterprising or obstinate Post Officer may take it upon himself to make changes which have not been approved by the Post. We must have the properly signed documents on file before the change is recognized. This is true even where the name was incorrectly spelled on the muster report or the location has changed because of annexation or other legal action.

Posts ordering banners with the wrong name, location, or muster date will not receive them until the proper procedure has been followed.

Forms for Change of Name, Correction of Name, Change of Location, and Correction of Location are available without charge from the Adjutant General. Sample copies of the forms can be downloaded or printed in the training and support section of the National Headquarters website.

Change of Meeting Place

The change of a Post meeting place is covered in Section 205 of the National Manual of Procedure. Such a change requires the approval of the Department Commander but not the Commander-in-Chief.

A Post changes its location when it moves into a different political sub-division (from one city to another, from a city into a township, etc.). It changes its meeting place when it moves to another building in the same city-even if that city is as large as Chicago.

A Post could conceivably meet temporarily outside the limits of its chartered location without changing its official location, but the location should be changed when moving to a permanent home elsewhere.

Visitations—National Officers

Invitations to National Officers must be forwarded through channels to the Adjutant General with approval of the Department Commander. This applies to all National Officers, and unless the above is complied with, invitations will not be given consideration

Formation, Chartering & Instituting of VFW Posts

Pertinent points to organizing new VFW Posts (Section 201):

1. Only the Commander-in-Chief can authorize a charter for a new Post.
2. Charter application must contain the names of 25 eligible veterans; 10 must be new members.
3. A member may transfer from one Post to another provided the following conditions are met: 1) completion of the application as prescribed in Section 102 of the Manual of Procedure, 2) signing a Member Declaration, and 3) acceptance by the Post.
4. No new Post shall bear the name of a living person, other than a living Medal of Honor recipient, only after written consent from the recipient has been received, nor adopt a name already adopted by another Post in good standing in the department.
5. A Post shall not be instituted unless 10 or more qualified members of the new Post are present for the institution.
6. Posts shall be instituted within 60 days of the date the charter is authorized.
7. The charter of a new Post shall remain open for up to 90 days from the date of institution of a Post.
8. The official date of charter for a Post is the date it is instituted.

Procedure in Issuance of New Post Charters

1. A letter is addressed to the Post Quartermaster about two weeks prior to the expiration of the 90-day charter period, informing that the charter period is due to close and instructs them to make up and submit a dues report covering all previously unreported members just as soon as the charter period expires.
2. About one week following the close of the 90-day charter period, an alphabetical print-out of names of members, including transfers, is mailed to the Post Commander and Post Adjutant. A cover letter requests each to certify the list, making such corrections and/or additions as necessary, and return via mail or email.
3. When certification is received, and corrections and/or additions verified, the charter is engrossed and mailed to the Post Commander. If additional names are included, a reasonable time is allowed for reports to clear so that verification can be made. If questions still remain, further correspondence is required.
4. The charter is not engrossed until the certified list is returned and verified from National Headquarters records.

The Department Adjutant receives a copy of all correspondence and is kept informed as to the problems encountered. They are also informed as to any changes in official information and are notified when the charter is mailed.

Some of the problems we have encountered in the issuance of the charters include:

1. No dues payment reports received until long after the date of institution. The Post Quartermaster should be assisted in making up the report. This should be ready for submission at the time of institution or immediately thereafter.
2. Delay in submitting subsequent reports. For obvious reasons, the Post Quartermaster must be instructed to submit a report at least once a month. Members names cannot be included on the charter if they have not been reported. This includes paid-up members transferring from another Post and transferred life members.

Charter Replacement

A Post having lost, damaged, or destroyed its charter may obtain a replacement from the Adjutant General's Office. This replacement charter will bear the same names as the original although it may be slightly different in appearance. The charge for a replacement charter is $25.00.

Anniversary Award Certificates

The National VFW issues Anniversary Citations to Posts which have completed 50, 75 or 100 years of continuous existence. These are prepared from records at National Headquarters and are mailed to the Department Headquarters at least two weeks in advance of the anniversary with the request that arrangements be made for presentation.

These certificates are prepared automatically and do not have to be requested.

We have had requests for similar citations for 25th anniversaries, which are available upon request.

Suspension of Post Charter

The Department Commander may suspend the charter of a Post for a period of up to 90 days (and extend an additional 90 days, not to exceed a total of 180 days) for failure to comply with lawful orders and/or for violation of the laws and usages of the organization. The Department Commander must notify the Commander-in-Chief of such action within 48 hours.

Cancellation of Post Charter

Charters of VFW Posts may be cancelled under the provisions outlined in Sections 211 and 212 of the Congressional Charter and Bylaws and Manual of Procedure.

Before cancelling the charter of a Post, under Section 211, Congressional Charter and Bylaws, the Commander-in-Chief will suspend the charter, giving the Post an opportunity to appeal the suspension and possible revocation of charter.

The Commander-in-Chief may declare a Post defunct and its charter forfeited for failing to pay Department and National dues on a minimum of ten members by February 1, under the provision of Section 212 of the National Bylaws.

Voluntary Surrender of Charter

A Post may surrender its charter providing all members in good standing of the Post at the time are notified at least 20 days in advance of the proposed action and the proposition is voted on and approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of members present at a designated meeting where such action is considered.

Section 210 of the Congressional Charter and Bylaws and Manual of Procedure covers the requirements for such action.

Post & Member Correspondence

Letters and emails from Post officers or individual members are answered promptly and courteously. If the response requires that a decision be rendered, the letter will be forwarded to the Department Adjutant for the consideration and decision of the Department Commander. Correspondence of a general nature and questions of a routine nature will be answered directly to the individual. Posts should, however, be encouraged to carry on such correspondence with the Department rather than National Headquarters.

Where to Write for Information

In writing to National Headquarters concerning any matter, much time and effort will be saved if each letter covers only one subject. When a letter covers several subjects, such as VFW Store orders, Community Activities, Membership Awards, etc., a reply is unnecessarily delayed while the letter passes through the various Departments at National Headquarters for individual answers.

Letters concerning National Security, Legislation or Veterans Service Issues should be addressed to the appropriate Director, VFW Memorial Building, 200 Maryland Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20002.

Letters covering other programs and activities of the National Organization should be addressed to the Adjutant General, Quartermaster General or the appropriate Director, VFW Building, 406 West 34th Street, Kansas City, Missouri 64111.

Remember, your first source of information should be your Department Commander or Department Adjutant. These Officers are equipped to give you necessary information on most routine issues and common challenges.

Parliamentary Procedure at a Glance	12

To Presiding Officers

The presiding officer is the servant of the organization.

All his/her acts at meetings and conventions must have the body's approval, unless a bylaw makes them independent.

Presiding officers who are ignorant of parliamentary law or who defy the body's will or deny to the members the proper exercise of their rights are a sad spectacle before intelligent assemblies and frequently cause discontent and disunity.

Capable presiding officers make good meetings.

Incompetent, abusive or obnoxious presiding officers can be censured; and their tenure of office can be shortened or abolished altogether by a 2/3 vote, and thus they may be legislated out of office at any meeting with prior notice.

You are not expected to know all the law, but you are expected to be able to at least match the members' combined basic knowledge of it.

Introduction

The object of all parliamentary procedure is to get things accomplished in an orderly manner, to take things up one at a time, and dispose of them in the shortest time possible, at the same time in a democratic fashion.

When only the Presiding Officer or Chairman knows Parliamentary Procedure, he/she can use it to their advantage, but when most of the body also understands the rules, the “Floor” actually controls the meeting, and the “Chair” simply directs it.

If you get in the habit of using the right terms, everybody will understand matters more readily. Note the expressions which appear in boldface type throughout this text.

When a meeting is called to order by the CHAIR, AN AGENDA, OR ORDER OF BUSINESS, is offered for approval, or should be offered. Once the agenda is approved, the meeting is technically limited to the points included. We usually take care of other matters and “beefs” under the “GOOD OF THE VFW”. If no agenda is offered, ask for it. If certain points you are interested in do not appear to be included, rise and either inquire about them or MOVE to add them to the agenda.

The business of a meeting is carried forward by MOTIONS. The object of all motions is to get things done in an orderly manner, and democratically. A motion is MADE from the DEBATE ON THE QUESTION.

In actual practice, there is usually some debate before the motion. Debate without a motion often becomes aimless, and should be limited.

In debating, or SPEAKING ON A MOTION, no member should be allowed to speak twice before others have had it once. Speaking on a motion is also called TAKING THE FLOOR.

Motions must be made on the subject involved, or the POINT ON THE AGENDA, which is being taken up. If a motion is made on some other subject, the chair is obliged to rule the maker of the motion OUT OF ORDER and REFER THE QUESTION to the proper place on the agenda.

Motions must be seconded to be entitled to debate. If the motion is not seconded, the chair is obliged to point out that there has been no second, and proceed with the meeting.

The chair is not supposed to “milk” the membership for a second because he/she wants one, but it is proper to allow enough time for a second, when required.

Debate before a motion has been made can always be stopped by someone MAKING A MOTION. Once a motion has been made and seconded, it must be DISPOSED OF, either by being DEFEATED, PASSED, TABLED, REFERRED, or PLACED IN COMMITTEE. All of these are covered further in the text.

Except for certain PRIVILEGED MOTIONS, which will be explained later also, a motion cannot be placed while there is a PREVIOUS MOTION on the floor.

Recognition

In making a motion, or MOVING, the member should rise, face the chair, and signal or call for attention in a manner which will not disrupt the meeting. Once RECOGNIZED by the chair, the SPEAKER should first state his or her name and department, so such information can be RECORDED IN THE MINUTES.

In other democratic bodies, it is proper to say “Mr. Chairman,” “Madame Chairman,” etc., but in the VFW, it is more proper to say “My Comrade(s)” or “Comrade Commander”

Once a motion has been MADE, it is the duty of the chair to repeat it in order that everyone hears it, and also to CLARIFY it, if it was made in confused language.

Before we proceed further with motions, let us remove some of the misunderstanding concerning WITHDRAWING A MOTION.

Withdrawing

Before a motion has been STATED BY THE CHAIR, its maker has the right to WITHDRAW it, or modify the language. But, after it has been stated by the chair, the maker cannot withdraw or modify his/her motion without the CONSENT OF THE ASSEMBLY. After a motion has been stated by the chair, it belongs to the assembly.

It is also out of order to ask for the consent of the SECONDER to the withdrawal of a motion the seconder can only withdraw their second if the motion has been changed informally after they have seconded it.

It is IN ORDER for anyone to ask the maker of a motion to withdraw it, through the chair. But the maker does not have to comply. In brief, once a motion is made, seconded and stated by the chair, it cannot be withdrawn without the chair getting the consent of the assembly (usually by asking if there are any objections to the withdrawal). When a motion has gone that far, it must be disposed of by being tabled, referred, defeated, passed, etc., by vote.

When a motion has been withdrawn, it is treated as though it had never been made, and is not recorded in the minutes. Further, anyone can make the same motion again. The object of withdrawing a motion is to prevent it from being voted on and appearing in the minutes.

Once a motion has been duly made, seconded and is on the floor, it is subject to AMENDMENT. (Note: certain motions are not amendable and will be covered later on.)

The object of an amendment is to change or modify the original motion, without destroying the sense of it. For instance, if there was a motion on the floor to hold a picnic, it could be amended to add a date or a place, but it could not be amended to change the affair from a picnic to a bowling match.

Amendments should take the form of: inserting or adding words to the motion; striking out words; substituting words or sentences. The chair is obliged to rule out of order any proposed amendment which would do more than the above, and change the sense of the motion entirely.

In some cases, where a poorly worded motion is made, even the amendment does not make it a complete motion in some of the members' eyes. In such cases, an amendment can be made to the first amendment. This SECOND DEGREE AMENDMENT method is sometimes confusing, but it is legitimate, and it is up to the chair to clarify the motion and its amendments.

If it is too complicated for this, the chair can call for or recommend a SUBSTITUTE MOTION, with the consent of the assembly, which will tie the loose ends together so that an intelligent vote may be taken. A substitute motion is itself a form of amendment.

Amendments to motions are DEBATABLE (that is, can be discussed). Like motions, amendments also require seconding. Discussion on an amendment must be confined to the amendment itself.

In TAKING THE VOTE, after debate, the amendment is first voted upon, and then the motion itself is voted upon. Sometimes, the nature of the amendment is such that passing or defeating the amendment CARRIES or DEFEATS the motion also. In that event, it is not necessary to take a vote on the motion.

Before proceeding into further study on motions, it might be well to give some attention to the MINUTES.

The MINUTES OF A MEETING are simply a record of the proceedings of that particular meeting. As such, they can only be ACCEPTED BY THE BODY. In short, the general membership can only ACCEPT minutes of the membership meetings, the executive board can only accept its own minutes, etc. Upon reading of the minutes of a given meeting, they are subject to a motion to accept. Sometimes, CORRECTIONS are raised, and then the minutes are ACCEPTED AS CORRECTED.

Being simply the record of proceedings, minutes may be corrected at any time, including subsequent meetings.

Minutes shall record all main motions which were not withdrawn, all points of order, all appeals and whether lost or sustained. The makers of motions should be recorded, but not necessarily the seconds.

The date, time, and place of the meeting, as well as the time of adjournment should be in the minutes. Also the results of any ROLL CALL votes, and full report of TELLERS. (Tellers are members elected or appointed to tally ballot.)

Minutes cannot be REJECTED, but they can be RETURNED FOR CORRECTION. When the minutes of an executive board meeting are read at a membership meeting, it is only for general information, not acceptance or correction.

However, having been thus advised, the membership can take action at the meeting to censure or approve their board.

This, of course, is done through motions at the proper time on the agenda. The membership should be alerted to do this, and be certain not to allow any top body to exercise undemocratic control.

In connection with minutes, it is important to know that ACCEPTING A REPORT is the same as adopting it. RECEIVING A REPORT merely allows it to be read to the assembly. Receiving does not mean approving or adopting. Accepting does! In making motions on reports, the assembly should understand the distinction in the above two words.

Deferring

Once a matter has been duly placed on the floor through motion and seconded, it may become necessary to defer or postpone action. This can be done democratically by the assembly in several ways, in addition to withdrawing the motion, which we have already covered.

TABLING: A motion to TABLE is a motion to lay aside business in such a manner that it can be RENEWED at a later time—either at the same meeting or a later one. A motion to table requires a second. Once seconded, the motion to table cannot be either debated or amended, but MUST BE PUT TO IMMEDIATE VOTE WITHOUT DISCUSSION.

When it is desired to resume the matter which was tabled, the correct motion is to “TAKE FROM THE TABLE.” This motion must be seconded, and is also not subject to debate or amendment. When a matter is taken from the table, it is taken with all previous actions, amendments, etc., and resumed just as it was when tabled. Tabling a motion or matter does not carry a time limit. That kind of postponement is handled as follows:

- POSTPONE TO A SET TIME: When the object is to set a future time at which a matter or motion must be considered, do not move to table. Instead, move to POSTPONE to a set time, date, or meeting. A motion to so POSTPONE CONSIDERATION requires a second. It CAN BE DEBATED before being voted on, and can be amended as to the time.
- PLACE IN COMMITTEE: When it is desired to let a few handle a given matter, instead of tying up the whole meeting needlessly, this is done by COMMITTING or PLACING IN COMMITTEE through a properly worded motion.

- POSTPONE INDEFINITELY: A motion to POSTPONE INDEFINITELY is really a motion to KILL the subject. It must be seconded, can be debated, but cannot be amended.

These motions are dangerous, and must be watched with care when they come up. They can not only help to carry the meeting along—they can also wreck consideration of important subjects.

Appeals to Overrule Chair

The Chairman of a meeting or the “Chair” has certain rights, but they do not include engineering the meeting, or “railroading” certain matters through. A decision of the chair can always be subjected to change through APPEAL.

When a member rises to appeal a decision of the chair, their motion can be either to APPEAL THE DECISION, or to OVERRULE THE CHAIR—they both have the same meaning.

Under such circumstances, the member should state carefully and in understandable language why he/she is making the motion. The motion requires a second.

Technically, the motion to appeal the decision of the chair is debatable when the question involved is the BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE, and not debatable otherwise. It is simplest, and perfectly fair, to always handle an appeal without a debate. The decision of the chair stands, until reversed by a majority vote. A tie vote SUSTAINS THE CHAIR.

Members should not rise to criticize the chair. If they have an objection to a RULING, it should always be handled through an appeal.

A sensible chairman should not take an appeal personally, but should welcome it, since it relieves them of the responsibility and places it upon the assemblage. Sustained, they are that much more confident in their chairmanship.

The chair is supposed to be the “servant of the assembly,” and as such should refrain from discussing questions before the assembly, thus maintaining an impartial attitude.

The chair cannot authorize anyone to act in their place if they are absent from the meeting. If the Bylaws do not cover that contingency, the assembly has the duty to elect an acting chairman.

The Question of Privilege

The QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE is often interpreted to mean “I am a privileged person, and have the right to the floor again.” The only privilege involved is the privilege of getting the attention of the chair at once to ASK A QUESTION, MAKE A POINT OF ORDER, or draw attention to the pressing business which cannot wait. When rising on a question of privilege, you do not wait for recognition from the chair; you INTERRUPT by stating “I rise to a point of inquiry (or order, or procedure).” The chair is OBLIGED to recognize you, answering: “state your question.”

- Rising to a “point of procedure” means that you question the procedure the chair is following—you feel they are off the track, acting contrary to REGULAR PROCEDURE.
- Rising to a “point of order” usually means that you feel some member of the assembly, rather than the chair is off the track, and you want the chair to take action.
- Rising on other “questions of privilege” usually involves drawing attention to conduct or misconduct of members, comfort of members, conduct of press or guests, etc. All such interruptions are loosely included in the term “question of privilege.”

If the chair sees the point you are making, they state, “the point is well taken,” and follows it. If the chair does not, they state his/her reason, and the way is open or an appeal to be taken, if necessary.

AND THIS IS IMPORTANT! Even though the chair is obliged to recognize the above questions of privilege, the assembly is not. As the book states it, “privilege of assembly outranks personal privilege.” A chronic interrupter can thus be silenced by a proper motion.

While a question of privilege requires no second, gets no debate, and is not amendable, the action desired may be deferred until the speaker is finished, and may also be tabled or postponed indefinitely. In the latter case, the question interrupted is not carried with a tabling or postponement motion.

Renewal & Reconsideration

Much confusion exists as to bringing up a point again, or trying to get a matter reconsidered. There are simple rules covering these things.

Renew a Motion

The object of this action would be to bring up a motion again after it has been defeated. The rule is:

A rejected motion cannot be renewed at the same session. It can be renewed by the same maker at a future session. Further, no motion can be introduced that is so nearly like a rejected motion that it would PLACE THE SAME QUESTION BEFORE THE HOUSE a second time. Also, no motion can be introduced which interferes with a motion which has been tabled, postponed, or placed in committee.

Reconsider a Motion

The object of this action would be to bring back a question for more discussion, and obtain a new vote. Such a motion can only be made by a member WHO VOTED WITH THE PREVAILING SIDE on the previous vote! Such a motion must receive a second, and can be debated, but not amended.

If reconsideration carries, the result is just as though the original vote had not been taken. Should such motions be brought up, and you feel the reason is a bad one, don't forget to use the "question of privilege."

It is a good thing for the most sincere members of the VFW to know the rules, and thus be prepared to keep the meeting on a true course.

Voting

Voting is normally by voice. If the result is not clear, the chair should ask for a standing vote.

Other methods of voting are: DIVISION OF THE HOUSE, SECRET BALLOT, or ROLL CALL of the assembly.

This short course was specifically designed to acquaint members with only the rudiments of parliamentary procedure, and is therefore, brief in coverage.

How To Manipulate Motions For Passage Or Defeat

(Read across the page. Read 1 with 1, 2 with 2, etc.)

To help defeat a motion:

1. Do not second it. Remain silent.
2. Speak against it while it is before the body.
3. Vote against it.
4. Move to postpone it indefinitely to “kill” it.
5. Amend it adversely to encumber it or complicate it.
6. Move to refer it to a committee to delay it.
7. Move to postpone it to the next meeting to delay it.
8. Move to the previous question to shut off debate on its good points.
9. Move to table it.
10. Move to recess to go after more votes.
11. If their motion wins, move to reconsider it.
12. If their successful motion remains unexecuted by a later meeting, then move to rescind it.
13. Move to adjourn, so as to prevent action on their motion at this meeting.
14. Only votes win. Get your voters to the meeting. Urge them to stay to the end and vote as you or another key leader will vote.

To help pass a motion:

1. Second it immediately. Say: “I second it.”
2. Speak in favor of it while it is still before the body.
3. Vote for it.
4. Vote against postponing it to rescue it.
5. Amend it sensibly to perfect it or improve it.
6. Vote against referring it, to achieve action now.
7. Vote down all postponements that delay it.
8. Defeat the previous question so you can continue to debate its meritorious points.
9. Vote against tabling it.
10. Defeat recess so they may not go seeking more votes.
11. Vote against their motion to reconsider your motion.
12. Execute motions promptly, so that they may not be subject to the motion to rescind at any later meeting.
13. Vote down all motions to adjourn, so as to achieve adoption of your motion now.
14. It is votes that win elections and other proceedings at meetings and conventions. Have your supporters there to help you with their votes.

Introduction

If you have ever planned a major VFW event, you know the importance of getting all the details in place. Please consider the information contained here first when planning VFW events such as luncheons, banquets or other social functions. There is a great deal to take into consideration when coordinating activities and this guide to protocol will help you every step of the way.

At all levels, protocol is critical to insure that proper relation between VFW officials and the public are conducted with maximum efficiency and without embarrassment to the organization.

Keep in mind that the information contained here should not be considered as complete.

Maintaining an Order of Precedence

One of the cardinal rules of protocol is to observe an order of precedence at VFW functions where officials and their representatives are present. This is important when making seating arrangements or organizing receiving lines.

The order of precedence for dignitaries at all levels (National, Department, District, County Council and Post) is as follows: Commander, Sr. Vice Commander, Jr. Vice Commander, Judge Advocate, Surgeon, Chaplain and Council of Administration.

Should a VFW function include a receiving line, the first person in line should be the program chairman, who introduces each individual coming through the receiving line to the host Commander, or Auxiliary President. The Commander or President, in turn, introduces each person to the guest of honor, who is next in line, with other guests following in their proper order of rank.

A receiving line should have no more than eight people and should be located away from the door by which people enter and leave the room.

Participants in a receiving line or those going through a receiving line should neither smoke nor carry food or beverages.

If the receiving line is held in a room that has a marble, tile or highly polished wood floor, it would be helpful to those people standing in the receiving line to provide a carpet runner on which they can stand.

It also is suggested that you provide chairs or a sofa immediately adjacent to or behind the receiving line for occasional rest periods for the members.

Some functions will require special seating arrangements. To this end, please review the suggested seating arrangements for different types of programs and dinners and choose the one right for you.

Making Proper Introductions

At some point during your event, you will need to formally introduce your guests of honor to the attendees.

As a means of expediting the program, guests who are not seated at the head table can be introduced during the dinner, before the head table is introduced. As another means of saving time, you can introduce people by groups rather than individually (i.e., committee members, officers, past commanders, etc.).

A standard procedure for introducing head table guests is to start at the extreme left end of the head table and introduce each guest by name and title, moving to the next guest and performing the same mission until you have introduced all of the guests to the left of the podium.

Remember there is no need to introduce guests who will be called on to speak or receive an award later in the program. You also can save time by asking the audience to hold their applause until all of the guests have been introduced and then give them proper recognition at that time.

After you have introduced all of the guests to your left move to the opposite end of the head table and introduce each guest by name and title moving from the farthest guest toward the center of the table, again skipping the introduction of those who will be called on to speak or accept an award later in the program.

In the case of a two-tiered head table, you should introduce the guests who are seated at the lower or secondary head table before you introduce the guests at the top or primary head table.

The event “toastmaster” should be brief, laudatory and to-the-point when introducing a speaker. Introductions should be carefully planned and practiced in advance. The manner in which a speaker is introduced is very important.

The introduction should be approached in the same manner in which you would introduce a friend to a person you know by making them feel comfortable, at ease and known to each other.

Something to keep in mind is that the more important and well-known a speaker is, the shorter an introduction is required.

Please remember: There is no excuse for mispronouncing the names and titles of your guests.

Generally speaking, the main speaker should be introduced last. Occasionally, this conventional arrangement should be changed if there are several speakers on the program or numerous awards are to be presented at the event.

If the program does not have a keynote speaker, the guests who are called on to speak should be introduced from the lowest rank to that of the highest official present.

Plan the order of your program early. Discuss it with the people who are involved and remain flexible to changing the program to meet special needs.

Planning the Program

The following are a few suggested hints that may help you in planning your program:

1. Extend written invitations as early as possible to those you wish to invite to a particular program, advising them of the time, date, place, attire and what is expected of them (i.e., principal speaker, greetings, brief remarks, attendance, time allotted, etc.). Be sure to include information as to whether the invitation includes their spouse or other members of the family.
2. Follow up with those speaking at your program with a phone call to make sure they received the invitation. Ask for the number of those who will attend, and get their names.
3. Check back with each speaker a week to 10 days prior to the scheduled event to be sure their plans have not changed and that their guests will be present.
4. Be sure to include the spouses of guests you invite in your seating arrangements for the dinner and program.
5. Remember to give dinner tickets to the speakers and other guests of honor before the event.
6. Assign a host and/or hostess (officers, members, committee, etc.) to each guest you invite to see that your guests are properly met, escorted and introduced to other people. Your guests will appreciate your consideration.
7. Be sure to use name cards and seat your guests at reserved tables near the front so they will not have to fend for themselves in obtaining seats.
8. Notify the media several weeks ahead of your scheduled program. Follow up with a telephone call a few days prior to the event, reminding them of the occasion. Arrange for a photographer (commercial, Post member, etc.) to take pictures of the event.

What To Do When The Chief Visits

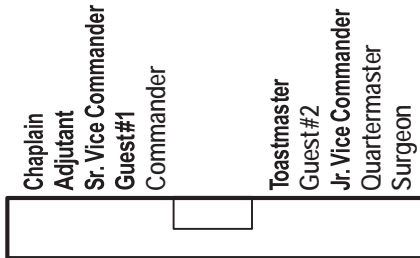

It is a very important occasion when the Commander-in-Chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars visits a Post. The Chief is the spokesperson for the more than 1 million veterans who served their country during a time of war. Anyone dealing with the Chief's visit has important responsibilities. We suggest that these individuals be familiar with the following guidelines to make their job a little easier and the Chief's visit run as smooth as possible:

1. Contact your local radio and TV stations as soon as you have the Chief's definite arrival time. Talk shows are sometimes planned well in advance. Public Service time is free, and an interview with the Commander-in-Chief and a local VFW leader might be arranged. It is important that the scheduling does not conflict with other engagements the Chief might have.
2. Arrange a press conference for the Chief. It is usually more convenient to have it in the hotel where the Chief will be staying. A notice of the press conference to all media – newspapers, TV and radio – should be sent at least three days before the event. On the morning of the press conference, call to remind the media of the time and place of the press conference.
3. It is important to remember that the media who attend the press conference are there to interview a national leader of a major veteran's organization, not local VFW members. For that reason, it is important that Post members do not volunteer information. The best arrangement is to leave the Chief alone with the media.
4. Introduce the Commander-in-Chief to the local leaders in your community and invite them to a dinner or event at which the Chief will speak.
5. Once an itinerary has been established, follow it precisely. Make sure the Chief gets to their appointments on time. If a dinner where the Chief is to speak starts at 7 p.m., have everyone seated and start serving the meal exactly at 7 p.m.
6. Ask the Commander-in-Chief if they would like to see the local points of interest or if they have a friend in the community whom they wish to visit. Do your best to accommodate the Chief's requests. Be sure there is a good car available for the Chief at all times, to meet them at their point of arrival, to take them to their point of departure and to take them from place to place in your community. The person who will drive the car must be one who can be relied on for punctuality, courtesy and safe driving.
7. If the Commander-in-Chief is to speak where there is a bar, close the bar a half-hour before the Chief is scheduled to speak and during their talk.
8. Limit receptions before banquets and other events to one hour.
9. Do not plan unrelated activities, such as baseball games or private parties, without first consulting the Commander-in-Chief.

I: SITUATION:

Commander's Introduction:

Alfred J. "Al" Lipphardt was elected Commander-in-Chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U.S. at the 125th VFW National Convention in Louisville, Kentucky.

Al served in the United States Army from 1965 to 1979, earning his VFW eligibility by serving in Vietnam from 1967 to 1968, and from 1970 to 1971. In recognition of his heroic service in combat, he received the Combat Infantryman's Badge, Bronze Star with "V" device, Bronze Star Medal for Meritorious Service, Purple Heart Medal, Vietnam Campaign Medal with Silver Star and two Bronze Stars, among many others.

He joined the VFW in 2002 at Post 12002 in North Fulton, Georgia, where he maintains his Gold Legacy Life membership. Al is also a Triple Crown Commander, having been named as an All-American Post Commander in 2006, District Commander in 2010, and Department Commander in 2015.

Membership Mission:

To recruit, retain and mentor a stable membership base including all generations of veterans. To cultivate a membership that is well versed in institutional knowledge and actively involved at all levels of the organization and in the local community. To establish Posts with an established vision of service, leadership, and community outreach.

Specific Membership Numbers:

Our requirement this year is to continue growth and achieve at least 102% in membership. In the simplest of terms, we look at the prior year's total (which is how many individual members paid membership dues last year) and want to see a 2 percent increase. If a member has been lost due to passing away or not renewing their dues, then that means we must fill that gap in addition to recruiting new members to meet the 102% goal. This should serve as an example to prove that we must maintain our focus on retaining and mentoring our existing members as well as bringing in new members to the organization. Bring in the members we need, keep the members we have.

II: MISSION:

Membership:

1. Build a strong organization through recruiting new members while retaining our current membership, creating a solid baseline for the future.
2. Work together to achieve VFW's goals. The VFW National Headquarters staff is available to assist in coordinating programs, developing membership initiatives, and building awareness among our membership and the entire veteran community.

Membership Requirements:

- Achieve 102% in Membership
- For everyone to recruit at least one new member and then mentor that member.
- Increase membership drives and/or events.
- Develop new Posts and/or revitalize existing Posts.
- Increase Life Membership and Legacy Life Membership

WHO: All VFW Members, including Post, District, Department, and National leadership.

WHAT: To meet the goals of increasing membership through recruiting, retention, and mentorship. To develop a spirit of camaraderie and service to all veterans. To strengthen the Veterans of Foreign Wars through a solid membership base.

WHERE: Across the globe with Posts in all 50 states and in overseas countries and territories.

WHEN: Beginning on July 1st, 2024 and continuing through the end of the membership year on June 30th, 2025.

WHY: To serve our comrades and their families, to remember and honor those who have come before us, and to live the words of our motto, that NO ONE DOES MORE FOR VETERANS.

COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF'S STATEMENT

Comrades of Team Tribe 24-25,

You elected me to lead this organization in accordance with the National Bylaws, Manual of Procedures and Ritual to which I was installed. LEAD I SHALL.

D-Day

Operation ALL IN will commence August 1, 2024 @ 1200 Hours

THIS IS NOT A DRILL,

THIS IS NOT AN EXERCISE

The Alert Order was issued when you were Department and State Junior Vice Commanders, and the Warning Order as Senior Vice Commanders, in order to prepare for Operation All In, our All-American Program for Departments, Districts and Posts.

We proudly stand on the shoulders of those who have gone before us; the founders from the Spanish American War followed by World War I. World War II, Korea, Vietnam, The Gulf War, along with our continuing Global War on Terrorism and those deployments to many other places under the orders of the President of the United States. We have been preparing for this moment for three years. In 2022-2023 we focused on Commitment under the leadership of CIC Tim Borland and "Every Veteran Counts" and we successfully achieved those goals because you came together. You realized how critical the force (membership) is to mission accomplishment. In 2023-2024 we focused on Credibility under the leadership of CIC Duane Sarmiento and "Meet the Challenge". Again, you supported the sitting commanders realizing how critical it is for this nation's veterans to know we speak the truth. The principles we were founded upon 125 years ago remain our foundation.

Team Tribe 24-25 Commanders at all levels will focus on Courage. Your courage is undeniable. The day you raised your hand and took the oath of enlistment you said four words that sealed your pledge to the people of this nation, "So help me God". When you were ordered to deploy, putting yourself in harm's way, you knew full well the dangers you would face. With changing geo-social-economic conditions and frankly, partisan politics, we have forgotten the most important asset we have. Our nation can never replace the sons and daughters lost in war. Failing to have a clear plan to achieve victory has been our strategy over these last four decades. Our warriors are deployed to be merely pieces on a game board to be used repeatedly without consideration for the toll taken on the warrior and families at home. The material costs of war and the lifetime of grief and tragedy both physically and mentally to our warriors and their families are quickly forgotten by our nation's leaders.

More dangerous to this nation is the failure by its leaders to keep the promises made to those who have borne the battle. Slowness to grant healthcare and service-connected disabilities is only one part of this failure. We depend on a volunteer military. Recruiting is an issue across all branches of service. Veterans who have deployed to combat have very long memories. The memories I am referring to are those of 1975 and the evacuation of Saigon and when we saw the debacle in Afghanistan at Bagram Air Base as our equipment was left behind but more tragically was witnessing our troops, that is our families (who serve knowing we will never be left behind) and allies abandoned on the ground. Our Warrior Ethos says I will never leave a comrade behind. Our nation's leaders failed to keep that promise.

One of my uncles who served in WWII was with the 82nd Airborne landing in Anzio on D-Day. He went on to battles in Bastogne and Market Garden. He was highly decorated. Unfortunately, I was not close to him as he seemed to always be deployed overseas. I remember a conversation that confused me at the time. The talk was about what was I going to do with my life. At age 11, in 1957 America, I didn't know what I was going to do the next 15 minutes much less had I considered my life. But, I did not remember what he said until I heard it again from a Vietnam Veteran and fellow Rotarian. My Uncle Eddie's words were "the talent you have is your gift from God, the use of that talent is your gift to God". As I remembered I thought, did I really hear those words from that rock hard chiseled old soldier. But then I also remember he said, I chose to be a soldier. I chose to be a peacemaker, a Warrior of God. Evil exists and it cannot be appeased, reasoned with, or condoned. Evil is, and there is only one way to eliminate it and that is to destroy it wherever it appears. Like many of you we have seen the face of evil. In closing I am asking you to take up the vision of courage, never, ever, compromise your integrity. Your word is your bond. If you want to know where I am, look to the front, that's where I'll be. Follow Me.

I am proud to serve together with you. Put that vision into action. Embrace the suck, stand rigid for righteousness' sake, never compromise your principles, use the beliefs you held when you lowered your hand as you took the oath, and always be the best you can be as you "Believe In What You Do – Do What You Believe In"

III: EXECUTION:

Commander's Intent:

"Efforts are to be appreciated. Achievements are to be celebrated."

To incentivize the necessary tasks of recruiting and retention, which are essential to the continued growth and strength of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, a series of award programs will be established and overseen by the Membership Department under the direction of the Adjutant General. These programs will be directly related to membership growth and program participation, and awards will be assigned to those individuals as well as Posts, Districts, and Departments that show excellence above and beyond the standard.

How To Achieve Tasks:

Focus on the three pillars of membership: Recruiting, Mentorship, and Retention

1. Recruiting: We need to bring in new members and recover lapsed members. To do this, we must not only reach out to veterans in our community but also build our VFW Posts into places where veterans can feel at home, find the support and camaraderie they deserve, and be provided with the best service for their family and community.
2. Mentorship: We must engage our membership and keep them active. We must be training the leaders of the future, but also communicating and serving every member of our Posts
3. Retention: We must retain the members currently on our rolls. This means putting an end to cliquishness, welcoming eligible veterans of all generations, backgrounds, and walks of life.

IV: SERVICE AND SUPPORT:

Membership Resources:

In order to assist our Posts, Districts, and Departments in meeting the goals set out by the Commander-in-Chief in this membership program, the National Headquarters has a wealth of resources at your disposal. Many of those are available free of charge to our members.

Membership materials ranging from applications, recruiting brochures, posters, and benefits brochures can be ordered directly from the Membership Department using the Membership Order Form (located under Membership Quick Links once you log into vfw.org)

Resources for Post Development, Membership Campaigns, and Mentorship such as training guides, videos, and webinars are available in the Training & Support section on vfw.org

Promotional tools such as radio spots, sample advertisements, public service announcements, and media kits are all available through the Media Room on vfw.org See the trend? Just about anything you will need is at vfw.org, check it out.

Department Leadership: Department officers will provide resources, support, and training where available including Schools of Instruction, Unpaid/Relocated lists, and other tools and incentives to enable membership growth and the mission of recruiting, retention, and mentorship.

National Headquarters: The VFW National Headquarters staff is ready and trained to answer any questions you may have concerning membership, VFW programs, or other issues. National Headquarters staff will be available for remote training when necessary, feel free to contact the Membership Department to schedule.

You can contact our Member Service Center directly at 1.833.VFW.VETS or msc@vfw.org, or the Membership Department at 1.888.JOIN.VFW or membership@vfw.org.

V: COMMAND AND CONTROL:

In order to incentivize growth and provide motivation and recognition for those individuals, Posts, Districts, and Departments that go the extra mile to strengthen and grow the organization, the Membership Department will issue membership awards designated by the Commander-in-Chief.

Awards Program Notes:

- Awards and stipends given to a Post will be transferrable to another member of that Post.
- No more than one stipend will be awarded to an individual for a given event.
- Post/District/Department: Membership must be a minimum of 102% in order to receive any award or stipend. This does not apply to the Early Bird award.
- NOTE: Reimbursement for travel expenses paid by the VFW will be reported to the Internal Revenue Service on Form 1099 if the total of payments made to you during any calendar year equals $600.00 or more. Travel expenses paid for a guest or spouse for the award will also be reported to the IRS. The reimbursement you receive from the VFW will be deemed by the IRS to be taxable income. Since the circumstances of each individual are different, it is recommended that you consult your tax advisor to determine the effect these payments may have on your personal tax situation. It is your responsibility to keep receipts and other records as you and your accountant and/or tax advisor deem necessary in order to document your expenditures.
- Employees and officers of the VFW National Headquarters are excluded from receiving stipends unless otherwise authorized by the Adjutant General and Quartermaster General.
- Individuals receiving a 5-night hotel stay for either the VFW National Convention or the Legislative Conference must confirm attendance with the VFW Membership Department. Individuals confirmed who do not attend will be invoiced for half the cost of the reserved room.

50 members recruited: Commander-in-Chief backpack

75 members recruited: Commander-in-Chief’s Medallion Set

100 members recruited: Century Cap or $50 VFW Store credit & citation

Recruiting Awards will be sent out five times during the year to the Post, to be given out at a Post meeting to those members who have recruited new members. Mailings will take place near the end of October, January, March, May, and then after the end of the membership year.

Early Bird Award:

The top two Posts in each division on Jan. 1, 2025, will each be awarded a 5-night hotel stay for the VFW Legislative Conference in Washington D.C. One room will be booked per award/Post.

New Member Award:

Each Post that brings in a total of 15 New members will each be awarded a travel charger with the official VFW Commander-in-Chief logo. A Post may receive this award up to five times during the year!

“Operation: All In” Award:

The top two Post commanders and the top two District commanders in each division who achieve 102% membership by June 30th, 2025, will each be awarded a five-night hotel accommodation at the National Convention.

102% Post, District & Department:

A distinctive streamer will be awarded to every Post, District and State/Department that achieves 102% or greater in membership by June 30th, 2025.

105% “Above And Beyond” Drawing:

Each Post and District commander that meets or exceeds 105% in membership by June 30, 2025, will receive an entry in this drawing. Twenty Post commanders and Twelve District commanders will receive a $1,000 stipend to be used toward attending the VFW National Convention.

Post Division Recruiting Challenge:

For every 10 new members recruited between July 1, 2024, and June 30th, 2025, Posts will earn one entry to be entered into a drawing. One Post per division will receive a $1,000 membership grant deposited into the Post account.

Legacy Life Membership Acquisition:

Each Post that achieves the cumulative benchmarks of 25, 50 and 75 Legacy Life Members will be awarded a Legacy Society Post Proclamation.

Each Post that achieves the distinctive benchmark of 100, 250, or 500 Legacy Life members by June 30th, 2025, commander or Post representative will receive a 5-night hotel accommodation at the VFW National Convention, reserved seating at the VFW National Convention joint opening session and a Legacy Society Post Proclamation.

Top Department Recruiter:

The top Recruiter in every Department by June 30th, 2025, will receive an engraved Cavalry Saber. Note: Minimum of 25 new members required to win this award.

Elite Recruiter:

Any VFW member who signs up 250 or more new members by June 30th, 2025, will receive a 5-night hotel accommodation at the VFW National Convention and a distinctive cap, citation, and name badge. In the event that an Elite Recruiter has already received a 5-night hotel accommodation from another award, a $1,000 stipend will be issued at the National Convention.

Recruiter of the Year:

The Elite Recruiter who signs up the greatest number of new members greater than 250 by June 30th, 2025, will receive an additional $1,000 stipend, reserved seating at the VFW National Convention joint opening session, a distinctive cap, citation, and name badge, and the Commander-in-Chief's Crystal Eagle trophy.

Life Member Recruiter Award:

Any VFW member who recruits at least 75 New Life members by June 30th, 2025 will receive a special citation from the Commander-in-Chief and a Recruiter Satchel with the Commander-in-Chief's logo.

New Post Development Department Grant:

For each new Post chartered the Department Quartermaster will receive a $250 credit from the VFW Store to be used towards necessary materials for the new Post.

Department Commanders and Quartermasters may apply for this grant directly through the National Membership Department.

Commander-in-Chief's Challenge:

To emphasize the importance of Life Membership as the backbone of our membership strength, the Commander-in-Chief is issuing the following challenge to all VFW Posts. Each month through the year, Posts will accumulate points as follows:

- New Annual Member: 1 point
- Annual or Lapsed Member converts to Life Member: 5 points
- New Life Member: 10 points

Each month, the Post that leads their membership division in points will receive a special award designated by the Commander-in-Chief. In addition, at the end of the year every Post who has led their division in the monthly challenges will be featured on a video display at the National Convention to recognize their achievements.

Triple Crown:

The Triple Crown is one of the most prestigious membership awards that an individual can achieve. It requires being named as an All-American Commander at Post, District, and Department level. Leaders who attain this level of excellence will be recognized at an Awards Banquet at the National Convention with a special Triple Crown pin.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF EASY ONLINE ORDERING!

Instead of waiting for your order to be mailed or faxed in, make sure your Post gets the materials you need quickly and efficiently by ordering your materials online!

Just follow these steps!

1) Go to www.vfw.org and click the “LOGIN” link in the upper right corner. Sign in when prompted.

If you have not yet created an account on the website, follow the “Sign Up With TroopID” link to do so!

2) Under “Membership Quick Links”, select the Online Membership System (OMS) option.

3) On the left side of the page, you will see an option for Membership Order Form - click that link.

You’ll see that it automatically enters your mailing information! If you need your materials shipped elsewhere, go ahead and enter the new address. (This won’t affect your address on file in our records)

4) Use the dropdown list to indicate which items you need. It will automatically calculate the cost of items and shipping. When you’re finished, click SUBMIT and it will take you to a billing page if there are any charges.

Once done, you’ll receive an email confirmation and your order will be processed and sent out!

IT’S THAT EASY!

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS ELIGIBILITY WORKSHEET

These are the questions you must answer to be eligible for the VFW. An individual must meet all these in order to become a member. They are as follows:

- Citizenship – must be a U.S. citizen or U.S. National.
- Honorable Service – must have served in the Armed Forces of the United States and either received a discharge of Honorable or General Discharge (Honorable Conditions) or be currently serving.
- Service in a war campaign or operations in foreign soil or in hostile waters. This can be proven by any of the following:
 - a confirmed campaign medal awarded side for a list of qualifying medals and insignia
 - Receipt of Hostile Fire Pay or Inmate's Danger Pay (awarded by a military pay statement)
 - Service in Korea for 30 consecutive or 60 non-consecutive days

This information is readily available through a veteran's DD-214. If other information is needed for a veteran's DD-214 is not available, they can contact the National Personnel Records Center at 314-501-3300 or online at <http://www.archives.gov/veterans/records>. To request more information:

It is important that we verify the eligibility of every member that signs up for the VFW, and only by working with our files we can be certain the integrity of the organization. If you have questions concerning membership eligibility, please contact the National Headquarters at 1-800-326-1976 or visit www.membership@vfw.org.

ONLINE MEMBERSHIP SYSTEM (OMS)

Do More with the Post Commander Online Membership System

Post Quartermasters are not only the officers in your Post granted special privileges in the Online Membership System (OMS). Post Adjutants and Commanders have also been granted the online tools necessary to assist them with their responsibilities, particularly with Post reporting and new member prospect review. All OMS services are available to access at the official website of the Veterans of Foreign Wars National Headquarters: www.vfw.org.

Please note that all new users must have an account ID.me before OMS sign-in and access.

Instructions regarding setup and sign-in can be accessed by following the steps below.

- 1.) Go to www.vfw.org.
- 2.) Click on Login.
- 3.) Select the Video Tutorials for ID.me link at the bottom of the VFW Member Login screen.
- 4.) After you have watched the setup videos, return to www.vfw.org, and click on Login to produce the Member Login screen again. Please note that setup will begin by selecting the last orange button on the screen titled Sign up with Troop ID. Once your account is set up, and your identity is verified, the second orange button on the screen titled Sign in with Troop ID (Sign in to ID.me) will be your default sign-in for all OMS activity.

IMPORTANT: Please note that the original VFW Member Login screen (which asks for an email address and password) will not be compatible with your ID.me Sign-In. This sign-in was originally introduced before the ID.me network and is unable to recognize ID.me user accounts.

Navigating the Online Membership System.

When you sign in, click on the “My VFW” tab at the top of the home page. The Own Your Membership Screen will appear.

Next, scroll down the screen until you find a section titled Membership Quick Links. The first link titled Online Membership System (OMS) will take you to the VFW Welcome page. The VFW Welcome screen will appear. Personal information will appear at the center of your screen. The left side will provide you with a series of drop-down menus related to your membership, documentation, and other services. This guide, however, will focus on two services related to your Post Commander election: Reporting and Tools, Products, and Merch.

Online Reporting.

All Post-related reporting services will be accessed through the Reporting drop-down menu on your left. Click on this menu to expand and view the selection of online reports provided. Once this menu is open, the following reports will appear.

Legacy Life members

All Post Legacy Life members for the current membership year will appear in this report. First name, last name, and Legacy level will be provided, but further details are available through the blue Download Results link on the right side of this screen.

Post Query (Post Member Report)

Access the Post Member Report (Post Roster) with ease by selecting a “Totals” count from one of the main categories provided: Memstats, Paid, or Unpaid.

Post Member Report
Click one of the blue highlighted numbers below to generate your report
Post 5789
Post Report Terminology
Memstats Counts (paid for 2022)

These counts will appear as highlighted, blue numbers within each of the subcategories provided in each row.

Post Counts (members in good standing)
Life 555	New 18	Reinstate 1	Cont. 75

Double-click on the highlighted, blue, totals count of your choice to view a selected membership count. This action may produce a member privacy notice. If this agreement appears, accept the terms to continue. A Post member report will appear below the three original rows (Memstats, Post Counts, and Unpaid), providing you with membership card numbers, names, contact information, etc. Click on the Download or Print selection to produce an Excel or Print Friendly copy of the report in a new window.

Find Unpaid Members

Locate unpaid members by years expired (Unpaid (up to)) and age. The Find Unpaid Member Report offers you the ability to locate unpaid members for the past decade. In contrast to Post Query, the Find Unpaid Members tool allows you to search for potential reinstate members that have fallen off the main reports. (Post Query only reflects Post membership for the past two membership years.)

To begin your search, select a year (1, 2,3, etc.) and sort out an age range to query your search (example: Age: 35 to 75.) Next click on the red Search button to continue. An expired report based on your search filters will appear. If your report suits your request, click on the blue Download or Print option to produce an Excel or print-friendly copy of your report.

MemStats (Membership Statistics)

The Memstats report represents the numeric count of all payments processed and credited to your Post, District, or Department for the current dues year. A member transfer will be counted with the previous post if they have been a member for less than a year.

Post Cmdr (Commander) Services: New Member Prospects

Click on the Post Cmdr Services drop-down menu to expand and click on the New member Prospects selection. The New Member Prospects screen will appear.

New Member Prospects

The following persons have shown interest in being a member of your post. Click the name to expand the application and see more detail about the prospective member. After your post members determine this prospect's eligibility, you may either Reject this application, or Approve & Pay. Please understand it is the Post's responsibility to collect payment from the prospective member before processing each application.

For a video tutorial on how to use this feature, click here.

There are no Member Prospects to show at this time.

Veterans who have shown interest in being a member of your Post will appear in this menu service for application review and approval. Online applications for these potential members (otherwise known as prospects) are collected through the VFW “mobile app” by Post recruiters in the field and sent over to the Post QM or Commander for review.

Application details are viewed by clicking on the name of each prospective member. Depending on the eligibility of the recruit, click on the red Approve or Reject button to discard or finalize an applicant's membership request.

If no applications are available for review, a There are no Member Prospects to show at this time message will be displayed. For a video demonstration on how to use this feature, click on the blue click here button to watch.

Tools, Products & Merch

Use this drop-down menu for quick access to all VFW products and merchandise, including new membership applications, online store products, and legacy citation certificates.

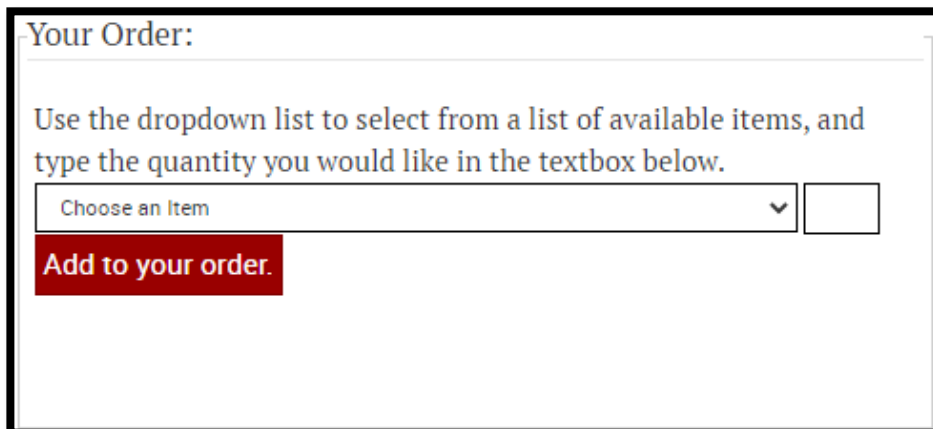

Membership Order Form

Online bulk orders for all Post related literature (including new membership applications and brochures) can easily be submitted through the online Membership Order form. Before submitting your order, review the shipping address information in the “Ship To:” column on your left.

Your personal mailing information will already be populated, but the order can be shipped to anyone.

Any adjustments to the order’s shipping address, Department, District, Post, and contact email address are permitted. Select Member or VFW Post Commander from the Check One section below.

Select your item from the Choose an Item drop-down menu in the Your Order: column on your right for your next step. The product type and quantity amount of the order (example: Membership Application (25 per pkg)) will be provided for each item listing.

Your Order:

Use the dropdown list to select from a list of available items, and type the quantity you would like in the textbox below.

Choose an Item

Add to your order.

After your item is selected, click in the small box to your right, and type in a quantity number that represents the number of packages received per item. Click on the red Add to your order button to produce a summary of the order. You can also use this button to add multiple products to your order before submission.

If you approve of your order, click the red “Submit Order” button to submit. If the order does not meet your preferences, click on the red “Remove” button instead. Public Relations Introduction

Public Relations may be the most important task you and your Post will undertake. It occurs every minute of every day. It goes beyond preparing and distributing news releases. It is the underlying element that brings success or failure to your Post. All contact between your Post and the community has a public relations aspect. Ensuring the community views your Post positively is paramount.

The community service your Post performs will enhance the Post's reputation as a responsible, caring and energetic community service organization — one that leads by example.

Your PR Strategy

What do you want to accomplish with your PR strategy? Define your objectives. This is the critical first step.

- Determine your audience. This includes members, potential members and non-members. Different Post activities appeal to different segments of the community.
- Define your message. Sticking to one message is essential. However, your message may be presented in several ways through various outlets. Determine the best outlet for the best results.
- Develop a strategy. How can you best accomplish your goals? Look at the dynamics of your community. Build a relationship with the media in your area. Keep an up-to-date list of contacts for each outlet. Become the subject matter experts in your community on patriotic and veterans' issues. Make your Post visible and active on social media. Develop relationships with other local community service organizations.

When evaluating your strategy, you should listen carefully to the feedback from Post members and officers, members of the community and the media. Take this information and fine tune your strategy, if necessary. A good communicator talks and listens.

Suggestions from all sources should be considered. After all, those people see your messages from a different angle, and what might be very clear to you may not be to them. A new point of view may help get the word out more efficiently and effectively.

Development of good public relations takes time and commitment.

Building Media Contacts

As a Post officer, you will have to speak to the media and general public. Therefore, you need to be able to speak clearly and concisely on veterans' issues and VFW programs. Your ability to communicate in both the written and spoken word will benefit the Post and the community.

You should build a good working relationship with members of the media, as well as the leaders of the various VFW programs. The assistance of officers and members is invaluable when gathering information to present to the media. When your information is accurate and of interest to the community, the media will welcome your submissions.

Some basic equipment needed to accomplish this task are a computer, email address, letterhead and a style guide, such as the Associated Press Stylebook.

A camera or smart phone is a great tool when used properly. After all, “a picture is worth a thousand words,” but only when that picture is of good quality and supports your newsworthy story. Avoid taking “grip-and-grin” photos. Additionally, always look for the action shots. Remember, get close, get faces, and get a signed photo release.

Your goals are to develop a public relations strategy and make it work, establish media contacts, and increase the community’s awareness and respect for the VFW.

Building VFW Awareness by Rewarding Your Community

Know the VFW programs and how they serve the community. Our programs are the heart of our organization, beginning with community service. Tell the community about the Post service officer and the free assistance available to any veteran and his or her dependents to gain entitlements.

Our programs can reach people in the community who might not otherwise know veterans or the continuing service they offer to their communities. Through our youth and citizenship education programs we offer valuable and needed information to various groups in the community.

Establish an awards program that relates to VFW programs. Everyone loves praise. Recognition focuses the community spotlight on the individual or group being acknowledged as well as on the VFW. Award your local police, firefighters and EMTs with a certificate of appreciation during a public ceremony. Coordinate this event with a community anniversary or a national observance.

Other organizations or groups that have assisted the VFW in a community service project deserve thanks as well. Host a special event to recognize individuals or groups who further the VFW’s priorities and ideals. Include teachers, public officials, youths and members who have demonstrated support of the VFW’s values.

Deal With Bad Publicity, Don’t Avoid It

Unfavorable publicity needs to be handled promptly and with as accurate information as possible. Here are some tips for dealing with negative publicity:

- Don’t avoid the media. Help them get all the facts so the story will be fair and balanced.

- Do not provide conjecture or speak before you have all the facts. Stating "We're aware of the situation, and are investigating," can help.
- Do not place blame.
- Do not discuss fault or liability.
- Deal with the situation and move on. Even a bad situation can have positive aspects.

Think of this as a welcome opportunity to present the VFW's programs and projects that help the community. If you have been helpful, the media contacts you make can prove valuable in the future.

Targeting the Media with a Specific Message

Get to know the media in your area. This includes newspapers, both daily and weekly; radio, television and cable television stations; local or regional trade publications; and local and regional magazines.

Your contact list should include: name, title, address, affiliation, phone number, email address, social media handles and publication deadline dates.

Remember: your membership is diverse. Contacting various outlets ensures that your message reaches a wide audience.

Not every message will need to be sent to every contact. A news release announcing teachers and students receiving awards from the VFW would be best sent to the local media outlets as well as the school and any professional publication for teachers. A blood drive held at the Post would have a different list of media contacts. Choose carefully. A constant barrage of unrelated news releases can numb the media to your message.

A 'Thank You' Reaps Rewards

Nothing is more important than saying "thank you." A well-written thank you note to a guest speaker is imperative.

Presentation of a certificate of appreciation to an individual or a group that has assisted with a program goes a long way toward building community relationships. A brief note of thanks to a member of the media for event coverage can help keep the lines of communication open. You also may want to consider writing congratulatory letters to individual Post members when they have accomplished something noteworthy outside of the organization.

Many members belong to various community service organizations. Sending congratulatory letters to elected leaders of other service organizations is a good way to establish a spirit of camaraderie between organizations. After all, we are all trying to better our communities through voluntary public service.

In addition, you can host an annual appreciation event for local law enforcement agencies, community-safety representatives, educators and youths who deserve recognition.

Make Your Community Proud of Your Post

Make your community proud it has a VFW Post. Be the focal point in your community for all patriotic programs. Whether it's parades, school programs or voter registration, make sure the VFW has a visible presence.

Keep the Post home in good shape. Make it attractive and welcoming. Let it be an example of an organization that is proud of its history and working to make the community a better place in which to live. When the Post has a good image, it is easier to get the media involved and excited about VFW-sponsored events.

Finally, remember that you represent the VFW to every person you meet. The impression you make is one the public will associate with the VFW. Make sure it is a positive one.

Keep a Calendar

A calendar of upcoming VFW events can help simplify your job. On your calendar include important national events, anniversaries and observances. To commemorate these dates, you may want to have a letter to the editor ready for possible publication.

Also you might consider hosting an event in observance of these special days. When planning an event, it is important to consult with the local community calendar. Scheduling conflicts can be avoided with some simple checking.

News Releases and Promotion

A News Release Must Be Newsworthy

The most fundamental way, although not the only way, to get your message out to the media is through a news release.

An effective news release relates information that is newsworthy. It should be clear, concise, error-free and answer the "Five Ws" in the first paragraph: who, what, where, when and why.

Try to keep the news release to one page, two at the most. If more information is needed to better explain your news release (fact sheets, biographies or program information), it can be attached. Be sure the contact person's name, phone number and the date of the release are clearly indicated.

Include quotes from the head of the organization, the Post Commander or the officer responsible for the program. It is best to use quotes that sound natural and express an opinion or position.

Press releases can be written on events, programs, awards, election of VFW officers or national issues. Be sure to highlight the local aspect no matter what the subject. Localization makes for easier placement.

Avoid buzzwords and organizational acronyms. Assume that readers know nothing about the organization — chances are they don't.

As you are writing, think about simplicity. Be brief. Forget flowery adjectives — they will most likely be cut anyway. And don't be insulted if your release is changed or cut, as long as it gets the main points across. The editor's job is to do just that — edit.

Know the media deadlines. Allow enough time for editors to call with questions, but not too much time for the interest to lag.

Make the reporter's job easier by emailing the news release to them. Follow-up with a phone call.

When you have completed your news release, go back over it again. Check that you have answered the "Five Ws" in the first paragraph. Did you give the release a point of local interest? Are the sentences short and clear? Is the release written in a consistent manner? Is it typed and error-free? Nothing is more irritating to an editor than having to rewrite a release.

If a photo is included with the release, be sure to provide the names of everyone in the photo and a brief explanation of the event. Make sure the photo is of good quality and suitable for publication.

Control Interviews with Facts and Research

If reporters call, determine why they are calling and the subject to be discussed. Ask if the reporter is on deadline, and assure the reporter you will call back before the deadline. Remember, you have little control over the interview, but if the reporter asks an off-topic question, bring them back to the agreed topic. Here are tips designed to help as you prepare for the actual interview:

- Jot down likely questions and appropriate answers.
- Know what you want to communicate. Plan to make your points accordingly.
- Do your research. Provide background or expanded information.
- Never lie or mislead a reporter.
- Offer your conclusion first, briefly and directly. Back it with facts.
- Avoid organizational jargon and acronyms.
- Short answers are better than long. Use complete sentences.
- Don't accept a reporter's facts or figures as true; don't respond to a hypothetical situation; and do respond to negative-leading questions with positive statements.
- Keep cool. Don't allow yourself to be provoked.
- Remember when talking to a reporter there is no such thing as "off the record."
- If there are any skeletons in the closet, be prepared for them to come up in the interview.
- Be prepared to state all your positive points completely in response to the first questions asked.
- State clearly when you can release information and why.
- If you don't know the answers, say so, and offer to find out.

The interview will be brief. A reporter has only a few minutes to get your full story. Don't ask to approve the story before it is published or broadcast.

Notifying the Media When the Chief Visits

The VFW National Commander's visit to your area is an important event for several reasons. First, they are the chief spokesman for our organization. They are widely traveled, aware of the concerns of veterans and their families across the nation, and have the responsibility to meet with the president and key congressional members to express the interests and needs of the nation's veterans.

For these reasons, the local media will be interested in their views on veterans' issues, national security and foreign affairs. It benefits the VFW and veterans in general if the Chief's visit is well-covered by the media.

- Media Alert. If your Department has already announced the Chief's visit, ask for a copy. Then, forward it to the news editors in your community. If the Department has not distributed a media alert, write one yourself.
- Interviews. Contact your local TV and radio stations in your community and ask if they would like to have the VFW's National Commander as a guest. Of course, be sure the Chief will be in your area long enough to take part in this type of interview. Most Post visits are scheduled for 30 minutes. Such interviews work best at the beginning of a visit or at the end. In any case, coordinate with your Department headquarters to determine what time works best for the Chief's already-established schedule.
- Interviewees. The media is there to interview the Chief. Conduct the interview in such a manner so others cannot interrupt. The Chief, the Post/District Commander and the Department Commander are the only VFW members who should attend the interview. Post, District and Department Commanders are there only to provide information on veterans' issues on a local or state level. Do not put the Chief into an interview by themselves where the media are going to concentrate on local veterans' issues. The Chief talks only on relevant national and international issues.
- News Conference. Since the amount of time the Chief can spend at a Post is limited, it is usually a good idea to invite the media for a specific time. Then, turn the Chief over to them for a news conference-type interview.
- Place. Where you conduct the interview is very important. Do not conduct interviews in the Post canteen. Use your meeting room or an area that is clean and quiet.
- Time. The best time to conduct an interview at the Post is as soon as the Chief arrives. Reporters have deadlines to meet and they do not have time to stand around while the Chief visits with members. Get the interview started when they arrive. The Chief can visit with members later. The only exception to this rule is when the Chief will be at the Post for a luncheon or dinner. For these visits, ask the media if they would like to eat with members, listen to the Chief's remarks afterward, and then conduct the interview. Quite often, the Chief's remarks to the group after the meal give the media ideas for questions.

- Follow-up. If there are questions that can't be answered during the interview, be sure to get the name and phone number of the reporter, and provide an answer as soon as possible.

Good PR Helps Retain Members

Post officers have an additional responsibility to members of the VFW to ensure that Post activities are enjoyable, interesting and diverse. This promotes membership retention. Members who show pride in the organization and the community service they perform attract potential members.

Remind members to wear VFW-branded apparel. Make sure new members feel welcome and offer them the opportunity to get involved in a VFW program or project that captures their interest. Getting a new member off to a good start, or involving an existing member in a new program, is in everyone's best interest. A happy member is the best PR the VFW can have.

Supporting VFW activities through meaningful PR is the key to supporting members in their efforts to help the community. Members will recognize your contribution to the success of the VFW and its many projects and programs. There is no substitute for teamwork.

Advertising

There are significant differences between public relations and advertising.

With advertising you control the timing and content but not the cost. In public relations you have no control on the timing or content but pay nothing. Resources will determine which method you use most frequently.

Talk to local radio and TV stations about advertising or donated public service announcement (PSA) time. The cost of placing a 30-second spot can be minimal depending on your location. Explore these mediums for effectiveness of messaging (how many of your target audience you reach) and cost comparison.

VFW National Headquarters has produced 30 and 60-second videos and radio spots. They publicize the VFW's mission and promote our free assistance programs. Some solicit membership so they cannot be used as PSAs, which are free.

Additionally, if you advertise to solicit members, be mindful of the environment at the Post. Make sure the prospective member feels welcome and respected.

Be Creative with Publicity Options

We have talked about the printed word in the form of a news release and the possibilities available through radio and video, but there are other options to investigate as well.

VFW GUIDE FOR
AND STAYING ACTIVE ON SOCIAL MEDIA

GETTING STARTED

Creating a social media presence, such as a Facebook page, Twitter handle or Instagram account allows your Post, District or Department to increase VFW brand awareness and engage with your members, supporters and fellow veterans through an online community where people gather to receive information and access resources.

Social media is useful to share the important work of the VFW, information on meetings and events, creates membership opportunities and works to enhance your Post, District or Department's visibility. It is also a place to share success stories and to ask for support if needed.

Creating a social media presence is not enough however, you must be active! Fully completing your account profile, posting content regularly, engaging with users and responding to direct messages in a timely manner are all vitally important. Make certain you are assigning a site administrator(s) that you can trust.

Each social media site is unique in the content it supports and its user base. We encourage you to do some research into the various sites to find the one that suits your Post, District or Department needs. Remember, social media success is contingent upon ENGAGEMENT!

A few questions to consider before choosing which channel is right for you:

- What is this platform's functionality?
- Can we actively and efficiently engage users on this platform?
- How can using this platform help us achieve our goals?

Please note: VFW Facebook and Twitter profile images are available in the "Getting Started Online" section of the Communications and Public Affairs hub in Training and Support at vfw.org. Brand usage guidelines and instructions on how to access your specific Post, District or Department VFW logo can be accessed here.

Get to know the channels:

Facebook:

- # of monthly active users: 2.96 billion
- Largest age group: 25-34 (23.7%)
- Gender: 43.4% female, 56.6% male
- Time spent per day: 33 minutes

You have the option to control the look of your page by adding a profile picture and a cover photo. Other suggestions include using photos of your Post, District or Department building or photos from recent events.

There are many ways to add content to your Facebook page, but the most common include status updates, creating events and sharing photos. Please refer to the Facebook Help Center for more information about each of these.

An official Facebook page may be created with the appropriate permission from your Post, District or Department.

A Facebook page must be created from the profile of an existing Facebook user. If you do not have an existing account, please make one. It is best to create the profile under the name of a real person, then create a Facebook page associated with that profile.

The difference between a profile and a Facebook page is that people must send “Friend Requests” to the profile in order to connect with you. When your Post, District, or Department has a Facebook page, anyone can view the page and connect with and join your audience by following the page and giving the page a “like.”

Ready to get started on Facebook?

Begin creating your official Post, District or Department Facebook page by following these steps. Be sure to create an appropriate name based on your official Post, District or Department name/number. Note: Watch what to do if a Facebook page for your entity, for which you do not have access, already exists.

It is important to add more than one person within your Post, District or Department as administrators of the Facebook page. Be sure they are trusted, and active on their personal Facebook page. This ensures that if the primary administrator leaves, the account will remain accessible, and that Facebook will not deactivate your account by purging the inactive personal account of one of your administrators. Learn how to add an administrator to your page here. Be sure everyone who has access to your page is aware of the guidelines your Post, District or Department has set for their social media activity.

Publicly, we recommend placing a User Code of Conduct in the “About” section of your Facebook page. You are at liberty to copy the VFW National Headquarters’ Facebook User Code of Conduct below:

VFW Facebook User Code of Conduct

We strive to provide an inviting space where users can freely and respectfully discuss the content posted to our page. We have instituted user guidelines to help us accomplish this. Failure to adhere to these guidelines will result in deleted comments. In severe cases, users will be banned from future engagement with the VFW page.

Comments or posts which contain one or more of the qualities listed below will be deleted. Users may be banned if they are deemed excessive or chronic repeat offenders.

- * Hate speech or bullying
- * Discrimination
- * Politically charged rants
- * Excessive profanity
- * Sexual content
- * Content unsuitable for minors (Please remember we have underage fans on our page.)
- * No promotions or spam: Links, images, referral codes, self-promotion, or excessive references to third parties' products or services
- * Identifying VFW members in defamatory, abusive, or generally negative terms or endangering their privacy
- * Deliberately provocative or antagonistic language

Direct messages should also follow the aforementioned guidelines. Messages in violation will not be returned, and depending on the severity of violation could be escalated to our operations or legal departments.

Twitter:

- # of monthly active users: 436 million
- Largest age group: 25-34 (38.5%)
- Gender: 43.6% female, 56.4% male
- Time spent per day: 34.8 minutes

Each tweet is limited to 280 characters for unsubscribed Twitter users, so you must be brief in your messaging. However, those who opt to pay for a Twitter subscription service (Twitter Blue or Verified Organizations) now have up to a 10,000-limit character count.

Hashtags are words or phrases preceded by a hash sign (#) used on social media websites and apps especially Twitter, to identify a specific topic. For example, if you tweet, “We’re hosting bingo Friday night to benefit #veterans at 7 p.m., everyone is welcome!” using the hashtag #veterans will categorize your tweet with every other tweet using the hashtag #veterans. To see this, enter #veterans in the search bar at the top of the page and you will see a list of all the recent tweets using that hashtag.

While Twitter may have character limitations for unsubscribed Twitter users, with a little creativity you can still share most of the same information with your Twitter followers that you would share on Facebook.

Ready to get started on Twitter?

Go to the Twitter “Sign Up” page and follow the prompts. We recommend signing up with a shared email address for your Post, District or Department so that in the event the primary administrator leaves, the credentials are recoverable.

Be sure to create an appropriate name based on your official Post, District or Department name/number, input a proper description of the VFW and note that you’re interested in veterans.

Once you've successfully signed up, complete your Post, District or Department profile by inputting a photo/VFW logo, completing your physical address, phone number, etc.

Issues signing up? Visit the Twitter Help Center for a step-by-step guide on how to sign up for your new Twitter account.

Instagram:

- # of monthly active users: 2 billion
- Largest age group: 18-34 (60%)
- Gender: 48.2% female, 51.8%
- Time spent per day: 30 minutes

Instagram is the perfect combination of Facebook and Twitter, where images and videos are at the forefront, with hashtags often utilized to discover similar content within the captions and comments. Links are not easily added which pushes users to create content that lives specifically on Instagram.

Ready to get started on Instagram?

Grab your mobile device and download the Instagram app from your app store or head to Instagram.com to create an account. If you have an existing Facebook or Instagram account, you can use your existing account to create a new Instagram account.

Create an account by choosing an appropriate name based on your official Post, District or Department name/number. Confirm your account by using an email address associated with your Post, District or Department that the administrator and others have access to.

Input an appropriate photo/VFW logo as your profile picture and complete the remainder of the profile with your Post, District or Department information.

If you've hit a roadblock, visit the Instagram Help Center for more information on account basics and how to set up an account.

STAYING ACTIVE

Maintaining a positive, active social media presence requires that your accounts meet the community standards set forth by each channel and the administrators take a proactive approach in cultivating your presence and a following.

- Basic Do's
 - Create an official handle with completed profile.
 - This conveys professionalism and accessibility.
 - Provide access to at least two trusted representatives.
 - You do NOT want to get locked out of your account.

- Always be aware of presentation.
 - Double-check spelling, punctuation and grammar.
- Post images.
 - Images almost always garner more engagement.
- Post content regularly.
 - Consistently put the good VFW name out there.
- Be a good steward.
 - Remember, you're operating under the VFW name.
- Remain inclusive.
 - Each post should align with the VFW mission, vision and values.
- Reply in a timely manner.
 - Being responsive conveys professionalism and helps build relationships.
- Remember it's forever.
 - Post with the assumption that each post is viewed and captured.
- Basic Don'ts
 - Use to share your beliefs and opinions.
 - Remember, this is not a personal account.
 - Gloss over appearance.
 - Take a hard look at each photo and video to ensure it's appropriate.
 - Let the profile grow stale.
 - An outdated presence is worse than none.
 - Get personal.
 - Again, remember, you're operating under the VFW name.
 - Ignore or overly engage.
 - Address any negative comments in a professional manner – consider moving the conversation from a public forum to direct messages as necessary.
 - Forget that it's forever.
 - Again, post with the assumption that each post is viewed and captured.

Please note: VFW National Headquarters does not have a professional relationship with any social media companies. It cannot retrieve login credentials, influence the community standards of each site or submit appeals on behalf of Posts, Districts or Departments whose accounts have been suspended for violations.

Please refer to the respective social media site for assistance with the aforementioned.

Common Hashtags to Use in Your Content Postings:

The VFW utilizes several different hashtags, and we encourage you to use them as appropriate and utilize your own hashtags in your social media content.

- #VFWPostPride
 - Used to highlight the successes, events and stories of local Posts and VFW members.
- #StillServing
 - The VFW's latest, far-reaching campaign to highlight veterans' continued service.
- #IAmtheVFW
 - Highlighting stories of members' ongoing service to community and country.
- #VFWTestimony
 - Incorporated into legislative testimony tweets.
- #VFWSalute
 - Used when remembering someone who has passed away.
- #ShopVFW
 - Anything VFW Store related.
- #VFWConvention
 - Used for all VFW National Convention information.
- #VFWDC [insert 4-digit calendar year] i.e. #VFWDC2024
 - Used for all VFW Legislative Conference information.
- #FORVETERANS
 - Because "No One Does More For Veterans" than the VFW.
- #PACTActInfo
 - Utilized to promote the VFW's PACTActInfo.org website.
- #VFWStrong
 - Emphasizing our strength in numbers and our positive reach in the community.
- #VFWDayofService
 - Annual community service initiative that kicks off the first Saturday in May with service projects and events ongoing throughout the month.

Determining Which Accounts to Follow/Like

There is much to consider when deciding which accounts to follow/like on social media: Is the information shared reliable, interesting and do our professional interests align ... does it make sense to follow/like them?

To help you get started, we've put together a list of recommended accounts to follow/like. Additionally, we encourage you to follow/like the accounts of your Posts, Districts, Departments, Auxiliaries and those of your local news and resource partners.

VFW at a Glance

The VFW is a nonprofit veterans service organization comprised of eligible veterans and military service members from the active, Guard and Reserve forces. The VFW and its Auxiliary are dedicated to veterans service, legislative advocacy, and military and community service programs.

Origins

In 1899, the American Veterans of Foreign Service (Columbus, Ohio) and the National Society of the Army of the Philippines (Denver, Colorado) were organized to secure rights and benefits for veterans of the Spanish-American War (1898) and the Philippines War (1899-1902). These two organizations merged in 1914, creating the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States. The VFW was chartered by Congress in 1936.

Membership Eligibility

Citizens or nationals of the United States serving honorably in the U.S. Armed Forces in a foreign war or overseas operation recognized by a campaign medal, in Korea after June 30, 1949, and recipients of hostile-fire or imminent danger pay. Veterans of World War II, Korea, Vietnam, Lebanon, Grenada, Panama, Persian Gulf, Somalia, Kosovo, Afghanistan, Iraq and other smaller expeditionary campaigns, as well as occupation duty, qualify.

Partner Organization

A national volunteer service organization, the Auxiliary of the VFW was founded in 1914 and is the backbone of many local VFW volunteer efforts.

Membership Size

Approximately 1.5 million VFW and Auxiliary members in all 50 states, and many foreign territories.

Organizational Structure

Thousands convene each year at the VFW's national convention to elect officers, adopt resolutions and discuss business affairs. Leading the organization are the elected commander-in-chief, senior vice commander-in-chief and junior vice commander-in-chief. The National Council of Administration serves as the VFW's board of directors.

Nearly 6,000 Posts worldwide comprise 52 Departments in the 50 states, the Asia/Pacific Areas and Europe. Posts form the basic local chapter.

Priority Issues

- Budget: Fully fund programs for veterans, service members and their families.
- Health Care: Provide service members and veterans timely access to high-quality health care without increasing cost shares.

VFW Diverse Endeavors

The VFW honors veterans through memorial fundraising efforts, sponsorship of special events for disabled vets, and by recognizing volunteer service. Donations also help victims of natural disasters and less-fortunate children.

Special Events

- “Run for the Wall”

Supports the annual “Run for the Wall,” a cross country motorcycle ride to the Vietnam Memorial in Washington, D.C. The VFW sponsors refueling for all participating riders during a scheduled stop near the VFW National Headquarters.

- “Uniting to Combat Hunger”

A collaborative campaign established in 2018 with Humana. Created to combat food insecurity, while also working to raise awareness of the issue that may affect 1 in 8 people in America, and as many as 1 in 4 Iraq and Afghanistan War veterans. To date, the campaign has provided more than 4 million meals to those facing hunger and food insecurity.

Memorials

In fulfilling its pledge to remember the nation’s war dead, the VFW promotes national memorials for veterans of all wars. Additionally, thousands of memorials have been constructed across the nation through local VFW Posts.

- National WWI Memorial

Gave the memorial a $350,000 grant to help expand the Liberty Memorial Museum, which houses the nation's most comprehensive collection of World War I historical materials. In 2017, the VFW was proud to sponsor the World War I Centennial Commemorative Ceremony at the National World War I Museum and Memorial in Kansas City, Missouri. The VFW donated $100,000 to preserving the history of the Great War.

- WWI Memorial

Donated $300,000 to the U.S. World War I Centennial Commission for the creation of the World War I Memorial, in Washington, D.C.

- National WWII Memorial

Reached its five-year fundraising goal of $6 million for the memorial’s construction in only two years. The donation ranks as the largest from any veterans group, and second overall.

- Korean War Memorial

Members donated $600,000 toward the construction of the Korean War Memorial. The donation ranked among the highest.

- Vietnam Veterans Memorial

Donated over $300,000 toward building “The Wall” — all 58,000 Americans who died as a result of the Vietnam War are listed. The VFW was the first major organization to contribute.

- Women in Military Service to America Memorial

Donated $70,000 toward construction costs.

- Disabled Veterans for Life Memorial

VFW Programs & Projects

Since its founding, the VFW has been a staple in the community. Troop support, youth activities, volunteering and scholarship programs are a few of the ways the VFW shines in the many communities and cities where Posts are located.

Youth Scholarship Programs

- Voice of Democracy

This audio-essay competition annually awards nearly $3 million in scholarships to students in grades 9-12. The first-place winner receives a $35,000 scholarship.

- Patriot's Pen

More than $1.2 million is awarded annually to students in grades 6-8 in this essay contest. The first-place winner receives $5,000.

- Teacher of the Year

The VFW annually recognizes three exceptional schoolteachers (one from each (K-5, 6-8, and 9-12) for their outstanding commitment to teaching Americanism and patriotism to their students. Awards include $1,000 to the teacher of each category and $1,000 for his/her school, along with an all-expense-paid trip to attend the VFW National Convention.

Educational Outreach

- Echoes From the Wall

The VFW partnered with the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund to distribute a curriculum, Echoes From the Wall, to 25,000 public and private high schools and donated $50,000 to the project.

- Educational Brochures

The VFW produces and distributes a flag brochure and poster.

- Veterans in the Classroom

November is officially known as VFW Veterans in the Classroom Month. Members demonstrate flag etiquette and share their wartime experiences with America's youth.

Youth Activities

Locally, VFW Posts sponsor various youth sporting programs such as baseball and ice hockey. In addition, many VFW Posts sponsor Boy and Girl Scout troops, Junior Olympics, bike safety, JROTC units, drill teams, color guards and a variety of other programs to build good citizenship and exemplary character in America's youth.

Community Volunteerism

Each year, VFW members volunteer 5 million hours of service to various community endeavors.

- Veterans Affairs Voluntary Service

The VFW was a charter member in 1946. VFW volunteers donate millions of hours of service annually at VA medical facilities.

Troop Support

- Military Assistance Program (MAP)

Nearly 3.8 million service members and their families have been hosted at morale-boosting events sponsored by the VFW since 2005.

- Adopt-a-Unit

More than 3,700 units and ships have been adopted through VFW Posts since 2007. VFW National Headquarters adopted the USS Cole in 2002.

- Care Packages

Posts across the country show their support of America's military by collecting and distributing much-needed personal items for adopted units.

- VFW Unmet Needs

This program administers financial assistance in the form of grants to active-duty service members to include active Guard/Reserves and their families to help cover daily necessities such as residential expenses, vehicle expenses, childcare, food, and more. Since 2004, 11,611 grants have been issued totaling more than $13 million.

- VFW's "Sport Clips Help A Hero Scholarship"

Introduced in 2013, this program awards scholarships of up to $5,000 to qualifying veterans and service members. The program has provided 2,904 scholarships totaling more than $13 million.

- Student Veteran Support Grants

Provides financial grants to VFW Posts, Districts, and Departments to assist with outreach and services to veterans on college campuses around the country.

VFW Service to Veterans

From lobbying Congress and monitoring the Department of Veterans Affairs to assisting veterans filing claims, the VFW remains a dedicated advocate for America's veterans, service members and their families.

National Veterans Service (NVS)

NVS is responsible for accrediting and training VFW's global network of professionally trained accredited representatives. NVS provides annual training to VFW accredited representatives. NVS staff represents veterans at the Board of Veterans Appeals in Washington, D.C. Each year NVS provides more than $2 million to VFW Departments in support of their veteran service programs.

- Department Service Officers (DSOs)

A global network of highly trained and accredited service officers and representatives help veterans navigate the complex VA claims process. Department of Veterans Affairs statistics show that for 2023, the VFW helped recoup $13 billion in earned benefits on behalf of more than 550,000 veterans. The VFW's Pre-Discharge claims representatives filed more than 14,000 VA claims resulting in more than $97 million in disability compensation for transitioning service members and recently transitioned veterans. The VFW always provides this service FREE OF CHARGE.

- Tactical Assessment Center (TAC)

The VFW's TAC operates a toll-free hotline for veterans with questions or concerns about VA health care programs and VA benefits. The number is 1.800.VFW.1899. Veterans can also email vfw@vfw.org.

- Health Screenings

The VFW hosts a health fair at its national convention. Attendees can receive an array of free services to include health screenings, eye exams, and VA enrollment.

- Pre-Discharge Program

Introduced in 2001, the VFW's pre-discharge program (informally known as BDD) provides claims assistance to separating military personnel on more than 20 military installations and military populated regions throughout the country.

- VFW PACT Act Information

The VFW is committed to providing all veterans timely and accurate information about this landmark legislative victory. To see if you or a loved one may qualify for benefits, please visit our new website and referral tool at PACTActInfo.org to be referred to a professionally trained, VA accredited VFW Service Officer for assistance never at any cost to the claimant.

National Legislative Service

The NLS educates Congress and advocates for policies that improve the lives of veterans, active-duty military, and their families.

- Action Corps

This grassroots lobbying effort has more than 300,000 volunteer advocates who write, call and visit lawmakers to discuss issues related to veterans. Also, Action Corps members receive the VFW Action Corps Weekly, an e-newsletter relating to current legislation and events.

- Your Voice on Capitol Hill

VFW members live in every congressional district. The VFW's membership size and effective advocacy ensures that members of Congress do not ignore the needs and preferences of those who have worn our nation's uniform. The VFW testifies up to 30 times every year before Congress, including before an annual Joint Senate and House Committee on Veterans' Affairs Hearing to consider the VFW's Priority Goals.

National Security and Foreign Affairs

The welfare of active duty, Guard and Reserve personnel and their families is of a prime concern to the VFW.

- POW/MIA

The VFW national officers visit Asian and European countries to meet with host-country officials to stress the importance of conducting MIA investigation and recovery operations, as well as gaining access to documents and archival research facilities.

Employment Services

The VFW is a strong supporter of veterans' preference in government positions. The Washington Office actively works to advance veteran-specific employment legislation and works with the U.S. Department of Labor to ensure veterans have resources in their communities to find quality post-military careers.

Introduction

VFW Washington Office Mission

To prevail upon Congress and the Administration to fulfill our nation's commitment to care and provide for her defenders and their families, and to ensure that the United States of America remains forever vigilant and secure.

Philosophy

The Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States was founded in 1899 by Soldiers, Sailors and Marines from the Spanish-American War and later, the Philippine Insurrection, who returned home to a government that provided virtually no healthcare or rehabilitation programs for their service-connected wounds, illnesses or injuries. Our forefathers banded together to create an organization to change the way our nation treats those she sends to war, and in 1919, the VFW Washington Office was opened to ensure the veterans' voice was clearly heard on Capitol Hill.

Today, your VFW works with Congress, the Administration, and its agencies and departments to protect and create legislation and programs to enhance the quality of life of 22 million American veterans, 2.2 million active-duty military, Guard and Reserve members, and all their families.

To the VFW, a nation that creates veterans has a sacred obligation to care for them when they return home. Using that as our guiding principle, the VFW Washington Office's philosophy is to:

- Directly assist and help ensure veterans are provided all the care, support and compensation they earned through their honorable service in a prompt and compassionate manner by the Department of Veterans Affairs and other federal organizations.
- Promote legislation in Congress to create and enhance the VFW's pro-veteran, pro-military and national security goals, and to defeat those proposals we deem detrimental to our veteran and military communities.
- Help ensure veteran and military spouse employment opportunities are supported by lawmakers, the private sector, and all concerned government entities through the enhancement of veterans' preference legislation, training, education, and interstate licensing and certification portability programs.
- And to strongly advocate for national security and foreign affairs policies that guarantee our security as a nation, promotes our democratic ideals and interests abroad, seeks the fullest possible accounting of our missing comrades, and backs a strong military that provides for the wellbeing of military service members, retirees and their families.

Continuing Commitment

Since our founding the VFW has helped to create, protect and enhance virtually every quality of life program provided by the Departments of Defense and Veterans Affairs—from improved healthcare and benefits to disability compensation and pensions, military pay raises, new GI Bills, traumatic injury insurance, hazardous substance exposure compensation, family caregiver support, and better services for women veterans, among many others. But more still needs to be done, especially in this era of serious federal budget reductions and cost-shifting proposals.

Of tremendous assistance to our national legislative effort is the grassroots support provided by tens of thousands of VFW Action Corps members who reside in the home states and districts of all 535 members of Congress. So, too, is a strong membership, because on Capitol Hill, membership is the measure of influence and organizational strength.

When the VFW Commander-in-Chief testifies before Congress or meets with the president or other federal officials, it is well understood that he represents the largest organization of combat veterans in the nation, an organization and its Auxiliary with a total membership of more than 1.5 million. And with such influence comes responsibility, and your VFW Washington Office—consisting of National Legislative Service, National Veterans Service, and an Action Corps—is committed to the VFW’s principles of serving the nation and those who serve her in uniform, and to help ensure that “No One Does More for Veterans” than our VFW.

National Legislative Service

The VFW National Legislative Service represents the organization before the United States Congress to advance legislation that is beneficial to veterans, our military, and their families and to work toward the defeat of legislation that would harm them.

In our mission we:

- Testify before congressional committees and subcommittees.
- Educate Congress on VFW Priority Goals to advance veteran-friendly policies.
- Secure the introduction and passage of legislation favorable to our membership.

The issues we advance are derived from the resolutions passed at our National Convention. The members of the National Legislative Committee take these resolutions and establish our Priority Goals. These Priority Goals, in turn, become our key issues and let Congress know what we most strongly support. They are our mandates for action.

For the 118th Congress, our Priority Goals focus on:

- Budget
- Veteran's Health Care
- Toxic Exposure
- Concurrent Receipt
- Education, Employment, and Transition Assistance
- Among many others, for a complete list visit: www.vfw.org/advocacy/national-legislative-service.

We encourage all of our members, and ask you to encourage all of your fellow members to become educated on these issues. You have a strong influence in Washington, and you should to use it.

VFW Action Corps

Action Corps is the grassroots network of the VFW. Our members and non-member advocates are encouraged to contact their legislators on a wide variety of VFW-supported issues, working hand in hand with National Legislative Service.

Former Speaker of the House Tip O'Neill famously said, "All politics is local." Your legislators truly care about what you think. They depend upon us for support and votes. It is up to us to educate our legislators so they know what we believe in and what we expect from them.

What Can We Do For You?

- Action Corps members receive the VFW Action Corps Weekly and Action Alerts to keep advocates up to date on federal legislation.
- We assist you, as a VFW leader, by providing materials to help educate your members on the important issues and how to play a larger, more active role in the political process.
- We provide information and resources on how to effectively communicate the VFW's message to those in Congress.

How You Can Help Us?

- Stay Informed. Know the Issues.
- Participate by responding to action alerts and surveys.
- Be an instructor to your members. Let all your members know about the issues and Action Corps.
- Be an educator to your legislators. Let Congress know our Priority Goals and what we want them to do.
- Encourage others to help. Sign up to be a veterans' advocate and join Action Corps. If every veterans' advocate could email, write or call their legislators, we would be an unstoppable force.
- Anyone who cares about veterans can join Action Corps for free. You do not need to be a VFW member. The more advocates we have, the stronger our voice will be on Capitol Hill. Sign up new advocates for Action Corps any chance you get (see next section To Get Involved).

To Get Involved:

Sign up for the Action Corps: visit <https://votervoice.net/VFW/register>

Through Action Corps, you will be able to directly email your legislators. Please be reminded that the majority of information – Action Alerts, email updates and other breaking news – are sent via email. The speed with which legislation now moves requires the kind of instant action that only email can provide.

What's the Best Way to Communicate with Your Legislators?

- Personal Visits- This is the most effective way to communicate our message. Legislators make frequent visits to their district offices. Call their local office and ask for an appointment. When meeting, be organized and concise. Feel free to leave a fact sheet or a copy of the VFW Priority Goals for their future reference, which can be found at: vfw.org/advocacy/national-legislative-service.
- Town Hall Meetings - Organizing a town hall meeting is an excellent way to get our issues in the forefront and discussed. Congressional leaders and candidates are always looking for places to host events and audiences to speak to. Local VFW Posts are perfect for this type of event. For more information about hosting/planning a town hall event, contact Action Corps at 202.608.8368.
- Telephone Calls- A short phone call, especially to the local district office, gives a clear indication of what our members think. Ask to speak to the person who handles veterans' issues and let them know what issue you are calling about, how you feel about it and how it would affect you personally. Five minutes of your time can lead to big results down the road. You can find phone numbers by visiting: <https://votervoice.net/VFW/Address>.
- Email Messages- Through Action Corps you can send letters and other information directly to your legislators with just a click of the mouse from your computer. We provide sample letters that you can customize and personalize, and because you are sending from our website, the information sent to the congressional offices identifies you as a constituent – critical in today's high tech world of spam and viruses.
- Personal Letters- A brief, clearly organized letter that focuses on one issue and why it's important to you lets them know how their constituents feel. Always be polite and professional. Be sure to specifically ask for a reply in your letter. Custom letterheads, envelopes and business cards with the VFW Logo are available from the VFW Store at 833.VFW.VETS (833.839.8387) or www.vfwstore.org.

When Writing Your Representatives Use This Form:

The Honorable Joe Smith
United States House of Representatives (or Senate)
123 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515 (or 20510)

Dear Representative Smith: (or Dear Senator Smith:)

Working with Congressional Staff

When you contact a legislator's office, you will most frequently be working with their staff. Convincing the staff to support our legislative priorities is often as, if not more, important as convincing your legislators themselves. Working and developing a personal relationship with the staff member is the key to accomplishing great things in Washington.

We're Here to Help

As always, we're happy to help you with whatever you need. If you have questions, need information, or need any assistance, just contact us. We'll help you in any way we can. You can call the Action Corps at 202.608.8362 or email us at vfwac@vfw.org.

National Veterans Service

Philosophy

The founding principle of the VFW is to ensure the provision of needed services to veterans by a grateful nation. For more than a century our organization has worked tirelessly to ensure that veterans are provided all the health care and benefits they have earned through their service and sacrifice in defense of our nation in a prompt and compassionate manner by the Department of Veterans Affairs and other federal departments and agencies.

The contents of this section are organized as follows:

 - B. VFW Community Health Care Volunteer Program

VA Health Care

You may have the opportunity to attend high-level briefings or meetings with VA network or hospital directors and their staff during your year as Commander. We are available to help. At your request, NVS Health Team members are prepared to brief you directly about VA health care issues or provide written issue summaries that meet your needs. We can also prepare a list of customized questions for you if you know what topics will be discussed. Questions pertaining to the VFW position on VA health care issues or questions pertaining to a problem or other matters at a VA medical facility should be addressed to James Moss, Assistant Director, Veterans Health Policy, at 202.608.8371 or via email at jmoss@vfw.org.

VA Benefits Delivery

The VFW is dedicated to assisting veterans, their dependents, family members and survivors at the community and national level to ensure that our nation never forgets the sacrifices made by its citizen soldiers. The VFW has played a major role in every legislative measure to establish veterans’ benefits which have been enacted into law in the last century and that continues today with landmark legislation like the PACT Act, GI Bill adjustments and others. However, the most tangible way in which we demonstrate this commitment to service is through the daily efforts of your Department Service Officers (DSO).

A. Department Service Officers: A VFW DSO is located either in or near every VA regional office or other VA property. In many departments, Assistant DSOs and Claims Consultants are found at VA medical centers and other out-based locations. These dedicated individuals are VFW-certified and VA- accredited to ensure veterans, their families and survivors receive FREE, professional representation in the submission of VA claims and appeals. These highly trained individuals stand ready and willing to provide whatever assistance is required. Those in leadership positions are encouraged to meet with their Department Service Officer to demonstrate interest and support. Get to know what the DSO does for you. More importantly, get to know what they do for others. Spend time in their offices and observe the first-class services they provide. The National Veterans Service provides support through a comprehensive training program and a communication system that enables the DSOs to provide world-class assistance and representation to those who place their trust in them.

Department Service Officers and their staff assist any veteran or eligible family member or survivor who seeks help, regardless of whether they are members of the VFW or not and always FREE of cost. Consequently, DSOs are often the first contact veterans have with our great organization. Once a DSO has provided a veteran with assistance in applying for VA benefits and entitlements, they should consider asking the veteran to join and provide the individual with the benefits of membership in the VFW.

(Actively soliciting VFW membership in a VA building is not permitted. However, we will work with your DSO to provide acceptable methods for obtaining consent from veterans to allow for membership recruitment.)

While many service officers are remarkably busy, there may be opportunities to conduct focused outreach to their local military installations, Guard and Reserve units, colleges and universities, community organizations, civic or religious groups, etc., to ensure that they are aware of the benefits and services to which they are entitled. Outreach enhances the Department Service Officer's recruiting efforts.

The DSO is further supported by a cadre of National Veterans Service (NVS) staff at the VA Board of Veterans Appeals (BVA) who assist in representing individual veterans and other claimants who appeal their VA rating decisions.

NVS has an Assistant Director of Quality Assurance and Training, a Special Assistant and two Regional Quality Assurance Specialists responsible for training, technical support, and mentorship for your DSOs. Their primary responsibility is to review VFW service office operations and best practices regularly, to assist new service officers in the weeks or months before they come to NVS training, and to help resolve issues at the Regional Office (local) level. The ultimate goal of these positions is to ensure VFW is providing quality claims representation in all aspects of the claims process by supporting the needs of your DSOs and staff. The Quality Assurance team visits Department Service Offices to review service office operations, provide technical training and mentorship, and both share and gather best practices. Department leaders should contact the Director, NVS, to arrange for a service office site visit.

The John A. Biedrzycki Accredited Service Representative of the Year, established in 2015, is designed to provide annual VFW National recognition to an individual accredited by VA to represent claimants on behalf of the VFW before the Department of Veterans Affairs, to include VFW-accredited employees of State and County veterans' agencies. Guidelines for this award can be found at the end of this section.

B. VFW “Guide for Post Service Officers”: Every VFW member involved in service work, at all levels from Post through Department, should have the latest edition of the VFW “Guide for Post Service Officers.” This handbook is published electronically on the NVS web page, www.vfw.org/nvs, and comprehensively summarizes veteran's benefits and entitlement programs provided by the Department of Veterans Affairs and other federal agencies. It is a handy reference useful in assisting and informing veterans of their entitlements under existing law. Questions pertaining to VA benefits should be directed to Mike Figlioli, Director, National Veterans Service, at 202.608.8373 or via email at mfiglioli@vfw.org.

C. VFW Pre-Discharge Claims Program: The VFW plays a critical role in the military's Transition Assistance Program (TAP) alongside our partners in the Departments of Defense, Labor, and Veterans Affairs. TAP is designed to ensure that separating service members – to include members of the Guard and Reserve – and their families receive information and assistance in qualifying for and obtaining VA benefits, VA health care, education, and post-military employment. The VFW's cadre of highly trained National Pre-Discharge Claims Representatives offers personal counseling and assistance to service members to submit complete VA claims prior to separation from active duty.

We consistently update the skills of our Pre-Discharge Claims Representatives by providing more than 80 hours of training each year and giving special attention to emerging issues like post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), traumatic brain injuries (TBI), military sexual trauma, and toxic exposure. Our presence on military installations continues to be well received as indicated by our BDD Client Satisfaction Survey, through which more than 99 percent of the VFW's Pre-Discharge clients report that they would recommend the VFW to a fellow service member. As a result, we have become the service organization of choice by officers and enlisted at the military facilities we cover. It is our goal to increase interest in membership by demonstrating excellence in service work. Currently, NVS has 24 National Pre-Discharge staff located at:

Marine Corps Base Camp Pendleton, CA	Ft. Liberty, NC (formerly known as Ft. Bragg)
Naval Base San Diego, CA	Ft. Bliss, TX
Ft. Carson, CO	Ft. Cavazos, TX (formerly known as Ft. Hood)
Ft. Stewart, GA	VA Regional Office, Salt Lake City, UT
Ft. Riley, KS	Ft. Belvoir, VA
Ft. Campbell, KY	Joint Base Meyer-Henderson Hall, VA
Joint Base Andrews, MD	Marine Corps Base Quantico, VA
Walter Reed National Military Medical Center, Bethesda, MD	Joint Base Lewis-McChord, WA
Nellis AFB, NV	Joint Base Anacostia-Bolling, Washington, DC
Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune, NC	Ft. Drum, NY
VA Regional Office, Winston-Salem, NC	Naval Station Norfolk, VA
NSA Washington DC	NSA Annapolis, MD
Pentagon, VA (Upon Request)	VFW Washington Office (National Capitol Region)

Additional information on the Pre-Discharge program can be found at www.vfw.org/pre-discharge. Questions regarding our participation in the Pre-Discharge program should be directed to Gregg Orto, Deputy Director, at 202.608.8375 or via email at gorto@vfw.org.

D. VFW Training: The National Veterans Service focuses on expanding training initiatives and assessing the true quality and level of skill of VFW accredited service officers. We are responsible for the design and delivery of all training to VFW- accredited representatives who are assigned to a VA regional office or other VA facility. We also perform quality assurance by interacting with your Department Service Office staff and offering advice on more complicated claims issues. NVS periodically reviews the quality of the VA regional office decisions and the level of advocacy provided by VFW. A system has been put in place to evaluate and validate the skill level and quality of advocacy for VFW accredited service officers. Testing is a vital element in that system.

VFW-accredited Department Service Officers are required to attend NVS training as prescribed in the NVS Policy and Procedure. All other VFW-accredited staff assigned to a VA regional office are required to attend at least once annually. To ensure that training is effective, we test all students at the conclusion of training. You will be notified of your service office staff's test scores. We maintain a database of all scores so that we can determine an average grade. This is used to determine progress and/or difficulty in understanding the work. This is vital information we use in the mandatory five-year reaccreditation process. Our commitment to professionalism and quality has produced a higher standard of quality in the work of your service offices.

To enhance our training resources, VFW has partnered with PsychArmor, Inc. to deploy an online learning platform for VFW's accredited service officers. Each of your DSOs and other accredited department staff has a seat assigned on the learning platform. NVS also extends seats on the platform to cross-accredited County Service Officers and State Service Officers so that we can reach more VFW-accredited representatives around the country with the training and resources they need to effectively assist veterans and their loved ones.

Questions regarding NVS training and quality assurance should be directed to Christopher Macinkowicz, Assistant Director, Training & Quality Assurance, at 202.608.8360 or via email at cmacinkowicz@vfw.org.

Post/District Service Officers

VA is making extensive outreach efforts to veterans. Indeed, veterans can now file a claim for disability compensation directly from their home through the Internet. As a result, it is not unusual for veterans to visit local VFW posts asking for information on veteran's benefits from anyone at the post. That "anyone," of course, should be the Post Service Officer (PSO).

The Post Service Officer is integral to our mission of veterans' representation. Indicative of this is the mandate in the National Veterans Service Policy and Procedure that Department Service Officers must provide at least one annual training session for the PSOs in the Department. The "Guide for Post Service Officers" is focused toward educating and providing a handy reference for the Post Service Officer. PSOs should always make a report at every official Post meeting. Department Service Officers should report to their supervisor or Department service committee and the National Veterans Service (NVS) when Post Service Officer training is completed.

It is important to note that VFW Post and District Service Officers are not accredited by the VA. Consequently, their ability to assist veterans and other claimants prepare claims for submission to VA is limited. Post/District Service Officers should be familiar with the basics of the compensation (for service-connected disabilities) and pension (for non-service-connected disabilities) program, as well as understanding VA letters and correspondence. PSOs should be the conveners in the Post, capable of linking veterans in our communities with quality, verified resources that will meet their needs. Primarily, PSOs should know your accredited Department Service Officers and the ways in which veterans can receive assistance.

However, the PSO should not assist veterans in filling out forms except in extreme circumstances and at the explicit request of the veteran. In this capacity, the PSO is not a claims preparer but rather someone who merely assists in recording information provided by the claimant. The application should be immediately returned to the veteran to submit through proper channels such as the DSO or a VFW-accredited state or county service officer or direct transmittal to the VA. Under no circumstances should a PSO retain any veteran's personal information for any length of time, as this is a violation of the law. Further, under no circumstances should the PSO provide any personally identifiable information concerning a claimant to any member of the VFW who is not a VFW accredited service officer (e.g., DSO, Assistant DSO or Claims Consultant). As a preferred practice, many Departments have implemented formal PSO referrals, allowing PSOs to record certain demographic information about veterans seeking claims assistance, which is then formally transmitted to the accredited DSO for appropriate follow-up.

Over the years, NVS has sought ways to make Post Service Officer training more accessible, to include hosting virtual Post Service Officer training and adding a Post Service Officer training seminar to the VFW National Convention.

VA Voluntary Service (VAVS) and Community Health Care Volunteer Programs

The VFW conducts a multifaceted volunteer program which includes the Department of Veterans Affairs VAVS Program and our Community Health Care Volunteer Program. Our network of more than 2,406 regularly scheduled and 4,879 Occasional VFW VAVS volunteers provides more than 238,200 hours of service each year to our nation's veterans in federal, state and community hospitals and nursing homes.

A. Department of Veterans Affairs Voluntary Service Program (VAVS): The VAVS program is locally managed by the VFW VAVS Representative who is appointed by the Department Commander for each VA health care facility in your state. They are the cornerstone of our organization's efforts to serve our nation's hospitalized veterans.

Volunteer services are recognized in the form of certificates and/or lapel pins presented to those who have completed the number of hours prescribed for such awards (see the VFW Volunteer Program manual for further details). VFW members who want to volunteer at a VA health care facility should contact the Department Chairperson, local VFW Representative or VA Volunteer Service Program Manager at the VA health care facility of their choice.

VA has an extensive network of Community Based Outpatient Clinics (CBOC's). Members interested in volunteering at their local CBOC should contact the VAVS Program Manager at the VA hospital which manages the local CBOC.

The VAVS program is not only a critical link for the VFW to what happens at our medical centers across the country, but also an excellent opportunity to allow veterans to see first-hand what VA offers to the veterans' community.

We urge Department Commanders and their leadership team to encourage their members to recruit new volunteers, and we are developing resources on the VFW national website to better promote the program, such as our web page located at www.vfw.org/VolunteerService.

A volunteer can be nominated for the VAVS National Advisory Committee (NAC) Volunteer of the Year Award. This award recognizes volunteers who have given extraordinary service to our nation's veterans. Two award recipients, one male and one female, are selected each year by the Executive Committee of the VA Voluntary Service National Advisory Committee.

Questions and appointments pertaining to the VAVS program should be addressed to James Moss, Assistant Director, Veterans Health Policy, at 202.608.8371 or via email at jmoss@vfw.org.

B. VFW Community Health Care Volunteer Program: This program was designed to provide recognition and awards to VFW members who volunteer their time at state, military, or community-based medical care facilities but who are not on official VAVS assignments.

The local coordinator of this program, the Post Hospital Chairman, is responsible for the recruitment and placement of volunteers, maintaining records of hours served by each post volunteer and requesting awards from the Director, NVS, through the State Hospital Chairman. This program should not be confused with the VAVS volunteer program. For more information pertaining to awards, see your VFW Volunteer Program manual.

Questions pertaining to VAVS and Volunteer Programs should be directed to James Moss, Assistant Director, Veterans Health Policy, National Veterans Service, at 202.608.8371 or via email at jmoss@vfw.org.

GUIDELINES
DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS VAVS NATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE (NAC) VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

OBJECTIVE: The NAC Volunteer of the Year Award Program allows the NAC to honor members who have given extraordinary service to our Nation's veterans.

SELECTION CRITERIA: Nominees for this award must participate in established VAVS assignments, serve as a volunteer, and meet one of the following criteria:

- a. Volunteer with hospitalized veterans
- b. Volunteer with veterans at outpatient clinics
- c. Volunteer with veterans in nursing homes
- d. Volunteer with homeless veterans
- e. Volunteer with veterans and veterans groups in the community
- f. Host veterans' functions in the lodge, post, chapter, i.e., Memorial Day, July 4th and Veterans Day observances, etc. that qualify as a VAVS assignment
- g. Host veterans' functions outside the lodge, post, chapter, i.e., fishing trips, day at the races, sporting events, etc. that qualify as a VAVS assignment
- h. Visit veterans confined to their homes as a VAVS assignment
- i. Adopt-A-Veteran

Those eligible for the award are: NAC member organizations (such as the VFW) with emphasis on VAVS Representatives, Deputy Representatives, members who visit the VA medical centers, nursing homes, etc., or work at the lodge, post, or chapter veterans' functions either within or outside the lodge, post or chapter.

Nominees must participate in established VAVS assignments and serve as a regularly scheduled volunteer. There will be two recipients per year; one male and one female.

Nominations must be submitted in narrative format with name and NAC organization in the upper left-hand corner.

The narrative is not to exceed 500 words and must be submitted to the Director, National Veterans Service by November 30 of each year. VA staff making recommendations for this award must send the nomination for preliminary judging to the National Representative of the organization to which the nominee is a member. Failure to do so will invalidate the nomination.

The selection committee, with the assistance of the Executive Committee, will select the winners. The awards will be presented at the annual meeting of the NAC.

The male and female winner of the NAC Volunteer of the Year Award each receive an all-expense paid trip to the Annual VAVS National Advisory Committee meeting where they will be given an award.

GUIDELINES
VFW JOHN A. BIEDRZYCKI ACCREDITED SERVICE

WHO WE ARE

The Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Foundation is the official 501(c)(3) charity of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States. The VFW Foundation was established in 1996 to assist in securing financial resources for VFW programs and services. Through strategic relationships with corporations, private foundations, and individual supporters, the VFW Foundation helps fill in governmental assistance gaps for U.S. service personnel, veterans, and military families.

OUR MISSION

The mission of the VFW Foundation is to serve military veterans, service members and their families by securing resources for programs that facilitate enhanced life outcomes—Now and for Generations to Come!

OUR VISION

The vision of the VFW Foundation is to create a positive impact on America's military veterans, service members and their families by addressing their unique needs.

WHO WE HELP

U.S. service personnel, veterans and military families have often personally sacrificed so much for us all. Thus, it is only right that we, in turn, provide for their urgent financial, physical, and emotional needs.

WHAT WE DO

The VFW Foundation secures donations in support of the Veterans of Foreign Wars through the generosity of corporations, foundations and individuals who care passionately about giving back to those who have given so much for so many. Resources are secured through a variety of fundraising activities and assist with VFW national programs and services such as Unmet Needs, National Veterans Service, the Sport Clips "Help A Hero" scholarship program, and Voice of Democracy scholarships. The VFW Foundation also assists VFW Posts and Departments in their local fundraising endeavors and provides grants to advance their community service efforts. The VFW Foundation's fundraising activities include:

- Corporate relationships, partnerships, matching gifts, and cause-marketing agreements
- Corporate sponsorships for the annual VFW National Convention
- Grants from corporations and foundations
- Employee giving campaigns such as United Way, Combined Federal Campaign, etc.
- Individual gifts including major gifts, planned gifts, memorial gifts, vehicle donations, donor advised gifts, etc.
- In-kind gifts of products
- Fundraisers & Special Events

VFW FOUNDATION

VFW Foundation Grant Opportunities

For over 120 years, VFW Posts have been pillars of support in their communities. From building local playgrounds and organizing clothing drives, to military support events and disaster relief efforts, we take great pride in our long history of service.

VFW community service projects continue to make a significant impact on local communities. In an effort to support VFW Posts and Auxiliaries in these endeavors, the VFW Foundation frequently offers grant opportunities each fall. Typically, these grants award anywhere from $1,000-$1,500 in support of community-based projects. Information about current or upcoming VFW Foundation grant programs can always be found at www.vfw.org/grants.

Upon applying for any grant, a VFW or Auxiliary can expect to wait no longer than six (30) days for a decision notification from the VFW Foundation. If the request is approved, it may take up to six (6) weeks for the award funding to hit the Post's bank account. The timeline for review and payment is dependent on the workload of the Foundation staff, and applicants often times receive funding in less than two weeks of submitting an application.

While each of these grants has its own unique guidelines, there are some minimum requirements a Post or Auxiliary must meet to be eligible to apply.

To be eligible to receive a grant your Post must:

- Have a completed election report on file at VFW National Headquarters
- Not owe any outstanding grant reports to the VFW Foundation
- Not be on suspension or in financial arrears
- Have a qualifying project

Sometimes, grants require that you work with one of our eligible partners listed at: <https://www.vfw.org/grants-supporters>

FUNDRAISING IDEAS FOR VFW POSTS

Below are some ideas that might be beneficial to help your Post increase fundraising activities.

- Your first task is to decide what you need funding for and how much is needed. Is funding required for building improvement, handicapped accessible ramps, programs, etc.? Do you need $5,000 or $50,000? If it's a building project, you might want to get "free" construction estimates from contractors so as to have a "ballpark" idea of costs. Also, especially if you are expanding or changing the footprint of your building, you will want to check with your city/county to make sure that this is allowable.
- Unfortunately, there are few if any federal grants that are applicable to VFW Posts. Even if there were federal grants, the application process would most usually be overwhelming and entirely too complicated. Federal grant money is also closely monitored which might require the hiring of a full-time staff member just for compliance. Thus, we strongly advise that you do not consider federal grants as a fundraising option.
- Some states provide assistance to veterans groups so check with your local elected state representatives. There might be funds for building improvement, "green" technology or energy saving innovations applicable to your building, etc.
- Keep track of how other Posts in your state have successfully raised money. Imitation can often be a good thing.

Now:

- (1) Where is your Post located? Is it in a rural or urban area? If urban or near a larger city, go to your local Chamber of Commerce, local community foundation or even your library (Reference Librarian) to get a free list of the largest nongovernmental employers/companies in your county. With this you can create a potential donor list.
- (2) Think of the companies that the Post already has a relationship with such as private utility companies (gas, electric, water, cable TV, etc). Does the Post have a canteen? If so what about the beverage distributor? What about your bank that holds the Post's funds? Ask for a donation from all of these companies. You might only get $50 but some Posts have actually received donations of $5,000 or more.
- (3) A bank is also a good place to speak to an individual called a Trust Officer. He/She might handle foundation money. For instance, if someone died in your community back in the 1950s or 1960s in the provisions of their will they could have set up a local foundation. Perhaps, they appointed family members (spouse, children, sibling, etc.) to the foundation Board. Now, those individuals might have passed as well. The money then is typically managed by a bank (through a Trust Officer). Sometimes the money is managed by a law or accounting firm but again it's usually a bank. And that Trust Officer is almost always the decision maker each year on what nonprofit organizations get that money. Trust Officers are more common at banks in urban areas especially at the main bank headquarters (not a branch).

(4) Use your Post members as a resource. Perhaps, they know individuals with financial resources or persons who hold high positions in local companies who might consider donations. These might be neighbors, friends, other family members, people they go to church with, etc. Your Post members might be able to provide an introduction to the potential donor so that you can speak to them directly. Also, promote your Post to your members as an organization that can be designated in their wills.

(5) Are there any casinos within 50 miles of the Post? Contact regular and Native American casinos and ask to speak to a person who most usually has a title of "Public or Community Affairs Manager." Ask for a donation. Even though (non-Native American) casinos are usually directed by the state to give a certain portion of their earnings to specific community causes (especially education) they often donate to other groups as well.

(6) Assemble a one-page sheet (some Posts do a brochure) that lists all the activities that your Post does for its community. This insert can be included with any fundraising letter that you send out or something to bring with you when talking to a potential donor directly. The reality is that most people have no idea what a VFW Post does for its community. Thus, list all the activities such as:

- Does your Post send care packages to local troops in Afghanistan?
- Does your Post help out homeless vets?
- How about a food pantry or food distribution to the needy?
- Do Post members regularly visit the VA to see patients?
- Do you allow the use of your Post building to other community groups such as the Boy or Girl Scouts?
- Does your Post participate in Patriot's Pen or Voice of Democracy? If so, how much money have you given to local students over the past 10 years (the amount might surprise you!).

(7) OK, here is an issue that might come up. Most VFW Posts are classified by the Internal Revenue Service at 501(c)(19) not the more common 501(c)(3). A 501(c)(19) is still a nonprofit designation but it is specific to a “...group of past or present members of the American Armed Services” whereas a 501(c)(3) is simply “...a general nonprofit.” Regardless, a donor such as a company or individual, would almost always get the same tax benefit contributing to a 501(c)(19) as they would to a 501(c)(3). With that said, in most instances a corporation, foundation or individual only wants to donate to a 501(c)(3) as they are not familiar with the 501(c)(19) designation. If this is the case, we can usually still make a donation possible. The donor can make the grant/check out to the VFW Foundation. We highly advise that you call and consult us (phone number below) before running a gift through the Foundation so our staff can keep an eye out for it. Once the grant check is received, the Foundation will cash it and send your Post a check for 100% of the original gift!

Here are two points to emphasize to the donor (and once they understand this they usually will go ahead and make the donation).

1. 100% of their money with no administrative or other costs will return to the Post as the VFW Foundation does this as a service to VFW Posts/Departments;
2. The donor will receive a tax receipt not from your Post/Department but from the VFW Foundation which is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit. The VFW Foundation has a variety of pre-made letters for this purpose that we can send your Post.

So we can effectively track potential donations, please call us for further guidance before proceeding.

NOTE: The VFW Foundation cannot pass through government funds (federal, state, county or city). Moreover, each donation also must be in excess of $500.

(8) Here are two other important things that the VFW Foundation can also do for VFW Posts and Departments:

I. Provide a variety of fundraising template letters that you can edit and make specific to the needs of your Post/Department. These are in Microsoft Word format and can be emailed to you.

II. The Foundation has access to a national database that facilitates detailed research for all foundation gifts made in every single U.S. county (including yours). Depending on the size of the county (whether it's urban or rural) usually determines the amount of foundation activity. Thus, with that said a county for a large urban city such as Pittsburgh, PA, might have substantial foundation activity whereas a county in the middle of Kansas might have none. One never knows until it is researched in the database. When identifying potential foundation donors, information is sent to the Post/Department that will include the name, address, contact person, telephone #, etc. If a foundation is interested in possibly funding your Post/Department, they might send you an application to fill out. If so, contact the Foundation for assistance. By the way, getting grant money is entirely possible. For example, several Posts have received grants in excess of $25,000 with information provided. To receive this information, please send an email (address below) requesting research along with the name of the county and state your Post is located in.

We know it's often difficult to raise money these days. To succeed you will have to dedicate yourself to this cause and naturally expend a fair amount of effort. A wise man once said that nothing good ever happens by chance without commitment and determination. We are here to help so do not hesitate to contact us with your fundraising questions or concerns.

POLICY AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONDITIONAL DONATION OF MILITARY EQUIPMENT, CEREMONIAL RIFLES AND BLANK AMMUNITION TO VETERAN ORGANIZATIONS

MILITARY EQUIPMENT

Regulations, policies and procedures for obtaining blank ammunition, US Army owned ceremonial rifles and obsolete/condemned combat equipment for conditional donation are subject to change without notice. These programs are to be at no cost to the government even though posts may have to pay (or have paid) for handling, packaging/crating, shipping, limited demilitarization or release fees of items that are on “conditional loan” from the Department of the Army.

Be advised all requests for military equipment must first go through the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) National Headquarters in Kansas City, Missouri to verify the legitimacy of the post making the request.

The VFW National Headquarters is only authorized to handle requests from chartered VFW posts in good standing. Once verification has been made, the VFW National Headquarters sends requests to the appropriate agencies for processing. When requests are made to Congressional offices or other military departments, without the proper verification and endorsement, the acquisition process is significantly delayed. Separate letters must be sent for each type of equipment being requested. If both rifles and ammunition are needed, separate requests should be forwarded to the VFW National Headquarters as it is the mission of two different agencies, the US Army Joint Munitions Command in Rock Island, Illinois and the US Army Tank-Automotive and Armaments Command (TACOM), Detroit Arsenal, Michigan.

Requests are to be made on post letterhead (if available) and contain the following:

Post name and number

Address (not a PO Box number)

Telephone number

Email address

Post Commander, Adjutant or Quartermaster must sign request.

These requirements are set forth in the updated policies and procedures established by the U.S. Army. Any correspondence lacking any of these items will be returned to the post causing a delay in processing. Posts are reminded equipment donated by the Department of the Army, Army Donation Program Office (ADPO) to VFW posts remain the property of the U.S. Army. Transfer of any equipment obtained through the Ceremonial Rifle and Static Display Program is unauthorized without the written permission of the Army Donation Program Office (ADPO).

Posts receiving ceremonial rifles or a static display can expect periodic inspections to assure accuracy of information provided by each post, to include compliance with the terms outlined in the Conditional Deed of Gift, proper storage and handling of ceremonial rifles and maintenance of static display equipment. A Ceremonial Rifle Inventory form is to be submitted upon issuance and every three years thereafter. Static displays are to be reported via an Annual Certification form with a current photograph upon issuance and every year thereafter. It is recommended that certification of ceremonial rifles and static displays be completed via electronic certifications. Notifications from the ADPO system, with the appropriate link to certify the equipment, will be sent to the post’s email address when due. To complete the mandatory certifications electronically, each post should maintain current email addresses (two maximum) with the ADPO. Hard copy original certifications will continue to be accepted should the post experience technical difficulties.

For additional information and the respective forms, please visit the Army Donations Program Office (ADPO) website at <https://www.tacom.army.mil/ilsc/donations>.

BLANK AMMUNITION

Orders for ceremonial rifle ammunition may be submitted directly to the US Army Joint Munition Command (JMC) by visiting <https://www.jmc.army.mil/ceremonialammo.aspx>. Complete the order forms located at the bottom of the page and email to JMC at usarmy.ria.jmc.mbx.carg@army.mil. Forms may also be mailed to: U.S. Army Joint Munitions Command, ATTN: AMJM-MLD, 2695 Rodman Ave., Rock Island, IL 61299-6000. Please allow 6-8 weeks for delivery after Rock Island receives and processes your order.

The .30 caliber blank ammunition (1,240 rounds) is sent in a metal can in a wooden box. Quantity is limited to two (2) boxes (2,480 rounds total) and is provided free with no shipping charges. Clips are also available and are issued in increments of 25 with a maximum of 100.

The blank ammunition is shipped via FEDEX Ground from Lake City Army Ammunition Plant, Independence, Missouri. Once a tentative shipment date is known, the recipient will receive a confirmation. Normal FEDEX Ground delivery is Monday thru Friday between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. It is preferred that the blank ammunition be shipped to an Officer's residence and not the post, as a signature of receipt is required. If delivery to the post is necessary, an Officer's signature is required. Delivery to the post will be addressed on a case-by-case basis with the US Army Joint Munitions Command.

Blank ammunition is authorized for use ONLY in conditionally issued US Army owned ceremonial rifles. Blank ammunition is not authorized to posts who receive rifles through any other source or personally owned. It is prohibited to use blank ammunition from any other source other than the US Army Joint Munitions Command, as it may cause harm or serious injury to the user and damage to the rifles.

For additional information please visit the Joint Munitions Command (JMC) website at <https://www.jmc.army.mil/ceremonialammo.aspx>.

NOTE: The US Army Joint Munitions Command will contact the ADPO to confirm that the respective post has qualified for US Army owned ceremonial rifles and that the post is up to date on all the mandatory reporting requirements.

RIFLES

Under the provisions of Public Law 1028, Title 10 United States Code (USC) 7683 (formerly 4683), the Secretary of the Army, under regulations prescribed, may conditionally lend or donate excess ceremonial rifles (not more than 15), slings, and cartridge belts to any eligible organization for use by that organization for funeral ceremonies of a member or former member of the U.S. Armed Forces, and for other ceremonial purposes. The Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) is only authorized to handle requests from chartered VFW posts in good standing. The Army Donations Program Office (ADPO) at the Detroit Arsenal in Michigan is responsible for the issuance and management of rifles for ceremonial use. Title 10 USC 7683 allows conditions to be imposed on the use of the rifles as may be necessary to ensure security, safety, and accountability. The Secretary of the Army may impose such other conditions as considered appropriate.

As per Public Law Title 10 USC 7683 (formerly 4683), an organization is allowed to have a total of 15 rifles through the Ceremonial Rifle Program. However, the number of rifles may not exceed the number of Honor Guard Members plus one. Any rifles in excess of this amount are required to be returned to the US Army to comply with federal law. If this situation exists, the VFW post is required to request disposition instructions from the ADPO. Specific return instructions will be provided to the respective VFW post, as weapons are returned to the Depot in Alabama and not the ADPO. Ceremonial rifles or blank ammunition will not be conditionally issued to a post unless they are in good standing and compliant.

A VFW post wishing to obtain rifles for ceremonial use should forward their request through the VFW National Headquarters. Address the request to the Adjutant General, VFW National HQ, 406 W. 34th St., Kansas City, MO 64111 or email tammieg@vfw.org. The request should be on post letterhead (if available) with a street address (not a PO Box number), contact person with telephone number, email address and the number of active organization members. It should be signed by the Post Commander, Adjutant or Quartermaster. State the number of rifles desired up to a maximum of 15. The request is endorsed by National Headquarters stating the post's charter date, validation of good standing, verification of Officer's and forwarded to the U.S. Army TACOM, 6501 East 11 Mile Road, ATTN: AMTA-LCB-FA, MS:419D, Detroit Arsenal, MI 48397-5000 for processing. The request and endorsement are acceptable electronically to their general email address of: usarmy.detroit.tacom.mbx.ilsc-donations@army.mil. The ADPO may be reached by calling (586) 282-9861. Please leave a clear, detailed message with your name, post number, city, state with a brief description of how we can assist you. Due to the high volume of inquiries, allow 30 days for a response.

Once the ADPO receives the endorsed request, forwarded by the VFW National Headquarters, processing will begin and an eligibility package will be sent to the respective post. The package will include the checklist and forms required for completion by the Post Commander, Adjutant or Quartermaster. Forms are to be returned electronically or originals can be sent to the ADPO. Presently it takes approximately ninety days for rifles to be shipped after receipt of the eligibility requirements from the post.

Currently, M1 Garand rifles are available for ceremonial use on a conditional basis. These rifles are shipped from the Civilian Marksmanship Program in Alabama. Normal Overnight FEDEX Ground delivery will be Monday through Friday between 9:00 am and 5:00 pm. Ceremonial rifles remain the property of the United States Government. The rifles cannot be loaned, sold, transferred, or given to anyone else without the written approval of the ADPO. If for any reason the post no longer requires the use of the conditionally loaned rifles, they shall submit a written or email request to U.S. ARMY TANK-AUTOMOTIVE AND ARMAMENTS COMMAND, 6501 East 11 Mile Road, Attn: AMTA-LCB-FA, MS:419D, Detroit Arsenal, MI 48397-5000 or usarmy.detroit.tacom.mbx.ilsc-donations@army.mil. NEVER return any weapons to TACOM ADPO.

Upon notification from the post, the ADPO will request boxes and prepaid shipping labels to assist with the return of rifles. After the rifles are returned, the return receipt shall be provided to the ADPO for validation of the return. Upon request, the ADPO will send a letter or email to absolve the post of the responsibility/accountability for the returned rifles. All blank ammunition must be removed from rifles prior to returning.

If rifles are no longer in possession of the post, it is a requirement to report to the ADPO what happened to each rifle. A signed, notarized statement by the Commander describing the circumstances surrounding the loss and the action(s) taken to recover the rifle(s) or a police/fire report is required. Upon review by the ADPO, a determination will be made as to the liability for the missing/lost/stolen rifles. The post will be notified if reimbursement costs are required. An inventory is a mandatory requirement upon issuance, every three years, or upon request. The ADPO has moved towards a digitalized process where online certification and documentation are acceptable electronically. Notifications are sent via email with the appropriate link to certify for the US Army owned equipment. Care and maintenance of the conditionally loaned rifles is the responsibility of the post.

Slings are not provided through the ADPO. The post may order them from commercial resources. Two known sources are: Amherst Arms or Fulton Armory. Contact Amherst-Arms at 941-475-2020 or www.amherst-depot.com or Fulton Armory at 301-490-9485 or www.fulton-armory.com. The Army does not endorse any specific commercial source for rifle accoutrements.

STORAGE AND SECURITY OF CEREMONIAL RIFLES

Storage of the loaned ceremonial rifles is at the discretion of the post, as long as they comply with local/state/federal regulations. Organizations are to provide the storage location of the weapons by submitting a Certificate of Arms Storage form. If the location changes a new form must be resubmitted to the Army Donations Program Office (ADPO). This form must be completed and signed by the Commander, Adjutant or Quartermaster. This requirement can be sent electronically via email to the ADPO mailbox: usarmy.detroit.tacom.mbx.ilsc-donations@army.mil.

DAMAGED OR UNSERVICEABLE M1 RIFLES

If a ceremonial rifle is no longer functioning, the post is required to send the following information to the Army Donations Program Office (ADPO): Model, manufacturer, serial number with a description of the problem(s) with the rifle. This requirement can be sent electronically via email to the ADPO mailbox: usarmy.detroit.tacom.mbx.ilsc-donations@army.mil. Please note that rifles are not replaced for cosmetic reasons.

POLICY AND PROCEDURE FOR ACQUISITION OF COMBAT EQUIPMENT FOR DISPLAY AND MONUMENTAL PURPOSES

The Army Donations Program Office (ADPO) may also conditionally provide obsolete or condemned Army combat equipment under the provisions of Public Law 100-456, Title 10 United States Code 2572. Equipment is for use as a static display only and not in working condition. The program does not have jeeps or vans for driving. Jeeps are no longer available to the public.

Requests for tanks, field artillery pieces, mortars, etc., should be directed to the Adjutant General, VFW National Headquarters, 406 W. 34th St., Kansas City, MO 64111 or email tammieg@vfw.org. This headquarters is only authorized to process requests from VFW posts. Requests are to be made on post letterhead (if available) and contain the following: post name and number, address (not a P.O. Box number), email address, name of contact person with telephone number and number of active organization members in the post. All requests must be signed by the Post Commander, Adjutant or Quartermaster.

Conditional donations of US Army obsolete, condemned combat equipment for static display are made at no expense to the government. The costs for display site construction, limited demilitarization and removal of radiological material (if applicable), release and transportation costs, must be paid by the requesting organization. (Do not prepare a pad until notified in writing by the ADPO.) Once the VFW National Headquarters receives the request for a static display, they will forward their endorsement indicating the post's charter date, validation of good standing and verification of Officer's to the ADPO at US Army TACOM, Detroit Arsenal, Michigan. The VFW National Headquarters does not have any forms or information as to what is available. Once the ADPO receives the endorsement and static request, an eligibility package will be sent to the respective post. The post will review all rules, regulations, requirements, and can make a final decision if the equipment is still desired. Unfortunately, at this time, Army equipment is not readily obtainable for use as a conditional donation for static display. It is recommended that a post submit the initial eligibility requirements to the ADPO to remain in an open status for a period of three years. If an asset does not become available within three years, the static request will be cancelled. If the post is still interested in maintaining the static request, the post must notify the ADPO in writing or via email requesting a three-year extension along with any other changes to the original request. The post may also contact the ADPO and verbally extend their original request.

The post has the responsibility to maintain and display the US Army asset in such a way that honors and upholds the image of the United States, our military forces, and veterans. The post will be responsible for all costs associated with equipment acquisition and will have sole responsibility for the maintenance of the equipment, and the display site area at all times. Mandatory reporting of a static display is due every year with a current photograph which can be completed via online certification with an uploaded photograph or an original certification form with a photograph. In the event that the post no longer requires the static display equipment, the post is required to contact the ADPO for turn-in procedures. Posts are not authorized to loan, sell, transfer, move, abandon, or give the asset to any other individual or organization as it remains US Army property.

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

1) It is not necessary to notify TACOM when transferring rifles to another Post.

True
 False

2) How often is it required to turn in the Ceremonial Rifle Inventory to TACOM?

- A. Every year from date of issue
- B. Every ten years from date of issue
- C. Every three years from date of issue
- D. It is not necessary to send an inventory list

3) How much blank ammunition is distributed?

- A. As much as you need
- B. Six boxes
- C. Twelve boxes
- D. Two boxes

4) Clips are also available through the Joint Munitions Command.

True
 False

5) I can order military jeeps and/or vans to drive in parades.

True
 False

6) Blank ammunition can be ordered for personal rifles.

True
 False

7) What is the procedure if the rifles are no longer in the possession of the Post?

- A. There is no procedure
- B. Contact the police/or fire dept. if required
- C. Contact TACOM
- D. B and C

ANSWER KEY

- 1) False - Ceremonial rifles remain the property of the United States Government. The rifles cannot be loaned, sold, transferred or given to anyone else without the written approval of the Army Donations Program office.
- 2) C – A triennial certification of ceremonial rifles is due every three years to TACOM from the date the rifles are issued. TACOM will provide the form(s) with instruction at the time of issuance. Failure to update this form every three years can delay blank ammunition requests. The same procedure applies to Posts reporting static display equipment only the form/certification and photograph is due every year.
- 3) D - .30 blank ammo (1,240 rounds) is sent in 2 metal cans in a wooden box with no shipping charges.
- 4) True - Clips are issued in multiples of 25 (100 is the maximum).
- 5) False - Equipment is for static display only and not in working condition. Jeeps are no longer available to the public.
- 6) False - Blank ammunition is authorized for use in the United States Army issued ceremonial weapons only.
- 7) D - If rifles are stolen or in a fire, get a report from the police/fire department and forward to TACOM with a notarized statement signed by the Commander describing the circumstances surrounding their loss. If rifles are lost, send the notarized statement signed by the Commander only.

PREPARING A PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE NATIONAL BYLAWS, MANUAL OF PROCEDURE OR RITUAL

Bylaws: Any member in good standing, a Post, a District, or a Department, may propose an amendment to the National Bylaws; provided, however, before consideration at the National Convention, the proposed amendment must be approved by a Department Convention. Immediately following a Department Convention, the proposed amendment(s) must be forwarded to National Headquarters.

Manual of Procedure and Ritual: Any Post, District, or Department may propose an amendment to the Manual of Procedure or Ritual; provided, however, before consideration at the National Convention, the proposed amendment must have been forwarded, through channels and have been properly approved.

In order to meet National Bylaw/Manual of Procedure Article XIV requirements, to provide fifteen (15) day notice to all Posts of all amendments, the Adjutant General requests all amendments be forwarded to National Headquarters no later than two (2) working days following the close of the Department Convention.

Bylaw, Manual of Procedure or Ritual changes not in proper form, unclear as to meaning, or concerning matters clearly not within the scope and purpose of the Veterans of Foreign Wars cannot be considered by the National Convention.

A proposed change to the National Bylaws, Manual of Procedure or Ritual must be submitted as such, not as a resolution. Proposed amendments must be definite and specific as to the verbiage to be deleted or added. Use of the most recent amended copy of the National Bylaws, Manual of Procedure and Ritual is encouraged, as proposed changes considered by Convention delegates cannot be amended on the floor.

EXAMPLE 1

Proposed Amendment to National Bylaws proposed by Department of _____.
Section 202 – Bylaws.

Amend Section 202, National Bylaws, by deleting the words “two-thirds (2/3)” in the first sentence of paragraph one, and inserting, in lieu thereof, the following:

EXAMPLE 2

Proposed Amendment to National Manual of Procedure proposed by Department of _____.
Section 518 – Officers: Duties and Obligations.

Amend Section 518, Manual of Procedure, by deleting paragraph (a) (1) d. in its entirety and inserting, in lieu thereof, the following:
“Plan and organize all social functions.”

EXAMPLE 3

Proposed Amendment to National Ritual proposed by Department of _____.

Amend the Ritual by deleting on page 48, in the last sentence of the Member’s Obligation, the words “and a citizen of our great republic.”

Further amend by placing a period after the word “comrade” in the same sentence.

If you require help composing a proposed change to the Bylaws, Manual of Procedure or Ritual, please contact Administrative Operations at National Headquarters for advice and assistance in properly preparing a proposed amendment to be voted upon by your department convention.

PREPARING A RESOLUTION TO BE CONSIDERED BY THE NATIONAL CONVENTION

The policy of the Veterans of Foreign Wars is established by resolutions adopted by the delegates attending Department and National Conventions. Most resolutions originate at the Post level and are passed through the District and Department before being acted upon at a National Convention. Many times, an otherwise worthy idea gets nowhere merely because it is not correctly presented.

A resolution contains two separate parts; a statement of the problem to be solved, and the proposed solution to the problem. The problem is outlined in the “WHEREAS” clauses, and the proposed solution is given in the “RESOLVED” section.

The “RESOLVED” section of a resolution should be complete in itself without depending on the “WHEREAS” clauses to give it meaning.

EXAMPLE

WHEREAS, the rising cost of living has created an intense hardship on those disabled veterans whose only income is a meager pension check; now, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that we petition Congress to enact legislation which would provide a substantial increase in non-service connected pension rates.

If a resolution deals with a local problem, it needs no action on a level higher than that of the Post. If the problem concerns an area larger than that served by the Post, it should, after Post approval, be presented before the District or County Council. All resolutions of statewide, regional or national concern must be acted upon by the Department Convention. Those resolutions approved by a Department Convention, which affect persons or matters outside the state boundaries, must be forwarded to the National Convention for final disposition.

When submitting a resolution to the Department Convention, a notation on the bottom should show the previous action taken, such as, approval by Post and, if applicable, by the District. A Post or District submitting a resolution to its Department Convention must follow guidelines established by the Department, which may require submitting the resolution to the Department Adjutant prior to the convening of the convention.

Resolutions not in proper form, with unclear meaning, or concerning matters clearly not within the scope and purpose of the Veterans of Foreign Wars cannot be considered by the National Convention.

Resolutions approved by a Department Convention, which affect matters outside state boundaries, must be forwarded by the Department Adjutant to the National Convention for final disposition. Approved resolutions should be sent to National Headquarters at the close of the Department Convention. The Adjutant General requests all resolutions be forwarded to National Headquarters no later than two (2) working days following the close of the Department Convention. A resolution disapproved by the Department Convention or not acted upon by the Department Convention will not be considered by the National Convention.

Resolutions may also be originated by Department officers or by the Department Convention itself and acted upon by the Department Convention. A National Officer may originate a resolution concerning National affairs and submit it directly to the National Convention without Department action. Likewise, a National Convention Committee may originate a resolution and present it for approval during the National Convention.

Policy set by the National Convention is binding upon all subordinate units of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. No Post or Department is permitted to take any individual action or espouse any cause contrary to the National Bylaws or to the actions of the National Convention except that it may propose changes in policy by the preparation of a resolution for consideration as outlined herein.

Introduction

Being a member of the VFW means being an agent of change.

But...

To be a leader within the VFW means connecting with those around you; inspiring them with a shared sense of mission; and through education and engagement, mobilizing them in order to accomplish a common goal. As Gen Stanley McChrystal put it,

“I was most reinforced by the understanding that where we were, the status quo was failing, and because it was failing I knew we had to change. But instead of trying to provide an exact path ahead, what I did was I tried to inform and engage the command by saying we have to move in this general direction- help me figure it out. As people did that, we refined the direction we were going, constantly shifting, and it made more people the agents of change.” (Leadership and Development Manual, vfw.org)

There is no one who can have a greater effect on the success or failure of the Posts in a District than the District Commander.

A successful District Commander is enthusiastic, dedicated, well-informed, available, and operates under the guise of 3 motivational elements [The puzzle of motivation, Dan Pink]:

1. Purpose: “A yearning to do what you do in service of something larger than yourself.” Motivate Posts and their Commanders by helping them define the VFW’s mission in their own words, and in doing so giving them ownership over their mission.
2. Autonomy: “The urge to direct our own lives.” Motivate Posts and their Commanders by giving them the ability and freedom to accomplish their mission in their own way.
3. Mastery: “The desire to get better and better at something that matters.” Motivate Posts and their Commanders by encouraging them to get better at accomplishing their mission with engaging and useful Schools of Instruction and educational training.

History of Districts

During the early years of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Posts were directly responsible to the National Organization. The first mention of a “Department” appears in the National Bylaws following the 1920 National Encampment (National Convention).

Districts appear to have come into existence in an evolutionary process, probably because of the need for an intermediate body between the Post and the Department. The first mention of “Districts” appears in the 1931 Bylaws which provided that District representatives on the Department Council of Administration be elected at the Department Encampment. Districts finally gained a section of their own in the Bylaws following the 1938 National Encampment but were denied any legislative or taxing power. It was only with the complete revision of Bylaws in 1948 that Districts gained full recognition under a special article devoted only to that subject. The Department holds Jurisdiction over Districts and determines its boundaries; however, the Commander-in-Chief issues District Charters.

Districts popularity probably stems from the flexibility of their boundaries to meet specific conditions, plus the fact that the National Bylaws grant them representation on the Department Council of Administration.

Districts have earned a very definite place in the VFW structure. Their size is such as to permit direct supervision of Posts within their jurisdiction. Not the least of their value is the pride, loyalty and comradeship developed among the Posts within their boundaries. Anyone who has attempted to re-district a Department knows of the fierce loyalties of a Post to its District.

Stay Educated and Informed

In order to be able to educate the Posts within the District you must utilize the resources available to stay educated and informed. The following list of VFW resources is not all encompassing, but it's a good start.

- Commander-In-Chief General Orders, National Headquarters Bulletin
- VFW.org and VFW Training and Support
 - The Training and Support section contains a wealth of knowledge and training materials to help you and assist you in Schools of Instruction.
- Department Training Programs
- Department Publications
- Department, District, and Post Bylaws
 - You should know the Department and District Bylaws, and be able to reference each Post's Bylaws within the District.
- VFW Podium Edition (Congressional Charter, Bylaws, Manual of Procedure, and Ritual)
 - The governing rules of our order. Advanced knowledge is imperative in answering questions and, when properly engaged, settling disputes.
- Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised (RONR)
 - Any procedural matter not covered in the National Bylaws and Manual of Procedure shall be governed by RONR. This manual will aid you in running meetings and, when properly engaged, settling disputes.
- VFW Magazine and National Publications (Checkpoint, Action Corps)

Duties and Obligations

The National Bylaws and Manual of Procedure address the duties and obligations of the District Commander, but in practice of course the District Commander has a great deal of responsibility beyond what is listed in the Manual of Procedure.

The District Commander who properly performs all the duties assigned to him/her is the busiest person in the VFW. In addition to representing their District on the Department Council of Administration, they are expected to maintain constant contact with their Posts, promote the programs of the VFW, help coordinate efforts of the Posts, create enthusiasm, mediate Post squabbles, instruct and advise Post Officers, assist struggling Posts, and organize new Posts. They must also plan and conduct District meetings, organize District functions, carry out membership drives, and keep the Department informed of what they are doing.

All this must be done without permanent office, without a paid staff and, in most cases, without an adequate allowance for expenses.

Only through proper planning and organization, through full use of your subordinate elected and appointed officers, and through a thorough understanding of the rules, regulations and programs of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, can you achieve the goals you have set for yourself as District Commander.

Appointments

Each of your appointments should be carefully considered and based on an individual's qualifications and ability to do the job. Of all of your appointments, the most important is your Adjutant, Chief of Staff, Inspector, and Service Officer.

Your wisdom in selecting an Adjutant can directly affect your accomplishments. His/Her value extends far beyond their ability to record the minutes of District meetings. The Adjutant can aid you with your correspondence, help you arrange your travels, advise you on procedures, plan and arrange your meetings and functions, and provide you with invaluable feedback when you need it.

A Chief of Staff should be a respected Past District or Department Officer with a sharp eye and keen judgement. You can't be everywhere at once, so it is important that you have an available Chief of Staff who can represent you and handle problems in a firm but professional manner.

Inspectors are more than data collectors, they are observers and educators. They are not enforcers, but informed guides who are good listeners and great teachers. An active and engaged Inspector can help you recognize Post issues and identify solutions.

District Service Officers should be well-versed in veteran's resources available in the District and impart that knowledge to Post Service Officers. The Department Service Officer is the only accredited Service Officer who has the training to help veterans file their claims; District and Post Service Officers exist to provide resource information and direct veterans with VA claims issues to the Department Service Officer.

You should appoint a Committee Chairman to match each Department Committee. Each District Chairman will be expected to work with the Department Chairman in the promotion and advancement of their particular activity. This should include, but is not necessarily limited to, "Buddy"® Poppy, Employment, Student Veteran Liaison, Community Activities, Legislative, Membership, National Home, and Youth Activities.

Preparing for District Meetings

Meetings serve a very useful purpose in creating enthusiasm, exchanging ideas, instructing Post Officers in their duties, and familiarizing members with the programs of the VFW.

To accomplish its purpose, a District meeting must be well planned and well carried out. The following reminders may help you in doing so:

1. Set the time, place and date at a previous District meeting. Posts wishing to host the meeting should be required to be present at the previous meeting to confirm their invitation and must be able to assure the members that proper facilities are available and that proper arrangements will be made.
2. If the Auxiliary meets at the same time, notify the President immediately of the decision.
3. Notify the Department Adjutant of your meeting schedule.
4. Notify, by letter, all District Officers and all Post Commanders of the time, place and date of the next meeting.
5. Make certain that District colors, the Bible, flag, gavel, etc. are present at the meeting.
6. Inform your officers of the part they are to play in the program.
7. Any invited guests should be informed of the time which will be allotted to them. Any guests who ask to appear must provide you in advance with an outline of their purpose in appearing.
8. If a Department representative is assigned, discuss their appearance in advance, and tell them what is expected.
9. Obtain all possible information concerning the progress of the Posts from Department Headquarters in advance.
10. Make up your meeting schedule in advance, making note of any particular business to come before the meeting. There is no reason why you cannot have someone primed to make necessary motions.
11. Be prepared to recognize the success of Posts or individuals performing to a higher standard.

Running a District Meeting

The order of business of a District Convention or meeting is outlined in Section 1003 of the National Manual of Procedure. This should be used as a guide but is flexible. You will probably have a Department representative who must be scheduled on the program and worked in somewhere. Don't make them wait until just before the closing ceremonies. You may want to take some action based upon their statements.

Open the meeting on time and keep it moving. If you open the meeting half an hour late, the members will be that much later at the next meeting. Don't let discussions get out of hand. If a matter is brought up which has no place in the meeting, cut off the discussion. Individual Post problems generally have no place on the District floor; these problems are best solved in a private setting rather than open to the opinions of the entire District.

Proper procedure in conducting a District meeting is essential. You are setting an example for the Posts and you cannot expect them to operate any better than you do yourself. Familiarize yourself with parliamentary procedure and with the Bylaws, Manual of Procedure and Ritual of the VFW. The appointment of a well-qualified member as a parliamentarian can help you, but remember that you are running the meeting.

Power & Authority

The National Bylaws charge the District Commander to “enforce strict observance of the laws and usages of this organization,” but this does not mean you should insert yourself into every Post squabble. It does mean you should watch, listen, and be aware of Post conflicts and ready to provide guidance when asked.

The District Commander should keep the Department Commander aware of matters concerning Posts within their jurisdiction. Quite often, the Department Commander will authorize the District Commander to take actions in his/her behalf. This should be done in writing by Special Order.

The District Commander cannot suspend the charter of a Post nor can he/she authorize the consolidation of a Post or the revocation of its charter. They can, however, make recommendations and should consult the Department Commander when such actions are contemplated.

Working with Posts

Personal contact with your Posts is crucial to keep Posts motivated, clear up misunderstandings, and build trust between Post and District Officers. As District Commander, you should know every Post Commander by their first name and they should be willing and able to come to you for feedback and advice.

A good way to establish contact is by organizing District events that encourage Posts to work with one another. Organizing District membership drives, stand downs, community service events, and fundraising efforts for District Programs are great ways to build camaraderie while displaying the VFW's value to the community.

There's no better way to show that you care like grabbing another District Officer and dropping in on a Post's event to lend a hand. Utilize District Officers, Chairmen, and Past Officers to help Posts with their own membership drives and programs as this encourages participation and helps create an active District.

Hold schools of instruction for Post Officers. If they don't come to the schools, bring the schools to them. Make sure the officers understand their duties and responsibilities. Once they know what they are to do and how to do it they will become more active. Encourage the Posts and their officers through activity, engagement, and a shared sense of mission.

Post Problems

Even active good Posts develop problems. Sometimes these are such that the Post itself cannot solve them without outside help. Factional disagreements can get out of hand and involve even those members who take no side with either group. A little diplomacy can work wonders, if it is applied before the breach becomes too wide.

Post inspections are the best means of finding out what is going on in a Post. Copies of inspection reports are being provided to District. When you receive your copy of the reports, study them carefully, check any discrepancy, and follow them up to be sure that corrective action has been taken where necessary.

“Post Inspections are on-site interviews between the Inspector and Post leadership where the Inspector acts as an advisor to ensure the Post is operating pursuant to the provisions of the VFW Bylaws and that the Post operates for the purposes defined in our congressional charter. By collecting data, assessing operations, and lending best practices, the Inspector acts as a diligent instructor who imparts knowledge and guidance of Post operations. After inspection, the Inspector brings their findings and recommendations to their Leadership’s attention in order to create a standard for the Post and to ensure a strong foundation for the future.” (Inspector Phase I Trainer Guide, vfw.org)

Such things as illegal operations of Clubs, issuance of social cards to non-members, gambling in Post Clubrooms, etc., are not to be tolerated. Report illegal activities when seen before they get out of hand.

After addressing any issue, it is important to submit a detailed report to your leadership for review. Make sure you follow-up with Post to ensure deficiencies have been addressed in a timely manner.

Post Development

You are in the best position of anyone to know where a new Post can be put in. Keep the Department informed of your intentions and your progress. Contact the Department or National Headquarters for materials.

Don’t hesitate to organize a new Post just because a Post in a neighboring area objects. The extra interest engendered by a new Post will help them, not hurt them.

The institution of a new Post should be as big an event in the District as a new baby in your own family. They Commanders of other Posts should be invited to bring a delegation to the institution. In some Districts, it is customary for each existing Post to present the new Post with a cash donation at the institution. What better way to welcome the new Post into the family?

Don't let a new Post die on the vine. Have someone at each meeting for at least the first six months. Encourage the Post to take an active part in District affairs and make it feel that it belongs. Support this effort even after you leave office and encourage other officers and Past Officers to do the same.

Department Council of Administration

The District Commander serves in a dual capacity. In addition to their other responsibilities, they serve as a member of the Department Council of Administration and, as such, is a high ranking officer of the Department. When they appear at a Post meeting they represent the Department as well as the District. They are expected to uphold the actions of the Department and promote its programs.

The Department Council of Administration is in charge of the working interests of the Department between Conventions. It sets the budget, fixes salaries of the Department employees, audits accounts and disposes of the property of defunct Posts. As a member of the Council, you have a responsibility to the entire Department, not just the District. It is extremely important, therefore, that you be full acquainted with all the workings of the Department – particularly its financial structure.

VFW Training & Support (vfw.org)

The Veterans of Foreign Wars prides itself on the many volunteers who strive to further the purpose of our organization: our success as an organization depends on members like you. It is important that the member Posts of every District take steps to become educated leaders. The first step in developing leaders within our organization is ensuring that training is being received down to the lowest level. VFW Training & Support behind the member login at vfw.org was created to provide resources for training and education. It is up to you not only to access these resources, but utilize them to help create educated leaders within each Post in the District.

13 Steps to Success

For most of us, becoming District Commander took years of preparation by moving up through the chairs of a Post and then the District while chairing certain Committees, but that doesn't mean once you assume District Commander you automatically know what to do.

As a good Commander you must:

1. Remember your role as a leader, mentor, educator, and promoter of the VFW's mission and its programs.

Remember that the future Department and National leaders are coming from your ranks. Conduct your affairs just as though you are educating and mentoring the next Commander-in-Chief.

2. Realize that each Post is different and will often have very different ways of accomplishing our mission; and your role in helping a Post is to provide it with the education and resources to solve its problems and realize its own success.
3. Stay educated and informed so you can educate the Posts within the District.
4. Appoint a Chairman for every VFW program based on their personality and their ability to do the job rather than because you like them.

Make sure each Chairman, like each Post, has the resources and motivation to be successful. A Chairman must know the program, be interested in it, promote it actively, and be able to sell it to others. If the Chairman isn't willing or isn't able to do the job, remove them and appoint a new one.

5. Use your District Officers and delegate responsibility. You can't do everything yourself, which is why it is important to ensure everyone on your team knows their role, is educated, and realizes they are vital to the team's success.
6. Keep in constant contact with each Posts through regular emails, bulletins, telephone calls, personal notes and visits.

Know every Post Commander by first name and familiarize yourself with their interests and backgrounds. Make certain that Posts conduct regular audits, hold regular meetings, conduct membership drives, order and distribute Buddy Poppies, and carry out the VFW's mission and its programs.

7. Visit each Post at least once. There is no substitute for personal contact. The District Commander should be the first person the Post Commander thinks of when help or advice is needed.

The best way to let a Post and its members know that the District cares about their success is by visiting them at a community service event or helping them with a Post function.

8. Ensure District meetings are well planned and well conducted.

A meeting must be interesting and educational or you won't have attendance at the next one. Here is where Post Officers get their direct information and their inspiration. In many cases, these will be the only higher level meetings some of the Post Officers and members will attend during the year. The impression they receive here will determine their attitude toward the entire organization.

9. Schedule and hold Schools of Instruction, whether they are in connection with a regular District meeting or standalone instruction in local areas within the District. If the Posts won't come to you, bring the Schools of Instruction to them. Send out notices well in advance and call the Post Commander ahead of time to remind him/her to be present.

The first step in developing leaders within our organization is ensuring that training is being received down to the lowest level. This means also providing specific training for program Chairmen, Trustees, and even for active leaders in the Post who may not hold an office.

10. Identify, instruct, and educate struggling Posts. Show a concern for their problems, assign a junior or respected past officer to help with their membership drives and program initiatives, suggest programs and methods of carrying them out, encourage other Posts to help their neighbors.

Identifying struggling Posts and knowing where each one struggles is important because they will need much of your attention. Personalized instruction that give guidance on a Post's weak areas are imperative to helping it correct its deficiencies.

11. Organize new Posts or help revitalize an older one with new members. Every District has some areas where the VFW is not represented. New Posts and new members bring new and innovative ways of thinking and energy to our organization.

New Posts increase the diversity of your network, foster new ideas, and can energize a District. New Posts can shift the paradigm and introduce a new model of doing things. New Posts can change the culture of your District.

12. Work with the Auxiliary. An active Auxiliary is great help for a Buddy Poppy drive, Community Activities, Voice of Democracy and many other programs. Treat them as partners – not subordinates.
13. Know your role as a member of the Department Council of Administration.

Among other duties, you are responsible for administering the affairs and transacting the business of the Department between Department Conventions. (Section 522, National Bylaws)

Here are some things you shouldn't do:

1. Don't knock the National Organization, Department, or Past District Officers. You can't keep respect for the District if you make the members feel that the rest of the VFW is bad.

The best way to discourage people within the organization is by telling them their leaders are no good and don't care about them. As District Commander, your main role is as motivator, educator, and mentor – inspire great leaders by being one.

2. Don't embarrass Post Officers. Respect them as you would want to be respected.

Great District Commanders are polite but firm: part of being a leader is having thick skin, patience, and understanding when dealing with difficult people. Be professional, be polite, have character, but speak up and be firm.

3. Don't be afraid to admit you don't know something.

It's okay to say, "I don't know, but I'll find out and get back to you." In fact, people will respect you for it. The District Commander isn't expected to know everything, but they are expected to have the tools and knowledge to find the answer and the character to follow-up.

4. Don't get discouraged.

District Commander is one of the toughest positions in the VFW. The job requires a great amount of knowledge, but even a greater amount of patience and determination. If you get stuck, ask a former District Commander for assistance – you should be able to lean on past District leaders for help.

Conclusion

“Leaders are people who hold a position of power: those who lead inspire. We follow those who lead not because we have to, but because we want to.” – Simon Sinek

As stated in the introduction, leadership is primarily the ability to get people to work together to accomplish a common goal. A good leader must create enthusiasm, provide direction, and encourage initiative. He/She must be able to set goals, plan their accomplishments, and obtain the cooperation of others to achieve them.

Your role as a mentor, educator, and promoter of the VFW’s mission and its programs doesn’t begin and end with Posts. A successful District Commander embraces this role, but a successful District has a Commander who educates and inspires each District officer and Chairman to do the same.

As District Commander, you represent the VFW in the District. The entire organization is judged by your actions, your appearance, and your personality. Likewise, your own membership will be inspired or turned off by the image you convey. It is very important that your personal conduct be above reproach.

Realize that each Post is different, but also realize that each one of the District officers and Chairmen is different as well. You must also provide them with the education and resources to realize their own success. To do this, you must constantly keep yourself educated by utilizing the tools and resources available to you through vfw.org and the Department.

You will be able to better assist the Posts in your District if you make yourself available. Emails, bulletins, and telephone calls are great, but nothing beats personal visits. Before you or another District officer visits a Post, you should educate yourself on their successes and shortcomings; be prepared to congratulate their success and give constructive feedback to help them going forward.

The better you know your District the more likely you will be able to spot communities that are ripe for a new Post. New Posts increase the diversity of your network, foster new ideas, and can energize a District. Your role as their mentor shouldn’t end once your term of office is over.

Plan your travels. Whenever possible, let a Post know when you are coming. Make full use of your subordinate officers. Coordinate their travels with yours. It is inexcusable to have three District Officers at one Post and none at another.

Know your people. Take an interest in their activities. Give credit where it is due. If someone needs a reprimand, do it privately. Don’t embarrass anyone in public. You are working with volunteers. Even if you disagree with their actions or beliefs, give them credit for sincerity. You will get better results with persuasion rather than with coercion. Don’t win an argument at the expense of losing a volunteer.

Finally, your role as Council Member is vital in keeping the Department leadership honest and transparent. Do not take this role lightly; especially, when it comes to the Department’s finances.
